The firemen of Statesville are making usual preparations this year for the celebration of "Home-Coming Week" and "Everybody's Days" They have secured many attractions for the thousands who are expected to be present during the week of Aug. 24-29. The attendance this year is expected to surpass the large crowds that have heretofore attended.

Not to Play Fayetteville.

The promoters of the local Baseball Association held a meeting in the Club Rooms Monday night for the purpose of considering the challenge sent them by the Fayetteville team to play at Wilmington for the Amateur championship of North Carolina.

Fayetteville proposal was to play at Wilmington the 27th, 28th and 29th, to this Hickory replied proposing to play the series at Charlotte which more nearly equal distance for both team. This proposition was refused and Hickory then proposed that three games be played at Wilmington and three at Hickory, this also met with witiq a refusal.

The time was also objected to by Hickory which brought forth the statement that the Fayetteville team had disbanded and could not be gotten together again before the 27th.

Inasmuch as the League teams disband the 25th if began to look to the Hickory men that Fayetteville in insisting on the 27th meant to employ a league team on that date instead of her own. For their reason the whole matter was called off and it appears that no game will be played.

DEATHS.

The last week the Reaper has been about his grim task and many homes in and about town are bereft.

The infant child of John F. Smyre died Aug. 5th and was buried at St. Stephens cemetery.

The infant child of F. A. Lock of Penelope was taken Aug. 4th. The burial was at Penelope.

Daniel Workman of Jugtown died Aug. 5th and was buried at Sardis.

The infant child of W. E. Holbrook followed its mother to rest Monday night.

Thanks.

The hand of Death has been resting heavily on my home, two of my best-beloved have been garnered by the Reaper. In my affliction I have been conscious of the friendship and devotion of those around me and I desire to express thus publicly my thanks to them and my appreciation of what they have done.

May the father who has power to bless as well as chasten have you all in his keeping.
W. E. HOLBROOK.

Resolutions of Respect.

To the memory of Mrs. Annie Winston Holbrook, adcepted by the United Helpers of Hickory Presbyterian Church.

Whereas it has pleased our Father in Heaven to remove from our midst our friend and co-worker.

Resolved first. That we bow in submission to a Providence that we in our weakness may not understand, but we accept as the dealing of a loving Father who does for his children only what is best.

Second. That we reverse the memory of our sister and grieve with the family in their great loss.

Third. That we tender to her husband, brothers and sisters our heartfelt sympathy and offer for them, especially for the bereaved husband and little ones, our earnest prayer for God's protection and comfort and for the sanctifying unto them of their deep distress.

Fourth. That these resolutions be spread upon the society records, a copy be sent to the family, to the Presbyterian Standard and to the Democrat.

Mrs. W. B. Menzies, Mrs. J. A. Ramsey, Mrs. H. C. Dixon.

Lyceum Course.

An attempt is being made and we trust it will be successful to obtain a Lyceum course for Hickory for the coming winter. It is something the city ought to have and support. Coming Over.

One of the best indications of Bryan's election is the way the papers which have been opposing Bryan since the nomination are now coming over to him.

The New York World which has been saying mean things from time immemorial is gradually getting back to Democracy and the Charlotte Observer whose publishers sometime ago denounced Democracy with pious fervor is now jumping desperately for the band wagon and shouting for Bryan.
