

This woman says she was saved from an operation by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lena V. Henry, of Norristown, Ga., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I suffered untold misery from fe-male troubles. My doctor said an opera-tion was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death.

"One day I read how other women had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I decided to try it. Before I had taken the first bottle I was better, and now I am entirely cured. "Every woman suffering with any female trouble should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Unenforced Laws.

If all the laws that are on the Statute books were literally enforced there would probably be a pronounced exodus from the town at once.

For example there are several legal requirements about riding bicycles on the sidewalks that are broken as often as a cyclist gets in action. Then there is one which makes it a penalty to to faster than four miles an hour which, if enforced, would nake riding a more leisurely oursuit than slow walking.

There is a clause that prohibits the throwing of trash in the parks. But a great deal thrown nevertheless and on occasions we've seen some sitting there.

It is a good thing these laws are dead letters but why were they ever made is what no one is able to tell.

Bonaparte as a Deadhead.

Frederic Febvre publishes in the Paris Gaulois an interesting document preserved in the archives of the Theatre Francais. It runs as follows: "Pass the citizen Bonaparte to this evening's performance of 'Manilus.'-Talma.

This shows, of course, that the Em peror Napoleon when he was only a leutenant of artillery was very glad of "orders" for the theater. M. Febvre adds a story which he heard from Talma's son to the effect that the future ruler of France used to lie in wait for the tragedian in the galleries of the Palais Royal and that the tragedian used often to whisper to his companion: "The other way, if you don't mind. I see Bonaparte coming, and I'm afraid he'll ask me for seats."
