52-Foot Fall Kills Two and Injures 52.

(Special to The Observer) Lancaster, S. C., July 30.—Going through a trestle and falling 52 feet into Hooper's Creek between Knox and Orr seven miles east of Chester, this afternoon about 5 o'clock, three coaches of a Lancaster & Chester mixed freight and passenger train, carrying about 140 passengers, were smashed into kindling wood, a colored brakeman was killed outright and 53 people more or less severely injured, one of whom has since died.

Nation's Capital Swept by Cyclone

Washington, July 30.—Like a giant flail, a cyclonic storm of wind, rain and hail whipped back and forth across the Nation's Capital today, leaving death and ruin in its wake. Three dead, scores injured, and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property destroyed was the toll recorded in the hurried canvass made when the city aroused itself from half an hour of helplessness in the grasp of the elements.

Notice.

To whom it may concern: The undersigned will not be responsible for any debts contracted for or by the Busy Bee Cafe or Restaurant of Hickory, N. C., or the management thereof.

An Outing for the Boys.

Mr. Arthur Moser with a number of the boy scouts went to Catawba River Tuesday evening, they report a most delightful time.

Mr. Moser is to be congratulated for the interest shown in the boys, and their pleasure. You can always count on him to do all in his power for the pleasure of those in whom he comes in contact. When these boys are grown up men they will never forget the kind efforts of Mr. Moser to make things pleasant for them. We take it upon ourselves to thank Mr. Moser for his kindness to these boys in trying to give them all the pleasure possible while they are boys.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN TORE HER CLOTHES

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Malone, N. Y., —"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has certainly done me a lot of good. I first heard of it when I was a girl and I always said that if I ever had a female trouble I would take it.

"I suffered from organic inflammation and would have spells when I would be in such pain that I would tear my clothes. One day my husband got the neighbors in to see what the matter was but they could not help me. My first thought was for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I sent my husband out for it and took it until I was entirely cured. I am a woman of perfect health and my health and happiness came from Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine. You may rest assured that I do all I can to recommend your wonderful medicine to my friends."—MRS. FRED STONE, Route No. 3, Malone, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.
