SULZER AND TAMMANY.

New York State is giving us a very striking illustration of government by organized politics. The net result of the situation seems to be that Tammany succeeded in placing Governor Sulzer in office and after he had begun to feel secure in his position, he proceeded to defy anantagonize Tammany's influence At this time it appears as if the Governor's policy is going to re sult most disastrously to himself Tammany seems to be the pos sessor of the most personal se crets of the lives of all men who come in contact with the organization, and if there are no harmful secrets to be exposed it wield: such an influence as to be able to place the purest of public men on the defensive in the protection of their own good names. If he is really guilty of the things which are charged against him, there seems little against him, there seems little the seems little against him, there seems little against him, there seems little against him, there seems little against him hairs able to estab. hope of his being able to establish a defense that will be able to check the efforts of the prose to check the efforts of the prose cution supported by Tammany. If however, the charges are a fabrication, woven for the purpose of destroying Sulzer and perpetuating Tammany, we hope that he will be able to establish his innocence and that Tammany will be the real victim of the last year about $2.25 a gallon Devoc malicious prosecution which has and a half-dollar less for trash been inaugurated.
