

The Big Sale
STARTS
Friday Morning
June 17th

Be on hand early and
enjoy the Bargain
Feast

Big Stock-Reducing Sale!

$10,000.00 STOCK - WILL BEGIN - $10,000.00 STOCK
Friday Morning, June 17th, Rain or Shine

This Will be a
Bona Fide Sale

No fake schemes will be used to mislead
you. Bring the family and spend the day

We wish to announce to the good people of Hickory and Catawba County and all the surrounding country that on Friday morning, June 17th, we are going to offer our entire stock of the most seasonable merchandise in this Gigantic Stock Reducing Sale at prices that will be startling from start to finish. Be on hand early and enjoy the Bargain Feast with your friends and neighbors. This is no Bankrupt Sale, (something better) just handing out good merchandise at a low price. It will pay you to travel many miles to attend this sale as everything is going to be sold cheap. We are not going to limit your purchases on any one article. You can buy as little or as much as you want of anything we have in the store. Note our prices with pencil and paper.

DRY GOODS	NOTIONS	SHOES AND OXFORDS	GROCERY SPECIALS
36 inch Bleaching, special value 6 1-2c yd. Barker Mills Bleaching, 10c value 7 1-2c yd. 10c Value Percale, sale price 7 1-2c yd. Simpson Prints Special 5c yd. 10 and 12 1-2c Lawn, Crepe and Organdie special at 8c yd. 40 inch Unbleached Sheetting—some value—our special 4 1-2c yd. Bed Spreads that are fit for the President's bed, $1.50 values Special for this sale at 98c each	$1.00 value in Corsets 79c 50c Hose, special 39c 25c Hose, special 17c 15c Hose, special 11c 10c Hose, special 7c We have a beautiful line of 25c Silk Hose to go on sale at 17c pr. Shirtwaists for Ladies worth up to $1.50, your choice 48c each 50c Shirts, choice 39c each $1.00 Shirts 79c each B. V. D. Underwear. Everybody knows its value, our price. 39c Towels—25c value 16c Towels—15c value 9c	$4.00 Shoes for men $2.69 3.50 Shoes for men 2.39 3.00 Shoes for men 2.19 2.50 Shoes for ladies 1.98 2.00 Shoes for ladies 1.59 1.50 Shoes for ladies98 75c value Champion Tennis Oxfords for59	5 pound bucket Snow Drift Lard, 60c value, our special price for this sale 49c 10 pound bucket for only 98c 25c value Arbuckle Coffee 18c lb. 20c Loose Roasted Coffee 13c lb. Grandma's Washing Powder, 3 boxes for 10c $1.00 Alarm Blocks 48c 10 quart Tin Buckets 9c each Hats for men, $2.50 to $5.00 values, your choice during this spe- cial sale $1.98 $2.00, and $2.25 Hats $1.59 $1.50 Hats 98c

We have numerous other specials and a store full of bargains that space will not permit us to mention. It will pay you to come here and examine our stock, for we mean business and the lines we carry are sure to go at the price we have put on them.

CATAWBA STORE CO.

Field's Old Stand, Hickory, N. C.

WEDDING OF INTEREST LAST THURSDAY EVENING

Miss Mary Shuford Becomes the Bride of Mr. R. G. S. Davis, of Henderson.

Last Thursday evening at 9 o'clock the beautiful home of Mrs. A. A. Shuford on Tenth Avenue, was the scene of a wedding of interest throughout the State when her daughter, Miss Mary Campbell Shuford and Mr. Robert Green Singleton Davis of Henderson, were united in marriage by Rev. J. L. Murphy, D. D., pastor of Corinth Reformed Church and pastor of the bride. The ceremony took place before an improvised altar banked with smilax and peonies.

Before the bridal party entered, Greig's "Ich Liebe Dich" and Otto Canton's "Du Bist Eine Blume" were sung by Mrs. Dr. J. H. Shuford, accompanied by Mrs. John H. Hatcher.

The bride's five sisters, Mrs. James Shuford and Mrs. Hugh D'Anna, gowned in blue taffetta, Mrs. Charles H. Menzies in green taffetta, Mrs. Alex Shuford in pink taffetta, and Mrs. Bascom B. Blackwelder in lavender taffetta, carrying hat baskets of sweet peas, attended as dames of honor. Misses Maud and Virginia Cilley of Philadelphia, nieces of the bride, entered next, as maids of honor, dressed in white lingerie dresses and carrying pink sweet peas. Master Barrie B. Blackwelder, Jr., preceded the bride, carrying the ring on a silver tray.

The bride was lovely in her wedding dress of white Duchess satin, trimmed with rose point lace, her tulle veil falling from a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and entered with her mother who was gowned in French gray crepe-de-chine, trimmed with rose point lace, with corsage bouquet of lavender sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The bride was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Jack Horton of Petersburg, Va.

After the ceremony an informal reception was given for the family and the out-of-town guests. The home was beautiful in its color scheme of pink and white. Mr. and Mrs. Davis left on the 11:20 train for Asheville, from which place they left for an extended trip throughout the West.

Mrs. Davis is the youngest daughter of the late Mr. Abel A. Shuford and Mrs. Alda Campbell Shuford. Her father will be long remembered for his integrity of character and as a man with unusual business ability, who did much towards the building up of his section of the State. Their dainty and attractive daughter is a graduate of St. Mary's College at Raleigh, of the class of 1910, and is popularly known throughout the State by a host of friends. In this city she was a leader in society.

Mr. Davis is a prominent young business man of Henderson, associated with the firm of E. G. Davis & Sons, and is recognized as one of the most popular men of the State.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were numbered Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cooper, Misses Fannie Cooper, Lucy Parkman, and Aileen Lewis, Messrs. A. C. Cheek, A. A. and Jerry Zollicoffer, George Gilliam and Frank Robards of Henderson; Messrs. Rob Martin and Jack Horton of Petersburg, Va., Mrs. Roy Hoefer of Worcester, Mass., Mrs. Russell Sherrill of Raleigh, Miss Alice Vanderford of Salisbury, and Misses Annie Wood and Ida Rozerson of Edenton.

Mr. Robert Bonner of Marjon, spent the week-end with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. P. Bonner.

Miss Grace Henderson is visiting her brother, Mr. Will Henderson, at Wilmington.

Rev. W. E. Murray of Rochester, N. Y., preached two fine sermons at the Lutheran church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Taylor and daughter of Rhodhiss, were Hickory visitors Sunday.

Miss Gladys Reid has returned from Farrisfern.

Society.

The Philathea class of the Presbyterian church held its monthly business and social meeting on Tuesday, June 8, at the home of Mrs. Wheeler, on Highland Avenue. The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved that the Philathea class of the Presbyterian Church approves of the stand taken by our pastor, Rev. J. G. Garth, in regard to the sale of soft drinks and other unnecessary articles on the Sabbath day." After the devotional and business meeting a short program, consisting of recitations, vocal music, etc., was enjoyed by the class. The hostess then served a bountiful and dainty luncheon in two courses, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. George Yoder entertained on Friday afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Aleine Hopkins of Wilmington. Punch was served by Misses Janie Menzies and Charlotte Garth to 25 little guests who were present. After playing many games they were invited to the dining room, which was a scene of beauty with its pink and white decorations. Pink and white ice cream and cakes were served, and dainty souvenirs of baskets of candy and Chinese colls were presented to the guests. The guest of honor prize, a crepe-de-chine handkerchief, was presented to Miss Aleine Hopkins, and Miss Louise Cilley won the prize in the contest. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Hopkins of Wilmington, and Mrs. Luther Long of Newton. Among the out-of-town guests was Miss Margaret Feimster of Newton. The young guests pronounced it a most delightful afternoon.

Miss Charlotte Garth entertained the As-You-Like-It Club last Wednesday. All members and 4 visitors, Virginia and Maud Cilley, Virginia Menzies and Aleine Hopkins, were present. After roll call the members engaged in sewing and games. Mrs. Garth read an interesting story about a girl that ran away from home. Cream and cake were served, when the club adjourned to meet next with Janie and Mary S. Menzies.

June 10, Mrs. G. F. Ivey was hostess for the last meeting of the season, of the Embroidery Club when officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. T. F. Stevenson; vice president, Mrs. J. A. Moretz; secretary, Mrs. C. L. Mosteller. Mrs. W. H. Nicholson and Miss Fannie Penn White were elected new members. Visitors for the afternoon were Mrs. R. J. Foster and Miss Stanley Hall, who delighted the club by reading a poem "The New Lochinvar" by Will Carlton, A pleasing piano number was rendered by Miss Dorothy Ivey, while dainty refreshments in two courses were being served. The club adjourned until September.

Miss Frankie Jarrett entertained about 20 of her little friends at a birthday party Saturday evening, at her home on Tenth Avenue, in celebration of her tenth birthday. Interesting games were played, after which the young guests enjoyed cream and cake. The hostess received many nice presents.

* LOCAL AND PERSONAL *

Mr. S. E. Killian is spending this week at his farm in Blowing Rock.

Miss Cora Yount has returned from a visit to her brother, Dr. Eugene Yount, of Statesville.

Mrs. M. L. Flowe will leave the first week in July for San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and other western points of interest. She will be away three or four months.

The many friends of Mr. E. L. Flowers will be glad to know that he is recovering nicely after a serious operation in a Statesville hospital.

Mr. C. R. Godkin, who has been superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.,

here for the past eighteen months has been transferred to High Point. We regret very much to see him leave Hickory, but hope him much success in his new field.

Mrs. F. O. Davis is visiting her brother, Dr. J. H. Jenkins, at Gastonia.

Dr. C. A. Munroe and Miss Mary have returned from a visit to Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Douglass, at Davidson.

Misses Margaret M. Comb and Frances Lentz left Saturday for the Panama Exposition, and other points of interest in the western section of the United States. They will join a large party in Nashville, Tenn.

Master Grier Kirkpatrick, of Yorkville, S. C., is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. L. G. Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. C. A. Munroe has returned from a visit to her mother, Mrs. Annie Stokes, at Farmville, Va.

Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Holler of Easley, S. C., are the guests of their sister, Mrs. George Killian.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Deal of Randleman, are visiting Mr. Deal's sister, Mrs. Eubert Lyster.

Miss Pat Johnson of Charlotte, who has been the guest of Miss Bessie McComb, left yesterday for Cullowhee, where she will attend the summer school.

Mrs. Annie Reid of Hendersonville, is spending some time with her sisters, Misses Mary and Fannie Roseborough.

Mrs. W. T. Hudson, and little son, Colin Monroe, of Greenville, S. C., are the guests of Mrs. Hudson's parents Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Munroe.

Miss Millie Kate McComb has returned from the Blue Ridge conference of the Y. W. C. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Villard Sutherland have returned from a trip to the Panama Exposition, and report a delightful time.

Mr. Wesley Martin is expected home from Forest City this week.

We are glad to know Miss Annie Killian is improving after her illness.

Service....

We have built our business so far upon the solid foundation of a substantial service rendered to every customer.

We expect to continue this policy. We guarantee you full value for every dollar spent with us.

Our stock is large and our prices are low.

We solicit your trade.

You will always find us within instant call by telephone and prompt in our deliveries.

TELEPHONE 17 or 317.

Lutz's Drug Store

"On the Corner."

HICKORY, N. C.

Ladies' and Men's
Palm Beach
Suits
CLEANED AND PRESSED
50c.

We do all kinds of dry cleaning. Don't be afraid to trust us with your good clothes.

L. H. LESLIE

TAILOR - CLEANER - PRESSER

Phone City Pressing Club No. 190

104 Papers for $1.00. Subscribe Now