GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Senate. Bills Introduced. Mr. Payne, by request, to prevent the substitution of drugs in prescriptions.

Mr. Ardrey, to incorporate the Charlotte Literary and Library Association.

Mr. King, to prevent discrimination in pensioning Confederate soldiers; to allow town of High Point to issue bonds to raise money for a Grand School.

Mr. Aycock, to amend the Code and require Clerks of Superior Courts to make annual reports.

At the expiration of the morning hour Mr. Walser explained his vote on the resolution relating to the Force bill. He did not believe the pending bill in the United States Senate a Force bill.

He undertook in a lengthy speech to vindicate the Republican party. He reviewed the election law of this State, and said it was as much a force law as the one proposed in Congress.

Bills Acted Upon. House resolution to instruct our Senators and Representatives in Congress relative to the Force bill. Mr. Turner offered an amendment to make it a resolution of thanks for their efforts to defeat the measure.

Mr. Alston, (colored) said that he was not afraid to trust the white men of North Carolina. He did not think we needed the Force Bill in this State. The negroes of North Carolina are better than those of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama, and a law to protect them is not necessary here.

Mr. Galloway said that in his district elections are as fair as they can be. The resolutions as amended passed by 35 to 5.

House. House was called to order at 11 o'clock by Speaker Doughton. Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Perry of the House. Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

The Training School Bill. Mr. Sutton offered his amendment:

1. That persons teach as long in public schools as they have enjoyed free tuition. He said that he had been very doubtful about this question. I propose where there is a matter of doubt of the line of educational progress to give ladies and progress the benefit of that doubt. Mr. Henry opposed the amendment, because it would make it a gross out rage upon a helpless part of our community. We do not require our boys to teach who go to the A. & M. College, and we ought not to put this condition upon the girls. Let us do justice to the girls and no half-way measures.

Mr. Pritchard's amendment providing that no applicant could receive tuition unless affidavit is made that neither the applicant nor parents are able to pay tuition, was read by request.

Mr. Jones of Wake did not like Mr. Pritchard's amendment. It is the grossest injustice and equality. We are to establish a great free school for girls who are to teach. This is not fair. People are to bear their share of taxation, and then the school ought to be open to all alike. He replied to Mr. Henry and said that his observation was that the University has its existence because it brings education to boys who can go nowhere else. In opening the doors alone to poor girls, Mr.

Pritchard's argum nt is specious and puts a badge of poverty upon those who enter the school. I believe that Mr. Sutton's amendment is an insult to the girls. A girl 18 years old wants to be a teacher—she wants to teach—by Mr. Sutton's amendment she is compelled to teach long.

I would connect the girl's best interest with the best interest of the State. If she wants to marry a nice fellow like Mr. Skinner or Mr. Ray, let her do it, and not feel bound by contract to teach.

Mr. Jones sent forward a letter as written by a constituent in Wake county—a young girl in Wake—who wrote in the Progressive Farmer as follows:

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec., 1890.

At the State Fair of 1889 I offered to sell to the highest bidder a quilt which I made when I was seven years old, the amount to be put in Savings Bank to help build an industrial training college for the white girls of the State of North Carolina. I was much discouraged that I did not get a bid on my quilt at the Fair, so mamma gave me three dollars for it to which I add one dollar, making four dollars, and deposit for the above mentioned purpose. It is a small amount, but as a poor girl, I hope, like the "widow's mite," it will be counted as much. It is all I have and I made it myself. May much be added to it and may we soon have a flourishing industrial training college for girls in this our beloved State. And, if I may suggest, let the generous hearted Dr. R. L. Abernethy be made President.

WILLIE MAUD BUFFALO.

Mr. Williams, of Iredell, said that those who opposed this bill were charged with being against education. We are not against education—but we want education better among the common classes. We have enough good teachers in my county, and we do not want to take the money from the children for any purpose however good.

Sentiment in Raleigh has been worked up in favor of this bill. There has been a great deal of lobbying here for it.

Mr. Jones, of Wake, replied and said that Raleigh did not want the school. He and his colleagues favored its going anywhere, and we will wish God's blessings upon it if it goes to Iredell and Ex-Speaker Leazer is President of the school.

Mr. Williams replied that, if established, he would like to see it located in Raleigh, but that he believed he represented three-fourths of his constituents when he opposed this bill, which his duty and convictions compel him to do.

Mr. Brinson got the attention at once by saying: "to be or not to be the question." The object of this bill is not only to teach the teachers but the real object is to make a better system that will reach every poor girl. I have been studying the educational problem. He opposed Mr. Pritchard's amendment, and pointed out the great need of better schools and stated that this bill would be of great advantage to the little children.

Good teachers have to undo what was done wrong. Too many teachers leave a bad mark on the child's mind. He made earnest and forcible plea for the passage of the bill and said that its failure would bring sorrow of many hearts. To the Alliance stands behind us, and he read the resolution passed by the State Alliance in Asheville demanding the establishment of a 'training school. An Allianceman was to turn his back upon the demand of his order to oppose this bill.

Mr. Gower, of Johnston, said that this bill had a great deal wider scope than merely to teach teachers but also to give them broader training.

Mr. Ray, of Macon county, replied to Mr. Jones and said he opposed taking the money from the children—a fund that should be as sacred as the ark of the covenant. The proposed school cannot reach the children. If the amendment of Mr. Pritchard is adopted the bill will be worthless. It is put the badge of pauperism, like the mark of Cain, upon the brow of the women who go out of the college. The Alliance never demanded of us to put our hands in the pockets of the children in order to help the women. Everything depends upon the education of the women. I do not object to the amount appropriated. I oppose it because it opens a door for other money. The object would be a good one if it was to give the girls an education; but we have no right to take it from the children to establish this school. Mr. Alexander, with a pleasant allusion to the unmarried men who had two years ago, I hoped to defeat a bill similar to this because that bill provided to educate boys and girls alike. I favor this bill because it especially provides that the money can be used alone for girls. Without an education woman and we will never see to the highest standard. I see that our State is behind in the balances of education. This school will raise us in the standard of education. Our people demand better educational facilities. The best way to give it is to prepare the teachers to teach right. Dr. Cray promises to help us. It we do not establish this school we cannot get help from the Peabody fund. We don't want to make any discriminations against the poor girl.

Mr. Bryan, of Wayne, did not believe that the amendment of Mr. Pritchard ought to be adopted. It sounded well upon first reading, but was not just. Rich and poor ought to stand alike in the school.

WHY IS IT THAT THE GAUZE DOOR RANGE IS THE Greatest Wonder of the age?

Because it is the only Range in which you can roast meats and fowls (all other ranges bake them) also because you have 30 per cent less loss in weight of meats, than in any other range making the saving of cost of a Gaule Door Range every year in this one item alone. Think of it! A ten pound roast will lose four pounds when baked in any other range, which is 40 per cent, while a similar piece when roasted in a Gaule Door Range will lose only one pound, or less than 10 per cent.

Because it prevents Dyspepsia, as nothing fried need be eaten if you have a Gaule Door Range, all broiling being done in the oven, the greasy fumes, HOW IS ALL THIS ACCOMPLISHED? Inside the oven door is a sheet of fine brass wire gauze, which allows a circulation of pure air to pass into the oven, hence the name, GAUZE DOOR RANGE. It more attention was paid to how your food was cooked, there would be less need of Doctors.

The Principals of the Philadelphia, New York and Boston Cooking Schools all use the Gaule Door Range in their Schools, because they want the best.

You owe a duty to your family both in saving their health and saving money by using a Gaule Door Range. Agencies for their sale have been established everywhere. If there is no Agent in your immediate vicinity, write to us, and we will furnish you with circulars, and tell you where to get one. MANUFACTURED ONLY BY Thomas, Roberts, Stevenson Co. PHILADELPHIA.
