List Taker—S. W. McKee. Several hundred subscriptions are due and we need the money. You know the balance. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rhodes, of Cherryville, were in Lincoln a few hours last Wednesday. Miss Eva Sumner is off at Chapel Hill this week, attending the University Commencement. Fallston High School, G. T. Heaton, principal, closed last week. Mr. Heaton has made quite a success of the school. The C. & L. Railroad Stockholders meeting came off in Dallas Thursday of this week. A number of our citizens will attend. The Conference of the E. Lutheran Tennessee Synod convened at Salem church, Lincoln county, last week and was largely attended. Drs. Lawrence Fox and Chas. Bees attended the State Dental Association at Winston-Salem last week and each passed a successful examination. Next Monday is the day for the meeting of the joint Boards of Magistrates and Commissioners. The county commissioners and the superintendent of public instruction are to be elected. Messrs. Lender & Co., are getting their Mica Mills here in operation. The Mica is to be ground up and made into axle grease. We will have more to say about this enterprise later on. It affords us great pleasure to note that our young friend Mr. Zeddie Johnston has passed his final examination successfully at the Naval Academy. He expects to start off on the "Constellation" for a summer cruise next Saturday. Commencing June 1st 1892 the Richmond and Danville Railroad will put on sale reduced rate round trip Summer Excursion tickets to all summer resorts. Tickets on sale June 1st to Sept. 30th, limited returning October 31st 1892. We are sorry to say that our collections during court week were not by any means what we expected. About $300 are now due us and we need the money. We can manage to live on our garden, products, but the garden products don't pay bills. A very sad incident occurred at King's Mountain a few weeks ago. Miss Lula Falls, a young lady about 17 years old, attempted to commit suicide by taking laudanum. She was found in her room in time to be aroused from her stupor by strenuous efforts on the part of physician and friends. Rev. R. D. Owenby, of Buncombe county, near Asheville, will assist Rev. J. F. Austin, on the Lincoln circuit, during the remainder of the conference year. Mr. Owenby is just out of Weaversville College, where he won the Oratorical medal during the recent commencement exercises of that institution. We are sorry to note that the little three year old son of Dept. Sheriff and Mrs. J. D. Plouk, keeper of the jail, had the misfortune last Saturday to have his leg broken just below the knee. He had gone to the house near by of Pink Hoke, colored. The piazza in front of this house is about 4 feet high and the little boy fell from this piazza. He is doing reasonably well. Hon. Paul B. Means, of Cabarrus, informs us that last week the delegates from the 7th Congress-

al district elected him an alternate to the National Democratic Convention at Chicago. He declined to accept the position of alternate, and the delegates afterward met and elected Mr. Joseph C. Cobb, of Lincoln, an alternate in Col. Means' place.—News & Observer. Maj. Cobb will be one that will go. Chicago is his old home. We have been informed that the King's Mountain Cotton Mills cleared about 40 per. cent last year. It is not an easy matter always to find out the profits made by cotton mills; but this comes from good authority. Cotton mills everywhere, it is said, were profitable last year. If the price of the next cotton crop is fixed the previous year, will not cotton bring more next year? Next Saturday the Third party will hold a convention at the court house. We are informed that each sub-alliance has been requested to send delegates to the meeting. It is to be an open meeting, and we are told the object is to decide as to whether they will put out a ticket, and that if they decide in the affirmative, nominations are to be made. We hope they will see the error of their ways and will continue in the faith of the Democratic party. Court Proceedings. Below we publish some of the most important proceedings in the Superior Court last week. State vs Wm Bradshaw, selling liquor unlawfully, $20 fine and costs. Judgment of the court that the defendant be imprisoned in the State prison at hard labor for three years from which judgment appeals to Supreme Court. Appeal bond fixed at $25. Appearance bond fixed at $1000. Justified. "The defendant having married the woman whom he was convicted upon promise of marriage the judgment heretofore rendered is stricken out and upon his paying the cost in this case and paying to the Clerk $25 attorneys fees incurred by the wife in this prosecution and giving a bond to be approved by the Clerk of this court in the sum of $500 to appear at the Spring Term 1893 of the Superior Court of Lincoln county and show by witnesses other than himself, his wife or his father's family that he has lived with and supported his said wife, judgment is suspended." Murdock vs. C. C. R. R. A number of civil cases were disposed of at this term of the Superior Court. The only jury trial, however, was that in the case of R. M. Roseman, Administrator of Robert Murdock, against the Carolina Central Railroad, which occupied Friday and Saturday. The plaintiff alleged in his complaint the wrongful killing of Robert Murdock, a negro, near Iron Station, a year or so ago. The facts elicited during the trial indicated that the negro, while in a drunken condition in the first class car without a ticket and refusing to pay his fare, was ejected from the car by Capt. J. T. Alderman, the conductor, three fourths of a mile west of Iron Station, and froze to death during the night. The plaintiff was represented by D. W. Robinson and Col. H. C. Jones. The defendant company by T. H. Cobb, of Asheville, and A. Barwell, of Charlotte. The case was well conducted and ably presented on both sides. The jury, after four hours' deliberation, rendered their verdict, finding all the issues in favor of the plaintiff and assessing the damages at one thousand dollars, from which judgment the defendant took an appeal to the Supreme Court. Who Will Succeed Osborne? As Frank I. Osborne, at present solicitor of the 11th Judicial District, is to be the next Attorney General of the State, the office of solicitor of this district, will have to be supplied by a new man. This district is composed of the counties of Union, Mecklenburg, Gaston, Lincoln, Catawba, Alexander, Cleveland, Rutherford and Polk. A special judicial convention to nominate a candidate for successor to Mr. Osborne will be called, and it is probable that at least six out of the nine counties will have candidates. Already two candidates are in the field. They are Mr. Bartlett Shipp, of Lincoln, and Mr. J. L. Webb, of Shelby. Mr. Shipp is a son of the late Judge Wm. Shipp, and was a member of the Charlotte law firm of Bynum, Bynum & Shipp. The Charlotte News hears that an excellent lawyer of Monroe will also be a candidate for the solicitorship. The contest promises to be lively and spirited.—News & Observer. [Mr. Shipp informs us that he is not a candidate.—Ed.] The Third Party Organizing and to Organize. Goldsboro Argus: "The Third party' for the State has been organized, so we were informed yesterday by Mr. Abbott L. Swinson, the chairman of the Third party executive committee for this county, and also for this congressional district. He told us that they organized in Raleigh Wednesday night and elected eight delegates from the State at large, headed by Col. L. L. Polk, to the Third party's national convention, and that each congressional district in the State is to elect four delegates, these conventions to be held on June 16th. The county conventions to elect delegates to the district conventions will be held in the various counties of this State on June 11th, and that the congressional conventions will be held on June 16th. The delegates to Omaha, appointed the other day, are slated to be Col. Polk, Otho Wilson, Col. Tom Long and J. H. Jervis." Hall's Hair Renewer contains the natural food for keeping the hair healthy. MARTIN, President. J. B. IVEY, Secretary. The Convention—Its Results. While we have reason to believe that Reformers throughout the State, were cheated out of a fair representation in the State convention, yet we will be charitable and attribute it all to the ignorance of those outside—ignorance for most of which, they are excusable. Because it is impossible for those outside to see and understand like those of us inside—That too, when the press of the country is pregnant with imaginary evils, and every column full of direful warnings. Under similar circumstances, we might have done the same, or even worse. But taking everything into consideration, we consider its results a grand and glorious victory for the Reformers. Though it is not just what we would wish, still everything goes to prove that it is not what the other side would like to have had either. The platform, which we publish in another column, we do endorse in toto. We believe if we could get our national legislators to enact those principles into practical law, we would soon see great improvement in the financial interests of our government. As to the nominees, we will say that if they are very well satisfied with them. If they will plant themselves upon the state platform and show by their acts and words that they are not using it just to get in on, we can support them cheerfully. We say to the brethren of the Alliance to consider well before they make up their minds for or against. Don't be provoked by the partisan press of the State to make rash decisions. Now if the press of the state waits all classes harmonized on this tick-it, it must let by-gones be by-gones, otherwise their will be the biggest scratching in November ever heard of in North Carolina. The people are not to be trifled with; they are yet free and they know it.—Hickory Mercury. Notice. I will attend at the following places to list the taxes for Lincoln township for 1892, viz.: At Brick School House, June 7th, from 9 to 3 o'clock. At Laboratory Cotton Mills, June 8th, from 8 to 12 o'clock. At Lincoln Paper Mills, June 8th, from 1 to 5 o'clock. At Blackburn's Shop, June 9th, from 9 to 3 o'clock. At Lincoln, June 10, 11, 13, 14, S. W. MCKEE, List Taker. Colonel Thos. Skinner Has tens to the Rescue of His Brother Harry. RALEIGH, N. C., May 28th 1892.—Ex-Congressman Thomas S. Skinner in a letter gives express denial to Polk's announcement that Col. Harry Skinner would head the Third party delegation to Omaha, and says he will not be a delegate to any Third party convention or have anything to do with that party, but will stand by the Democracy of North Carolina in its fight to preserve the State from Republican rule and will give the Democratic ticket his full support.
