MONEY.

While money is an important factor in all the avocations of life it should not be the sole object of pursuit.

Many lives have been spent in accumulating money and these lives have gone out and left the filthy lucre behind for other hands to handle.

We have seen statements something like this: Such a man is well qualified for such and such an office, because he is rich, he is a good financier &c.

Money may be the medium by which many men may secure high worldly honors, but it will never be the sole means by which they can obtain a beautiful mansion beyond the tomb.

DIVERSITY OF CROPS.

While we are not engaged in farming we claim to have some knowledge of what is necessary in order to be successful.

When a boy of 11 years were hired to a farmer who had an abundance of good land. He kept four work horses and attempted to cultivate 100 acres of this land in corn and cotton.

We worked a year for another farmer who pursued an entirely different plan. He also had four work horses, but he allotted only 10 acres to each hand and horse.

instead of a drudgery. Small farms, well prepared, always pay the best. Most any land can be improved so as to produce well.

TILLMAN NOT DEAD.

We met a gentleman from Greenville, S. C. on Tuesday of this week and while waiting for the train we asked him a few questions about Mr. Tillman and his so-called spies.

He says he's not a Prohibitionist except morally, but good results will be felt many years to come from the work Mr. Tillman has accomplished.

These lawless spies, according to the S. C. papers have committed some terrible depredations. The maltreatment of a woman by them is all bash.

Newspapers are great educators and they ought to be careful when they make statements to be as near correct as possible.

Reproach should not be brought upon the entire fraternity because of incorrect statement made by some. We have refrained from copying many harsh squibs because we had doubts as to the correctness.

Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12, 1894.—Senator Jones, of Ark.; Vest, of Mo., and Mills, of Texas, the three good democrats charged with the important duty of preparing the amendments to the Wilson tariff bill which are to be submitted to the Senate Finance committee, have proven themselves giants and earned the gratitude of the country, which wants the tariff disposed of at the earliest possible moment.

When the House not adjourned Saturday on account of the sudden death of Representative Hook, of Ohio, who dropped dead Friday afternoon while visiting a friend, it is probable that Representative Bland's bill for the coinage of the silver dollar in the Treasury would have passed to-day.

Senator Morgan, of Ala., who is chairman of the Senate committee on Foreign Relations, was at the time the annexation treaty was negotiated with the Representatives of the provisional government of Hawaii strongly in favor of annexation.

The remains of the late Representative Hook, were accompanied to Ohio by a joint Congressional committee composed of the following: Representatives Hare, Springer, Bryan, Halick, McKaig, Ellis, of Ore., and Ritchie, and Senators Brice, Sherman, Dubois, Hutton, Martin and Allen.

The House committee on the Judiciary does not take any stock in either the beauties or benefits of woman's suffrage, as was shown by its prompt action in making an unfavorable report on the resolution of Representative Bell, of Colo., providing for a woman's suffrage amendment to the Constitution.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the democratic Congressional campaign committee Senator Faulkner, of W. Va., was unanimously elected chairman and Lawrence Gardner and James L. Norris, of Washington, secretary and treasurer, respectively.

The House Naval committee has reported adversely the resolution asking for an investigation of the granting of speed premiums to the constructors of naval vessels.

Special to the Observer. WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Secretary Carlisle sends to the House, with his own recommendation, the suggestion of the Solicitor of the Treasury that Congress appropriate $100,000 to survey 32,000 acres of land in southwestern North Carolina.

Survey of North Carolina Land.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Secretary Carlisle sends to the House, with his own recommendation, the suggestion of the Solicitor of the Treasury that Congress appropriate $100,000 to survey 32,000 acres of land in southwestern North Carolina.

Representative Shell will introduce an amendment when the bill to restore the democratic railway postal clerks is up, by Harrison comes up in the House. It will include post office inspectors.

Some of our Congressmen complain of persons who expect these Congressmen to secure office for them, although they reside in another district.

An Unwilling Bridegroom.

Crawls county has a queer matrimonial affair which must be settled somehow. Last fall Mr. Jacob Johnston, an eccentric bachelor about 40 years old lost his aged mother. He soon decided that he needed a helpmate and house keeper.

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genessee St., Lockport, N. Y., says: "Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was nearly in despair, and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

Don'ts for Boys.

- Don't gamble. Don't drink whisky. Don't cultivate bad habits. Don't ever be unkind to your brother. Don't think it smart to disobey your father. Don't talk when you should listen to older people. Don't ever talk disrespectfully about girls or women. Don't imitate a man who is not as good as you wish to be. Don't use bad language before ladies and old men; don't use it at all. Don't indulge in vulgar conversation. Don't try to be too good. Be a boy, but be a manly boy. Don't neglect your opportunities for securing an education. Don't always be making good resolutions, and as often breaking them. Don't go wild after some other boy's sister when you should go with your own. Don't excuse yourself because you are better than the worst of boys you can think of. Don't treat any girl in a way that you would not like your sister treated by other boys—Etc.

There is no claim made for Ayer's Sarsaparilla which cannot be endorsed by scores of testimonials. This fact plainly proves that the blood is the source of most disorders and that Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best of blood purifiers. Try it this month.
