-It was in the Courses of last special study he was amply qualisustained a great loss when he died. His family had the utmost confdence in his plety which is strong evidence of his upright walk. A short time before he died he said he was ready and not afraid to die. I was his family pastor and my visits to his home were quite frequent and were always pleasant to me. Dr. Lawing will be greatly missed by his many friends. May the Lord bless his family in their sad bereavement, comfort them by the abiding presence of his Holy Spirit and sustain them in this great loss which we feel is his sternal gain. Dr. Lawing was born in Mecklenburg county, N. C., in Aug, 1837, died at his home in Lincolnton, March 6th, 1894. Was intered in the Methodist Church in Lincolnton. N. C., Thursday, March 8tb, 1894. M. T. S.

Resolutions of Lincoln Lodge No. 137 A. F. and A. M. on the Death of Dr. Lawing.

WHEREAS, the Great Architect of the Universe in inscrutable wisdom has taken "from labor to refreshment" our beloved friend and brother, Dr. John Means Lawing, there; fore, be it

Resolved. That in the death of Bro. Lawing this Lodge has lost one of its oldest and most devoted members; the Masonic fraternity one in whom was centered those qualities of heart worthy of being treasured in our memories and emulated in our "daily walk ;" and, society, one whose quiet life has been marked by noble sacrifices and great usetulpess.

Rezolved, That while our bearts are saddened by this dispensation of Heaven, yet we bow in bumility to the will of God, knowing that he doeth all this things well.

Resolved, That we extend our sincere and profound sympathies to his family in the hour of their and bereavement and irreparable lose. Resolved, That these resoltions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge, and a copy be farnished the family of the acceased and the Liucoin Countes with request to pabjish, and that the members of this
