However, no one who is at all familiar with President Cleveland's public utteratices, not to mention his private conversations, on the tariff question, can have any doubl.as to which of the two-the original Wilson bill or the amended Senate bill -he prefers. There are good ocrats of the House will stand up for the original Wilson bill, and it can be set down as certain that the protection amondments of the Senate will never be accepted in their present shape. There is no. longer any talk of even an attempt being made to have the House agree to all of the Senate amendments in bulk. There never was any foundation for such talk, beyoud the imaginations of some people who would like to see the: matter disposed of in that way. The Georgians in Congress are beginning to get somewhat worked up over the election of a Senator to succeed Mr. Walsh, When Speaker Crisp doclined the proffered appointment to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Colquit, it was generally supposed that he thereby soured what the boys call "a lead pipe cinen" on shaves, but as gentlemen and lathe full term, although it was then dies, and it is a notable tact that known that Representative Tur- he will have no other kind about ner would probably be a candidate. bim.
