IT BECOMES OUR painful duty to reply to a libelous article in the Hickory Mail-Day of Oct. 3rd, by one J. Thomas McLean of this town, which hoists upon us in a bad light. We do not know the design of the writer for up to the date of that article we supposed him to be a friend to us. We have never given him any ground for such an attack. Our mind is not at all troubled about his political views—we did not know that he had any views at all.

He states that we were "much concerned when we came here as to whether to be an Alliancemar or a Democrat—signifying which was the more popular. This is absolutely false.

We try to be charitable toward our fellow men, we have never been anything politically, but a [illegible]

As to Democracy we are in a [illegible] everlast[illegible] hills.

In regard to [illegible] from the Charlotte [illegible] or any other [illegible] which great crime he accuses us of, we have only to say that at [illegible] and he knew it when he uttered it.

We presume when he speaks of the "[illegible] service" he speaks of the former editor of the Courier. He says "He [illegible] (referring to us) [illegible] sell out for [illegible] We will say in this connection that we are not after any [illegible] the spirit of the people. We [illegible] to run a democratic paper and try to treat all men fairly. Times have been very [illegible] for the people and we have [illegible] accomplished our original purpose in [illegible] the good people of the county and [illegible] their property co-operation we hope to give them a paper that will be worthy of their support. Our paper has some cuts in it and when is the paper that does not have them? All editors know why these cuts are used.

Now in conclusion we will say that we are unable to see how a man can possess a National prohibitionist and act as correspondent for the leading Democratic Journal of the state and also pose as correspondent of a leading Populist Journal.

We never take controversies and do not propose to enter them, and we hope this will [illegible] sufficient.

ASHEVILLE LETTER.

Showing the Inconsistency of Republi-Popilcanism the Dangers of Radicalism and Comparing the Doctrines of the Two Co-operating Parties, &c.

Correspondence of COURIER.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 13, 1894:—It is hardly possible that the good old honest, intelligent farmer of Lincoln county who has heretofore stood on the Omaha platform and supported the Third party can fail to see the ridiculousness of this Republi-Popilcan arrangement and to see how thoroughly the "bosses" have compromised the principles of their party to the disgrace of themselves and to the disgust of all men of principle and honesty.

Let all those who believe in the purity and honesty of politics compare the platform of the Republican with that of the Populists party.

Pearson and the Republican speakers in the 9th Congressional district are denouncing the Australian ballot system and are warning the people of the danger of such a law being put in force in this State by the Democratic party. What do the Populists think of this? The very first resolution adopted at the Omaha reads thus:

Resolved 1st That we demand a free ballot and a fair count in all elections, and pledge ourselves to secure it to every legal voter without Federal intervention through the adoption by the States of the unperverted Australian or secret ballot system." (Italics mine.)

Contrast this Third party platform resolution with the "Force bill", endorsed by the Republican party, and which would have become a law but for the prevention of the Democrats. Notwithstanding these facts staring them in the face the bosses of the People's party are calling upon the rank and file of the people to "co-operate" with the Republican party!

Are you opposed to Federal interference in election? The Democratic party has repealed the Republican laws which authorized that interference. The Democratic party has already put into law the resolution as to Federal interference above quoted, while the Republicans bitterly opposed it, and yet you are asked to "co operate" with the Republican party!

SOMETIME before the "fusion" Convention took place at Raleigh Capt. Ward wrote an article to the Charlotte Observer, in which he bitterly denounced the idea of fusion. In that article he denounced Populism as anarchy and fanaticism. By the way, Mr. Editor, if you can get hold of that article you ought by all means to publish it and let Capt. Ward say whether since he has joined the fusionists he still holds to the sentiments therein expressed? The Democrats are not troubled about your "little arrangement", Captain. What they are exercising themselves about is to see that the inconsistencies and the sell out of PROFESSED political principles are made known to the people that they (the people) may (as they certainly will) condemn such rottenness at the polls. They are exercising themselves too for the purpose of preventing North Carolina from falling again into the hands of the Radicals who once well nigh bankrupt the State and spread desolation throughout her borders. No patriotic citizen can compare the government of North Carolina with that under Republican rule and say he wants his State to go back to Radicalism and especially not into the hands of a combination the leaders of which have trampled under foot every shadow of the professed political principles of their parties with the EXPRESSED purpose and that only of "beating the Democrats"! Woe unto any man who has no better motive for action than simply to beat somebody—to put somebody down, regardless of how or by what sacrifice of manhood or principles he does it!

Now Captain Ward, in as much as you claim to be consistent in all your actions and say that Republican principles only are consistent, will you not repeat verbatum the article you wrote to the Charlotte Observer against fusion with Populism? But you say you favor Republicanism, Republicanism favors Federal interference in elections. It also favored the more strenuous measure known as the "Force bill". Your party is bitterly opposed to the ballot system. You say you have gone into this "little arrangement" simply to change the North Carolina election laws. But the Populists are on Record in their Omaha platform which they endorsed at the Convention in Raleigh as being resolved against Federal interference in election and as being resolved to establish the Australian ballot system or something similiar. Now if you and the fusionists on the Republican side and the fusionists on the Populist side go to the Legislature and hold to your political principles how in the name of simple reason are you to pass an election law to suit both Republicans and Populists? The Populists are in favor of the Australian ballot system, are you? Again, did you know that Buck Kitchen, Marion Butler and all the Populist leaders that ever had an opportunity voted for the present system of county government, and did you ever hear Buck Kitchen while a Democrat (and he says he has not changed only in name,) defending the present system of county government? Then in view of all these facts it is plain that this "little arrangement" as you call it is absurd and ridiculously inconsistent even so far as it concerns the State, as well as the national pohtics. There can therefore be but one conclusion with any reason or sense in it, and that is that the leaders on both sides of this fusion "arrangement" have simply made a trade for hope of personal gain and office without regard to political honor or principle.

The Populist leaders say they have not changed their principles by leaving the Democratic party. But the Populist leaders have voted for or firmly de ended the present system of county government. Therefore if the Populists are consistent, they will support the present system of government, should they go to the Legislature. The Republicans are bitterly opposed to the present system of county government. How then can Republicans and Populists be consistent when they form a "co-operation," knowing that the doctrines of the two parties are diametrically opposed to each other even upon the question of election laws and county government, as well as upon national questions? The good people of North Carolina know it is a sell out, and they will surely condemn the unholy alliance at the polls

Mrs. Judge Peck Tells How She Was Cured

Sufferers from Dyspepsia should read the following letter from Mrs. H. M. Peck, wife of Judge Peck, a justice at Tracy, Cal., and a writer connected with the Associated Press:

"By a deep sense of gratitude for the great benefit I have received from the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, I have been led to write the following statement for the benefit of sufferers who may be similarly afflicted. For 15 years I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and Heart Trouble.

Almost everything I ate would distress me. I tried different treatments and medicines, but failed to realize relief. Two years ago a friend prevailed upon me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first bottle I noticed helped me, so I continued taking it. It did me so much good that my friends spoke of the improvement. I have received such great benefit from it that

Why Is He So Irritable?"

This question is often heard and nearly as often unanswered.

It is not always remembered, as it should be, that the occasion of ill-temper and irritability is often to be found in the physical condition of the persons effected. What is the use of trying to "harmonize" a man whose liver has gone back on him? If a man is tortured with rheumatism, how can he be expected to be affable and agreeable? Can a confirmed dyspeptic be expected to be cheerful and always ready to tell a funny story? The only way to remove the difficulty is to get at the cause. Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, impure blood and liver troubles yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla; this is why it is an effective tranquilizer a peaceful messenger and a preventive of domestic quarrels.

A. M. Bailey, a well known citizen of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhœa and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and diarrhœa Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Give it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. W L. Crouse Druggist.
