If Capt. George Mebane loses his religion the picture of that little bunch above will have a good deal to do with it. The Capt. is alright as long as they bite, but when they do not, and a horse fly quietly lights on the back of his neck and commence pulling for all their might for a bit of the Captains blood, he says things, softly to himself, but they mean a great deal as to his feelings about the said fly.

Wedding Of Miss Scott And Mr. Hudson Very Pretty.

A beautiful marriage occurred Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at "Melville", the handsome home of Hon. R. W. Scott, near Haw River, when his charming daughter, Frances Josephine, became the bride of Cassius Rex Hudson of Raleigh.

A reception was held for the bridal party last Thursday night at the home of the bride. A large number of relatives and friends were present and the occasion was most delightful. The marriage was very unique and beautiful in its simplicity and originality. The ceremony was performed on the spacious lawn in front of the house. Myriads of daisies were used to decorate a and a stately arch of cedar and the pighting of the yows. Mrs. George Oldham, of Oaks, presided at the piano and played Mendelsohn's wedding march as the procession fled to the sacred spot. First came the little ring-bearer, Miss Agnes Scott, sister of the bride, attired in dainty white, carrying the ring on a cushion. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Margaret Scott, sister of the bride, sweetly gowned in white, carrying blue sweet peas. Next came the bridegroom with his best man, T. F. Parker, of Raleigh. Then came the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away. The officiating minister was the bride's pastor, Dr. B. W. Mebane, of Mebane, and the ring ceremony was used.

The lawn was crowded with interested friends and relatives of both parties, who were graciously received by Miss Mamie Scott, Mrs. Robert Scott, Jr., and Miss Eda Reinhardt.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held and congratulations showered upon the happy couple. Ices were served.

The bride wore white lingerie, with the bridal veil, and carried a showy bouquet of lillies of the valley and bride's roses.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Hudson drove to Burlington in an automobile and boarded No. 21 for a trip to Washington, New York and Niagara Falls. They will return to Raleigh within ten days, and leave at once for a trip to Alabama. They will be at home to their friends in Raleigh after July 1. The bride wore a handsome going-away suit of blue with hat and gloves to match.

The array of gifts was one of the largest and handsomest ever seen in this section. It comprised gifts of silver, china, linen, cut glass and numberless other things, and is a proof of the popularity of the parties.

The bride is the charming daughter of our ex-representative, Hon. R. W. Scott, and is widely known throughout this section and is loved wherever known. She is famous for her many lovable traits. The bridegroom is one of Raleigh's prosperous and progressive business men, and is fortunate in winning such a charming bride.

Among the guests from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Scott, jr., Rocky Mount; Miss Edna Reinhardt; Lincoln; W. G. Smith and Mrs. Bettie Reiney, Milton; Mr. and Mrs. George Crutchfields and R. L. Schoolfield, Greensboro; Mrs. W. N. Nutt, Raleigh; Mrs. C. W. Johnson, Chapel Hill; Mrs. J. H. Talor, Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott and Miss Lone Scott and Mrs. Don Scott, Mrs. L. Banks Holt, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Walker and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Mebane Graham.

Alamance Boys Do Well at School.

We are pleased to note that at the commencement exercises just held at the Bingham School, near Mebane, the Alamance boys took a high stand.

Mr. Joseph C. Long, son of Rev. D. A. Long, of Graham, was Cadet Instructor for the year and one of the Captains in the military department. He was awarded a diploma for the completion of the Scientific course. Mr. Long has been four years at Bingham, and has made many friends, as well as having completed his course with honor.

Mr. Charles W. Lashley, son of Mr. J. H. Lashley of Mebane, took high rank in both department and scholarship for the year, and was awarded a diploma in the Commercial Department for bookkeeping. This diploma is beautifully engraved, being the work of E. A. Wright, of Philadelphia the engraving was done by the teacher of penmanship at Bingham, and is in beautiful old English script.

Mr. Wibur McFarland, of Alamance, received a number of high honors. He was awarded the medal in the department of History, in which he excels. He was also given a beautiful picture called "Progress," being a pen drawing of an eagle, executed by Professor Z. P. Zaner. Having attained the highest grade in the School in all his studies, he was awarded also the "A. B. Croom, Jr." scholarship.

The same high record has been maintained in the past by Alamance boys. The Crawford, Oldhams, Hodges, Albrights, Stanfords, and others of leading families have done well at the institution, and have brought honor to their homes and their county.

This is My Apology.

"And the cat came back" So brother Louis Puryear finds he is called upon to defend something, or somebody, but he don't know who, or what. Seemingly he is anxious to show us what brand of collar he is wearing. It would seem that brother Puryear forgot all about what the money was voted for in the bond election, and he seems to have forgotten what was one of the main issues in our municipal election held in May when a Mayor and board of Aldermen was elected for Mebane. Did he hear at that time any threat to run another ticket because members of the board had up to then expressed their intention of favoring the building of a macadam road across Mebane as was first intended? Did he hear anything about the employment of an other civil engineer than the one that was employed for reasons very plain to most people. Was the citizens meeting to which Mr. Puryear refers to called for the purpose of getting an honest expression in regard to the street paving, or was it to be lead to a favorable expression of what was wanted by certain people? simply stampeded.

Mr. Puryear knew what I meant when I said "may be some of these days the people wont be like dumb driven cattle" and he purposely tried to put upon what I said a meaning I did not intend, now Louis is not that so? May be you could lead a mass meeting, much like you could find people willing to sign a petition to hang you, but it amounts to nothing. Suppose the matter of cutting down railroad hills, and filling in to improve private property had been squarely put before the people of Mebane before the bond election, does anyone think it could have been carried? hardly. I quote the following from Mr. Puryears article, which is a confession to all I contend for.

"It is true, as Mr. Miles says that the meeting which decided for the bond issue understood that the greater part of the money to be realized would have to be spent for the purpose of grading and macadamizing the road which was to serve in the connecting link between the two good roads already up to the edge of the town, but it is also true that they expected some sidewalks."

In one of Mr. Puryear several articles in the Leader, he thanks me for telling "us" so plainly where I stand, and then expresses "pity" for me. Does this mean a threat of a boycott to my business because I had refused to wear any man's collar? Efforts to ruin others business, and drive others out of this town because of independence is too well known. Perhaps because Mr. Puryear is living in the secure seclusion of a good fat job in Continental Chair company he does not get out over Alamance County enough to learn what people think, and say about the dumb driven cattle idea. If Mr. Puryear has pity let him show it for these poor people, as for Mike Miles every dollar he owns he has worked hard for, and he does not expect to get any in any other way.

This thing may get a bit interesting as it goes on. Wanting to be fair to all men.

I am Respectfully,
M. B. Miles.

Death Of Mary E. Scott.

On last Thursday evening, May 25 about half passed 6 o'clock God called from her home the soul of Mrs. Mary Scott, and took it to dwell with him on high. For about 71 years she has toiled on this earth through trouble, sorrow and affliction, but now she is gone to dwell with her husbands and children and friends who had gone on to Gods palace above where she can rejoice in the garden of ever blooming flowers where no more suffering, pain, trouble nor death can disturb her peaceful rest. So sad was it to part from this beloved and kind friend, as she was a precious and fond mother, and grand-mother and fond friend, gathered her children and grand children to spend the last hours of stay on this earth with her happy presence.

Mrs. Mary Scott was 71 years of age twice married first to Lemie Hall last to John Scott both summoned to their final rest many years ago.

She was the mother of six children three of whom are dead, they were as follows: Lenie, Martha and Sudie Hall, Robert, Alice and Ed Scott, the deceased are Lenie and Sudie Hall and Robert Scott. There are Mrs. Martha Ward of Efland, Rfd No. 1. Mrs. Alice Christopher of Burlington and Ed. Scott of Mebane who are still living.

She was a member of Mebane Baptist church. The funeral services were conducted at Mt. Zion church by Rev. Mr. Edwards pastor of Mebane M. P. church. She was quietly laid to rest in Mt. Zion cemetery to await the great awakening of the blessed morn. May the lord bless her son who was so faithful from first to last.

A precious one from us is gone one who will be missed in her tender cares, one whom shall never return from that heavenly home where she tarys.

Altho we miss her tender smiles and cheerful glee, but bless her precious name she is better far than we.

No more on this earth we shall see her face or hear her parting grace, but in heavens happy home we will meet her face to face.

Written by her grand daughter,
R. M. W.
