

Strange Ministry to "A Mind Diseased."

It seems strange beyond belief that in this enlightened twentieth century there should be found anyone who believes that the depressed unfortunate who contemplates suicide can be restrained by legislative enactment. It is an emanation of that misguided school of thought which would make over human nature by the multiplicity of statutes. It belongs to that period in the history of the criminal law when there were 160 offenses which carried the death penalty, including the cutting down of a cherry tree and the theft of goods valued above 5 schillings. It harks back to the vindictive and un-sympathetic era when the suicide was buried at the cross-roads, with a stake driven through his body.—Washington Times.

Happiest Girl in Lincoln.

A Lincoln, Neb., girl writes, "I had been ailing for some time with chronic constipation and stomach trouble. I began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and in three days I was able to be up and get better right along. I am the proudest girl in Lincoln to find such a good medicine". For sale by All Dealers.

The World Was Flat.

If I have faltered more or less in my great task of happiness; If I have moved among my race And shown no glorious morning face; If beams from happy human eyes Have moved me not; if morning skies Books and my food and summer rain Knock on my sullen heart in vain— Lord, Thy most pointed pleasure take Or, Lord, if too obdurate I, Choose Thou before that spirit die A piercing pain a skilling sin, And to my dead heart run them in!

—ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON

Sees The Error of Its Ways

Waxhaw Enterprise. The Waxhaw Enterprise hints that the editor of the Marshville Our Home has been considerably younger than he now is. Hush! Professional courtesy should influence The Enterprise to conceal such a deplorable fact rather than blazon it abroad. —Charlotte Observer.

Possible The Observer is right. It may be that such facts should remain family secrets. The Enterprise now feels remorseful over the critical situation in which it has placed the bachelor editor of Our Home, and is willing to take back or modify what it has said in regard to the antiquity of the Marshville editor. We seriously doubt his being as old as he looks.

There is a purity which only suffering can impart; the stream of life becomes snow white when it dashes against the rocks.—Richter.

An insect pest is reported as making such destructive attacks upon sugar maples in Vermont and northern Connecticut that unless its ravages can somehow be checked the New England maple sugar crop will soon become a thing of the past. This reminds us that among the many almost wholly unutilized resources of our North Carolina mountains is the sugar maple tree. Regretting New England's trouble, we nevertheless can see no reason why the North Carolina mountains should not profitably help fill the gap.—Charlotte Observer.

A Peek Into His Pocket

would show the box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve that E. S. Loper, a carpenter, of Marilla, N. Y. always carries. "I have never had a cut, wound, bruise, or sore it would not soon heal," he writes. Greatest healer of burns, boils, scalds, chapped hands and lips, fever-sores, skin-eruptions, eczema, corns and piles 25c. at Mebane Drug Co.

In The Right Direction.

Raleigh Times. The city of Charlotte has made an appropriation of $1,000 toward the support of two trained nurses to attend poor people who are unable to provide themselves with proper attention in cases of sickness. This is a step in the right direction.

No less than 63,000,000 barrels of beer were sold in the United States during the twelve months ending June 30th, or an increase over the preceding twelve months of 6.21 per cent. The whiskey bill for the year was $146,973,000, an increase of nearly $8,000,000 over the preceding year. And in this connection it is stated that prohibition has affected the trade considerably.

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes, H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything, I could hear of, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C. for a year but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." Its positively guaranteed for coughs, colds, and all bronchial affections. 50c & $1.00 Trial bottle free at Mebane Drug Co.
