Mebane Leader

J. O. FOY, Editor and Owner

Entered as second classimatter Feb-Mebane, N. C., under the act of March Issued Every Thursday Morning.

PRESCRIPTION: One Year, - - - $1.00 Six Months, - - . .50 Three Months, - -.25 PAYABLE IN ADVANCE Send Currency, Postal Money Order or Stamps, CORRESPONDENCE

We wish correspondents in all the earby post offices. Write at once.

Thursday. January 11 1912

Mebane has more than treb- asserting the superiority of his own bled its population in the last ten information on all subjects, having years, it has doubled its commercial interest in the past two taken place at the battle of Waterloo. years, doubled its freight busi- At last the conversation turned upon ness in the past year, it has built of the army when Croker again maintwo commodious tobacco ware- tained a directly opposite opinion to houses, both of which are doing that which was urged by the duke, Mebane were paved, and now the town is looking hopefully to the myself, but as a sportsman I will New Year for greater things. caps."-Thomas Raikes' Journal. Mebane as a thriving and prosperous town is attracting State wide attention. The Leader going to the four quarters of the globe and elsewhere tells the story, as no other agency could do, The which is found in all northern coun-Leader has been published in Mebane three years, and during that time has done its work well land was but nine inches mineight and for Mebane, and it is doing it be- the trunk was but three distins of an cause it is built that way. It would rather feel more encour- age to be at least thirty-two years, for agement in its work, but that is there were that number of ring the business of the people who owe it to us, ours is to do our duty.

RICHESON AND DIMMES- shorter and colder than are those of GALE The confession of C. V. T. Richeson

The Making of Chipped Glass. The Useful Verb "To Get." Sheets of glass that are covered with There is no word, long or short, in the English language capable of per- a shell-like raised pattern are in use forming so much labor in a clear, in- for screens, partitions, electric light telligible sense as the verb to get. And fixtures and other purposes. This here is an old time specimen of its chipped glass, for the pattern is often really chipped out of the surface, incapabilities volves a process that is interesting. "I got on horseback within ten minutes after I got your letter. When I The sheet of glass to be treated is ruary 8, 1969, at the Post Office at got to Canterbury I got a chaise for placed under a sand blast in order to town, but I got wet through before I give it a grain. This ground surface got to Canterbury, and I have got such is next treated with a solution of good a cold as I shall not be able to get rid glue, and the glass is placed in a dryof in a hurry. I got to the treasury ing room on a rack, where it remains about noon; but, first of all, I got shavfor some hours. Next the sheets of ed and dressed. I soon got into the seglass are removed to the chipping cret of getting a memorial before the room, where they are placed on edge board, but I could not get an answer back to back, with the coated surfaces then. However, I got intelligence from outward. This room is heated by the messenger that I should most likesteam coils, and when the heat is turnly get one the next morning. As soon ed on the glue reaches its utmost deas I got back to my inn I got my supgree of desiccation and curls off the per. When I got up in the morning I glass in pieces from the size of a dime got my breakfast and then got myself to that of a silver dollar, but it addressed that I might get out in time heres so closely to the glass that in to get an answer to my memorial. As its effort to get free it tears a piece soon as I got it I got into the first off the surface, the result being a chaise and got to Canterbury by 3 beautiful pattern.-Harper's Weekly. o'clock, and about tea time I got home."-Ave Maria. The Logical Name.

"What a queer name for a child,"

Wellington's Subtle Retort. said the woman who had just moved Wednesday, 19th October, 1836-Lord next door. "Are you sure they named Fitzgerald made us laugh at dinner today with a story about John Wilson it Breeze?" "Yes, indeed, and it is a most nat-Croker, whose pertinacity of opinion ural name for the child," was the reis well known. He was laying down the law after dinner to the Duke of ply. "I suppose it's the outcome of a Wellington and, according to custom, cheap joke on the father's part," sighed the new neighbor. "When the child is naughty he is likely to suggest a even flatly contradicted the duke, who spanking Breeze."

had mentioned some incident that had "Not at all, though I'll mention that to him," said the other. "You see, the use of percussion caps for muskets the family name is Storm. Before she was married the mother's name was Wind-Augusta Wind. Upon marriage her name became Storm, of course, making it Wind-Storm. Now, when who at last good humoredly said to a very satisfactory business, in him, "My dear Croker, I can yield to the little girl was born they were puzthe past year the streets of your superior information on most zled about selecting a name. They points, and you may know a great deal could not agree until some one said a more of what passed at Waterloo than little Wind-Storm might be called a Breeze. The little one is just like her mother, and a little Gusta Wind is"maintain my point about percussion But the new neighbor wouldn't stay to hear the rest of it.-New York Press.

Getting the Bank's Help.

The soil and atmosphere are so cold Financial ability is not alone the and dry in faraway Labrador that power of getting moneyed men's ears scarcely any vegetation thrives at all. and interesting "big capital." The The larch is a species of pine tree bank is the bulwark of small business. Given an enterprise that has a legititries, but its growth is so stunted in mate excuse for being and available Labrador that a specimen found on assets, if it is backed by men of integthe most southern part of that dreary rity, it can always command the sup port of its bank for working capita, Yet it is astounding how many small inch in diameter. A careful examinabusinesses start without even confertion of the miniature tree revealed its ring with a bank or banker. This is a mistake. The man who wants to finance a small concern successfully growths shown in its small trunk. The should get acquainted with his bankvery cold currents pouring down from ers, keep them in touch with the busithe north and the fact that Labrador ness and afford them every opportunity has less sunshine than Alaska, toto analyze its condition. There is no gether with several inland climatic finer security than the confidence of conditions, make the summer seasons your bank, and the cost of getting capital in this way is very small indeed compared with the cost of underwriting more or less inflated issues of and the conduct of his part preceding it testifies powerfully to the mignt of the conscience which God has given man. That confession rings true. It is the outcry of the human soul in an earthly heli. Doughtless the man's ministerial training and habits | made his sufferings greater than they would otherwise have been.-Charlotte Observer.

In a moment of demoniacial passion Rev. Kicheson handed to Miss Avis Linnel a capsule containing cyanide of potassium, one of the most deadly poisons known, and Mr. Richeson was fully aware of the effect of such a drug in the human libel on Pittsburg's air."-Detroit Free stomach. And now Mr. Richeson comes forward and confesses to his crime. It seems a season for cenfession, Beatie confessed, the McNamaras confessed, and now Richeson has confessed.

As foul as the crimes that these parties committed it is evident that they had a conconcience, if it had been deeply asleep, But there are a plenty in this world who have no conscience, never had any, the fact is we do not believe they have any more soul than a beast. They are so entirely wrapped up in their own infernal selfish desires, they neither know or care ville theater by one of his American to know anyother interest, and friends. because they do not commit crimes that would break their necks is the love of their own lives. It is fear, and not a desire to obey the law.

Underwood, has made no mistake, If the Democratic party wish and honest able, capeable man to be its candidate for the next Presidency of this country, it will not be able to secure a better man than Underwood.

Ex Governor Charles B. Aycock introduce Col. William J. Bryan when he came to Raleigh to make a talk. It may be a little ungracious in us to say so, but if the truth must come we should much prefer hearing Charlies speak than William, and we have heard them both.

When you want a reliable medicine for a cough or cold take Chamberlain's * Cough Remedy. It can always be dep inded upon and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by All Dealers.

A Pittsburg man once submitted a Pittsburg story to a New York magazine and got a wire from the editor: "Will accept story if cut out libel," ourg man nurried over to New York and asked the editor whom he had libeled. "You have libeled your native city, sir," was the reply. "Why," said the editor, turning over the manuscript, "don't you say here on page 23 that the heroine clutched the air desperately?" "Yes. Go on."

The Smoky City.

Alaska.-Exchange.

The Larch In Labrador.

"And then two paragraphs further down you say she washed her hands. Well, that"-The editor frowned angrily at the author.

"That, sir, is a foul and disgusting Press.

Told Him His Fate. Family secrets will out. It has been the ambition of an Overbrook mother to marry her daughter to a young civil engineer who is on the road to brilliant success. But the young man, much in love with the daughter as he is, has not fully decided whether to ask her to marry him. Visiting at the home the other evening, the young man encountered little "Are you going to marry sister?" asked the lad. Much embarrassed, the visitor stammered that he didn't know. "Well, you are," returned Bobbie, with emphasis.-Philadelphia Times.

Bobble.

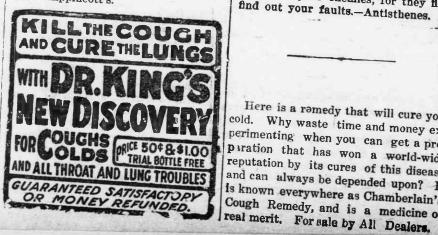

As We Speak It. A German who had come to America to master our language was being "That man," said the American, indicating an actor with a wave of his hand, "is taking off his makeup to make up for another take off." The German departed sputtering .-Success Magazine.

"Yes. I may get a chance to soak He Might Be Offended. "See that dog, Kathi? It has taken the first prize at ten shows and is Tit For Tat. valued at 1.000 marks."

"I wonder if I dare offer him a bit of sausage?"-Fliegende Blatter. Same Thing. "Reggie invites me out to dinner every other evening."

"I suppose you just dote on him?" "I table d'hote on him!"-Satire.

Slow Game. Madge-Was George fooling while you were playing golf? Marjorie-Gracious, I hope not! Why, I accepted him.-Lippincott's.

Never, "Never" is a word which is wrongly defined in the dictionary.

stock.-Business.

In that book we gather the understanding that "never" means not at all, forevermore. But-

Each day in our broad land young women vow that they will never forgive young men. Men lift their right hands to high heaven and swear that they will never take another drink.

Husbands promise never to forget to write every day. Wives promise never to make another extravagant and foolish purchase. Candidates aver that they will never run for office again. Women say they will never speak to some one any more. In all these cases "never" means any length of time from one hour to four days.-Life.

Broke Three Legs. "Yes," said the small bay boy to the reporter, who was looking for some news to put in his paper; "mother fell downstairs and broke three legs." "Pshaw! What are you giving me, youngster?" cried the reporter. "Don't be too funny. Your mother hasn't got three legs." "I didn't say she had," retorted the wicked boy. "The legs belonged to a table which mother fell against. She wasn't hurt at all."

John e'Groat's to Land's End. The distance in English miles between John o'Groat's, in the extreme north of England, to Land's End, in the farthest south, is about 480 miles as the crow flies, though by the ordinary lines of travel, of course, the distance is something more than that. Revenge.

"That fellow cut me out in a very underhand way." "Yet you are going to the wedding?"

him with an old shoe."-Exchange.

He-What do you women do at your club? She-Talk about the faults of you men. What do you do at yours?

He-Try to forget the faults of you women.-Boston Transcript. Unfortunately Expressed. Missionary-Our situation was so remote that for a whole year my wife never saw a white face but my own. Sympathetic Young Woman-Oh, the poor thing!

Observe your enemies, for they first find out your faults.-Antisthenes.

