Open Invitation For Buying and Selling.

The New York World says: The primary laws as they now stand are an open invitation to the buying and selling of the Presidency. The Republican Presidential primaries in Pennsylvania cost $2,000,000. In Alleghenv County alone the Taft managers spent $67,283 and the Roosevelt people $31,344, a total of $98,627. This sum represents nearly a dollar and a half apiece for every Republican vote in the country. In New York County the Roosevelt people spent nearly $5 for every vote they polled. Nobody knows what they spent in Maryland, but the Taft managers have charged that the negro vote in Baltimore was purchased for Roosevelt.

What will be spent by the Taft and Roosevelt forces in Ohio there is no means of estimating, and the total corruption fund will never be known. We know what money can do in the way of debauching an electorate.
