PERSONAL AND LUCAL BR EFS

PEOPLE WHO COME AND GO County, State and Nation to discharg their several duties will be all right. Items of interest Gathered by

Dur Reporter

Thomas Whitefield is at home for a

Miss Sudie Cook is visiting relatives - The program will consist of music at Hurdle Mills.

Mr. C O. Pickard was a Mebane visiter Sunday.

If you are hurt about the way the primary went, time will heal it.

Miss Louise Slack of Greensboro spent a while in Mebane Sunday. Mrs. Sallie Cooper of Carr is spend ing some time with Mrs. J. N. Warren. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fowler of Greensboro spent the day Sunday in Miss Fannie Ferguson of Danville Va. is visiting at the home of Mr. J. W. Hudson.

Miss Margie Scott has returned home from Thomasville where she has been visiting Mrs. H. W. Bason. Mrs. Booker of Durham and Miss Bessie Corbett, of Corbett, visited Mrs. W. Y. Malone the past week. Miss Ida Poteat, head of the Art Department at Meredith College at Raleigh is visiting Mrs. F. L. Mebane Mrs. H. W. Bason of Thomasville is spending a week in Mebane while Mr.

Bason is on a business trip to Chicago.

There were some tremendeous surprises in the vote cast in the general election. Now really want you suprised?

We received a resolution of respect from Friendship Council No. 51 for the death of Classie Covington, but too Durham. late to have it appear in this weeks Leader, It will appear in next weeks

Buster Brown resolutions will all ways be found senseable reading in Holmes-Warren Co. advertisment. He says prices tumble, but quality never falls. Buster thinks a good deal before resolves.

change their advertisement in this Mr. T B Tates Sunday hight and took interested in it. The New officers bottom of all good manners. They are passu with the extra percentage of interested in it. The New officers bottom of all good manners. tention to some very pretty hats at a Weather condition in North Carolina on election day were ideal. It seemed Rosa Cole Sunday P. M. much like Indian Summer. If the same conditions prevailed over the entire country there will likely be a tremendcous vote poiled.

W. A. Slater and company can furnish you with the most stylish and np-to date clothing, in any kesirable color. They carry a large stock of gents furnishing, nats, and everything to wear. They will treat you right in price.

A fourth rate politician who has a hankering after office can do much to spoil his future chances by his partizenship. A voter may have a mighty poor show in this world, but some how or other they have fairly good memories.

Dress well and the world applauds you, dress shabby, and it lets you by two children. He was years ago Department conducted by Mrs. Gray, smile at you, wear bad ones and your credit is gone. The way to keep in Sentinel. He was the oldest living Matron, in her capable superintendence touch with society elite is to all ways aluminus of Trinity College and one of of the culinary art as practised by the purchase what you wear from that tact the new dormitories there was recently highly talented Chief Cook, John full tast full, and clever firm of Prit- named for him. chard, Bright and Co. of Durham.

Snider, Fletcher, Wilcox and company keep the largest and best assorted stock of first class jewelry to be found in Durham, or any nearby city. They carry a line especially suithd for the selection of wedding presents, holliday, or other gift. You can make your purchase from them with the utmost confidence of getting strictly reliable up a steady canvas for Mebane. Let before the hawthorns came into flower, us see that she gets a great majority. what a work we should make about President, Sgt. John Mikell, and Secre-Mebane is not grown yet, there is their beauty, but these things, like tary and Treasure, Sgt. William Compmuch that may be done to keep her good companions, stupid people cease ton. This Society is highly instructive growing. Make it a point to do what early to observe. - Stevenson. you can to locate every good citizen here. It takes men and money to Deaths Harvest by Dis- fully as Declaimers, Orators and build a town. We can get both if we go after them. What have become of the Young Mens Business Club?

Died at her home Oct. 25, 1912, after a lingering illness of about four months, she fell asleep in Jesus at one o'clock in the afternoon. She suffered Savior and when the summons came was prepared to go She leaves a bereayed husband and four children to them. Farewell dear friend, gone but not forgotten.

A Devoted Friend,

The Agony is Over.

The political agony is now over, t lose men who have been selected, by County, State and Nation to discharge

Thank Oftering Service

On next Sunday evening Nov. 10th, 1912 at 7:30 P. M. Mission Band will render a Thank Offering Service in the Baptist church.

the Sunbeam Work. An offering will be made for Missions and Building Fund. The public is cordially invited to be present.

"Sunbeams."

The Election in Mebane candidates.

All Gone Democratic

The whole nation seems to have gone Democratic. Woodrow Wilson will with the largest electional vote ever polled. North Carolina Democracy the State. Let us all rejoice.

Mebane Route 5

How are the Editor and all the read-

There was quite a large crowd from this section attended the big show at little Miss Allie Anderson. Mr. Oley Aulbert and Miss Sudie

good old lady has gone to rest with her congratulated by the remainder of the good old lady has gone to rest with her congratulated by the remainder of the will, of respect for other people's player to reap; while to that profit he any rural service being provided for In 1892 he was a delegate to the Repub-out at Sunday School again Sunday.

COL. ALSPAUGH DEAD.

Papa girl-

Prominent Winston Citizen Passes Away at Ripe Old Age.

Col. J. W. Alspaugh died at his home in Winston-Salem Nov. 3rd, at 5 o'clock. He had a stroke of paralysis interest and working together with a two years ago, and had never fully recovered. He was 85 years old and was Winston's oldest citizen He is survived enjoyed. alone, wear good clothes, and the girls cashier of the First National bank of Winston and was at one time editor of > Col. Alspaugh had been living at Winston for a long time and saw the city evolve from a village into a modern city. When younger he took active being President, Cadet Henry McFaden part in all phases of the city's Vice-President, and Cadet Charlie activities. He served on the board of McNutchen Secretary and Treasure. aldermen and was mayor of the city. The entire school is supporting these He also held an official position with Centenary Methodist church in that

If, we charged so much a head for The election is over, but we can keep sunsets, or if God sent round a drum his year's work, and the officers are:

North Carolina soldiers fell on the Saturday night. Death of Mrs. J. W. Bason battlefield, disease increased the number to more than 40,000. For every American soldier killed in that strug gle by bullets, three fell before the invisible shafts of disease. During the Spanish-American War the common christian patience. She was gentle and house-fly slew five times as many friends and will be sadly missed by Spaniards, and in that short and uneloved ones. She died trusting in her qual struggle for every American soldier who fell before a Spanish bullet disease slew 14. It matters not how suggested the father. brave the soldier may be, how loyal to his flag how enthusiastic in his cause said the child. loss besides many devotied friends who no measure of bravery, no degree of will remember her love and kindness loyalty, no amount of enthusiosm can you will have to try Christian Science" negleet.

N C. Health Bulletin. sas City Star.

GLORIOUS NEWS

Senator Simmons wins a Signal Victory

The latest reports, from the voting precincts, counties, and cities, in the State indicate that Senator Simmons and recitations and a short sketch of thousand votes, over and above both hundreds of thousands of dollars a Senator Simmons over this signal vic- in "Darkest Africa" and the Jungles tory. It is the more gratifying be- of India. cause it is a deliberate rebuke to the vilest political slanders, disingenious Two Million Annually in and dirty libels, its a rebuke to the rankest demagoguery, and most blat-The election in Mebane Tuesday tent assumption, known in the State, passed off unusualy quiet. If there and on the other hand it is a cheerful, that the annual graft collected by high labor in Congress in the in- year to $2,400,000. terest of his State and people.

Bingham School Notes.

has elected her entire state ticket, and of boys, who were all carefully graded men who ought to read it. then Senator Simmons has been nomi- and roomed at once, and class work There are many of them who have thousands of North Carolinan were in- pressed with the gentlemanly class of ing how to use it. What the author It is a happy event for the people of cadets which has been here for a long and we quote one extract that hits the

The teachers are all busy with their with the progress the students are out ers this cold weather, I am nearly making. They together with Col, and "If you have come as far as you session also.

Miss Bessie Miller, Ema and Nanie delighted with the various phases of manners seem to be a good deal to called in to attend her Sunday. W Aulbert spent Tuesday in Mebane shop- the school whose every department is seek among present day youth, but hope Miss Ray will soon recover. Miss Vivian Cheek spent Sunday with good feeling between the old and new scrace, and the more appreciated for boys and there has been absolutely no their scarcity. Miller attended the big show at Dur- ships have formed among them, and me! the things I see done by males ham last Monday, and reported a good they all like and adire each and every with a claim to be gentlemen; tobacco American workingman has no guaranone of the teachees also.

Misses Morrow-Bason and Green The death Angel visited the home of the Military System and are deeply ing yourself, for self-respect is at the rate of compensation will rise pari away Miss Sallie McCracken, a have been appointed and sincerely the expression of dicipline, of good profit which high tariff allows his emmoderate price. Fall line of the most loved ones, she was 86 years of age student body. All are pleased with rights and comfort and feelings, I must contribute from his pay envelope and with a limited city delivery service. In 1892 he was a delegate to the Republican National Convention and the fol-Mr. George Newman called on Miss complaints regarding their selection. but the most selfish people might well raiment and everything else that is We was glad to see Mr Robert Jones that the becoming uniforms make in ative. * * The things you must life. nice khaki suits.

Major Adrian Nalle, who was the to swine." highly popular and successful Commandant of last session, is with us again this year in the capacity of teacher and Football Coach. Under his able management the team has been flourishing, and the boys are practising hard every afternoon and in splendid form. There is fine material in the team this session, and as the fellows have been taking a lively will, a victorious season is being

The delicious fore of the Boarding is appreciated as well as the skill of Mrs. H. H. Johnston, the efficient Packingham with his well trained corps of helpers.

The Y. M. C. A., officers have been elected, Cadet Captain George Sloyer representatives wholeheartedly, and we believe that great good will be accomplished this session.

The Kalisthenic-Polemic Literary Society has also been organized for President Adj. Kesler Cobb; Viceadd at the same time most entertaining, and the boys are improving wonder-Debaters, while enjoying the interesting contests and other exercises in During the Civil War, 19,000 brave the meetings which are held each

"Bingham Bugle."

A little girl came to her father one day and said her dolly was very sick. "Send for the doctor," suggested the father. "I did, but he couldn't help her,"

said the child. "Give her a drink of water," again

"I did, but she wouldn't swallow it"

"Well," said the father, "I guess "I did," said the child, "but she couldn't swallow that, either."-Kan-

Always say a kind word if you can, if only that it may come in, perhaps with singular opportuneness, entering day morning for Winton Salem to some mournful man's darkened room visit her son and his wife Mr. and Mrs. like a beautiful firefly, whose happy O. L. Baity. convolutions he can not but watch, forgetting his many troubles. - Sir Arthur Helps.

Nine hundred persons, we are told, was nominated in the State primary met violent deaths in New York durto succeed himself by twenty five ing August. And yet we are devoting his opponents, Governor W. W. Kitch- year to the sending of missionaries to in and Justice Walter Clark. The preach "Peace on earth, Goodwill to-Leader rejoices with the friends of wards men" to the benighted heathen

Sworn statements tending to show was an unkind word spoke at the poils and most emphatic recognition and police officials in New York city from we do not know it. There was peace- reward for superlative and distinguish- gambling houses and other illegal reful rivalry for votes for the Senatorial ed statesmanship, and high meritorious sorts has amounted within the last the Post office during the illness of Good Manners.

"A Father to His Freshman Son," take his seat in the Presidential chair Bingham School, Mebane, N. C. Nov. by E. S. Martin, in a recent issue of 5, 1912. the Atlantic Monthly, makes mighty School opened with a barracks full good reading. There are many young natep in the primary, something that began next day. Everyone seems im- sense, but whose lack is in not knowterested in are anxious should be. boys and all say it is the nicest set of says is applicable to other young men mark for youths in general:

"By all means be a gentleman, in classes and other school work, and manner and in spirit, in so far as you express themselves as much pleased know how, but be one from the inside

Mrs. Gray, have become very fond of have it life without acquiring manners, the new boys and were glad to wel- you might well blush for your parents come back the old frieuds of last and teachers. I don't think you have, but I beg you hold on to all the good of her mother Mrs Wm Thompson The boys are in a fine humor and manners you have, and get more. Good near Efland. Dr. C. D. Jones was proving a perfect success. There is I suppose they have always been fairly havzing whatever. Many fast friend- Show respect for people! Lord bless the boys apppearance, and the cadets scramble and elbow for are not worth are charmed with the neat fit of their having; not one of them. They are the swill of life, my son; leave them absolutely essential that the American Disarming the Bee.

Toledo Blade. The honey of commerce is the product of a creature with a passion for immigrants from abroad to take the work in the fore part of him and a red hot stiletto in the rear. He is industrious enough to be written down engine and a carpet tack.

An English apiarist-which is society language for beeman—has been self and family costs him greatly more responsibility. experimenting with bees for a num- because of the protective tariff pre ber of years with a view to producting a worker that you can stroke and If he shall vote on Tuesday for a con- company in Philadelphia. That person nently identified. tease and rob with impunity, the char-tinuance of this system of discriminaacteristic of the ordinary bee which ation and plunder he will richly de- a million dollars in cash and negotable politics at any time. Because of his assures him room according to his size serve the continued subordinatiod of having been removed. He says, this his interests which will surely follow. never been discovered, but through briquetof "Sunny Jim." before that, Englishman, that his labors have been -Va. Pilot. crowned with success. He has desuck the nectar from every nodding Action of Shrimp on Tin. never being prosecuted The propo title of "Dollar Jim." He was very flower as assiduously as the old-fashioned bce. But he will not get on the knife on you. He is as stingless as a paragus, beans, pumpkin and spinach president and other high officers of club. Penrose investigation of the Oil trust. are not acid and yet their corrosion of bank are now called on to answer for

We're not certain whether we'd care present rough rider style of bee. We've lated to ammonia. In the case of giving him protection. come to have a fondness for the pictures of those beemen showing colonies swarming over their persons as other folks permit their offspring to swarm over them. And we're sure the beeman would miss those pictures themselves.

An Evil Book

to read it and warn our people against Scientific American. contemination of their homes by it. being pushed in this State "Colliers," sident. says Mr. Ray, "have not only cast revouth." - Charlotte Observer.

Eliand Items

Mrs. John B. Baity left here Satur-

Mr. George Thompson took a business trip to Hillsboro last Tuesday. Messrs Sam Walker and Gene Stanford spent last Monday night in Durand Sunday at home with his family. Elizabeth, spent last Thursday with Mrs. Talitha Roggs. a visit to Greensboro much earlier than Said he: she expected owing to the fact that her mother was called to Winston to son who is reported very ill.

aunt Mrs. J. J. Brown Sundey

Miss Maud Efland is attending to her brother Mr. D. E. Forrest, Post master. Miss Maud is very efficient and courteous in her duties as Post

Mr. and Mrs Robert Sharp attended services at the M P church at Efland

Mrs Annie Kirby of Salisbury is spending a few days with her brother Mr Will Thomgson near Efland.

Murray spect Sunday with their friend ascertained in 20 seconds. Miss Baity. Mrs Sallie Horner and little daughter Bessie visited Mrs Horners parents last week Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Riley We regret very much to learn of the illness of Miss Meda Ray at the home

Paw-Paw Queese.

How Then.

How then, is Labor protected? The smoke puffed in women's faces; Show tee, either from the government or The codets have a great respect for respect for all kinds of people, includ- from his protected employer, that his their positions and there have been no suppose good manners are unselfish, an inflated price for shelter, food, The parcel-post system will take a lowing year was again sent to Congress Everyone remarks on the improvement cultivate them, they are so remuner- essential to the health and comfort of package from a farmer's home on a

But Protection does fail to protect Labor at the very point where it is workingman should be guarded against miscellaneous foreign competition; for there is no provision in the Tariff that prevents a protected miller or manufacturer from importing, without let or hindrance of tax or proscription, as many thousands as he wishes of cheap places, at low wages, of the American workman so elbowed out of a mine, a stances attack tin is wrong. Fish, as immunity from punishment. But the at the park of the American League tin is quite marked. This is probably compounding a felony with a man who due to amino compounds, substance re- robbed a bank of a very large sum shrimp, the cans are often eaten Now the prospect is that although gulation of the Nation's personal hathrough in comparatively short time. the real thief may escape punishment, So alkaline is the methylamine con- the high bank officers, who never in the increased consumption of whistained in the shrimp that workmen in profited a cent by the operation of key, beer and cigarettes reported by the canneries find the skin peeling off the arch thief, have got to answer as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. their hands and their shoes eaten criminals, while the real thief goes According to the tax returns, 450,000 shrimp were iced for a day before can- who handle large sums. ning the corrosive action of the juices Mr J. F. Ray of Lauringburg sends was greatly dimished. This is row The Observer a copy of a book which the universal practice. In addition Colliers are now putting into circulathe cans are lined with paper to pretion in North Carolina. He wants us vent contact of shrimp and tin.

The St. Louis Goble-Democrat is dis-The book is a vile French novel, one of turbed because "Professor" Wilson, the most salacious stores of Dumas, as that paper calls Governor Wilson, for the purpose aforementioned, but the regulations of railroad and industthe younger. It in an affront to the cannot smash every trust incorporated then it seems to be too much to hope decency of any respectable home, but under the laws of New Jersey. Why, that the government will do anything notable extension of the agitation from what Mr. Ray says, its sale is that's the reason he wants to be Pre-

Paris labels are being imported in

PARCELS POST NOW IWO Vice--President MONTHS HENCE

Chorlotte Uffice Planning to Take Care of Increased Resulting Business.

in discussing the operation of the Mr. Joe Murray spent Saturday night parcels post last week stated that the shed Patieni-Surrounded Mrs. Mac Efland and baby girl for handling the increased business when the law goes into effect the first of the year. The rates, said he, would be governed by distances and weights N. Y., at 9:42 o'clock last Wednesday Miss Bessie Baity has rerurned from and the distance determined by zones.

"The meridians of longitude and parallels of latitude form a quadranattend the bedside of ner infant grand gle having a width east and west of 54 miles and a length north and south Master Halcutt Williams visited his of 69 miles. These degree quadrangles are divided into quadrangles of 30 minutes length north and south and east and west, and the same rate is given to every postoffice in each quarter-degree quadrangle, with the privilege of sending at the same rate to any postoffice in every contiguous quarter degree quadrangle. Thus the Mr. Hester Hooks is on the sick list United States is divided into about 3.500 different and neverchanging units, each being the same size,

THE RATES.

dex number and all postoffices locat- chamber as he did to his bank-in a ed in any one of these quadrangles business suit and devoid of the regulawill have the same index number. tion white tie and the frock coat. Of By the use of charts and directories dignity he had plenty but of frills none. Misses Maie Richmond and Annie it is estimated that any rate can be Gradually, as he presided, stiff-backed

> "Rates are as follows: Pound. Pounds.

S	Rural route and
у	city delivery	$0.05	$0.10	$0.15
J	50-mile zone	.05	.03	.35
	150-mile zone	.06	.04	.46
e	300-mile zone	.07	.05	.57
е	600-mile zone	.08	.06	.68
n	1,000-mile zone	.09	.07	.79
e	1,400-mile zone	.10	.09	1.00
e	1,800-mile zone	.11	.10	1.11
	Over 1,800 miles.	.12	.11	1.32

HOW IT AFFECTS THE FARMERS.

"Service redered by the postal Utica. system is more extensive than the For instance, the charge made by an covers the transportation of a package crat. He was rural route, carry it to town, transport the Vice-Presidency, in 1908. 200 miles over rail routes, and then, if desired, deliver it to another farmer out on another route. Further, the total routes covered by the express companies aggregate but 258,000 miles while the general mail routes covers 435,000 miles, not to mention more than 1,000,000 miles of rural routes.

A High-Class Thief

(New Orleans Pidayune.) is ill-tempered enough to make even to complete barehanded with the labor get away with a large sum, not less efforts of Theodore Roosevelt. children respect him. He might be de- markets of the world, though the than a million, enough to break the Mr. Sherman attained great wealth scribed as a cross between a steam American laboring must live, move and bank, and then return one-half the through the formation of trolley and have his being in a home market where spoils on condition that the thief he water companies in New York State all that sustains the existence of him held immune from all prosecution and and as President of the Utica Trust > tended'y imposed for his protection. perintendent of yaults of a great trust with which his name has been promidisappeared from the bank with over He was not a spectacular figure in securities, and his whereabouts have smile he became famous under the sohis lawyer he made a proposition to when in 1908 he advocated campaign return the securities on condition of contributions of $1 each, he gained the sition was accepted by the bank and ford of baseball and on off days in The popular idea that only acid sub- due steps were taken to secure his Washington was invariably to be found

Clerks in the Treasury Department at Washington are allowed one dollar a week to cover the cost of having their clothes pressed. The average business men, who dresses just as well as the government clerk, probably much new compulsory abstinence legdoesn't spend over a dollar a month islation on statute books, as well as in on a strictly business basis.

Something over eleven hundred men womanhood of this State, but have ad- large quantities by American manu- took the civil service examination for What he is, engraves itself on his ded to it by flooding North Carolina facturers and milliners. The only policeman in New York City on the day face, on his form, on his fortunes, in with literature of the vilest kind, lit- hopeful sign is that the fetich of Becker was convicted. There's always letters of light, which all men may erature calculated to undermine our French branding may be laughed out room at the top, or the jury will make read but himself. Concealment avails

Sherman Dies in Coma

Uremic Poisoning, Complicated With Heart trou-Postmaster J. B. Spence of Charlotte ble, Carries of Distinguilocal office was making preparations by His Family at the End.

Vice-President James Schoolcraft Sherman died at his home in Utica, night of uremic poison caused by Bright's disease. He was fifty-seven years old, having been born Oct. 24,

James Schoolcraft Sherman was the twenty-seventh Vice-President of the United States, and with one exception -Richard M. Johnson, who was named for the office a second time in 1840was the only Vice-President to get a renomination since the adoption of the convention system. He is also entitled to distinction for another reason. As much as any other man, perhaps, he contributed to the breaking down of that indefinable but nevertheless palpable "senatorial dignity" that hung around the highest legislative body of the United States like a shroud. With him legislation was "Each quadrangle will have an in- a business and he went to the Senate

> 'senatorial dignity" melted away. The late Vice-President was born in Utica, N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855. His father was Richard U. Sherman, an editor and at one time a rather prominet

> He went to a public school at New Hartford, N. Y., and from there to Utica Academy. He graduated from the Whitestown (N. Y.) Seminary in 1874 and from Hamilton College in 1878. Two years later he was admitted

"Packages may weigh as much as He married Miss Carrie Babcock at 11 pounds or can be 6 feet in length. East Orange, N. Y., on Jan. 26, 1881. Their three sons, Sherrill, Richard U. and Thomas M, are all in business in service rendered by express companies. in politics as Mayor of Utica, to which Mr. Sherman first became prominent express company for a 200-mile haul 1884. Previously he had been a Demooffice he was elected as a Republican in where he served until his election to

In 1906 he becrme Chairman of the Republican National Congressioeal Committee. In Congress he was a member of the Committee on Rules, the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce and the Committee on Indian Affairs, of which he was Chairman.

During the Republican State Conventions in 1895, 1900 and 1908 Mr. Sherman was Temparary Chairman. He was slated for that position for the State It has been said, possibly more as a Convention at Saratoga two years ago mill or any other line of protected in- joke than otherwise, that the only way at which Henry L. Stimson was nomiin the books of the proverbs and he dustry. In other words, Labor is left to steal with any sort of security is to nated, but was shelved through the and Deposit Company which he founded. This experiment was tried by the The latter is the sole business venture

More Drinking and Smok

ing. Reformers concerned with the rebits will find cause for bitter disilusion through. Shrewd observation by some free. It is an interesting case and more gallons of whiskey and 320,000 canners led to the discovery that if the should teach a lesson to bank officers more barrels of beer were consumed in the third quarter of this year that during the same quarter of 1911, and cigarette consumption rose by a billion, to a total of 3,800,000,000.

This increased addiction to liquors and tobacco has occured in spite of a prohibition sentiment which has found expression in recent years in rial corporations, and in the face of a against smoking in public places.

A man passes for what he is worth. nothing.-Emerson.

ica

nd

ail.

rs