HAS WON A HIGH PLACE.

What ever else may be said about the recent canvass, State wide for the nomination of United States Senator, it can not be denied that the Greensboro News did eminent, and effective service in the interest of Senator Simmons, and it did its work in a fair straightforward and strictly punctilious manner, and that in the face of the most vicious, and outrageous slurs and misrepresentations. Its political character was assailed and everything done possible to damage it with the good people of the State. The News has won a high place in North Carolinas journalistic field, its course thoroughly consistent with the best interest of the State. Success to the News.

The Election is now over, now let's get to work for Mebane, and see if we can't give her a splendid majority. There is much that collective effort may accomplish for Mebane, there is no reason why all her citizens should not pull together for the good of Mebane.

PITY FOR THE LIVING,

George G. Thompson the able and efficient agent of the Southern Railway who was shot to death last week in Greensboro will soon be lost sight of in the cumulative sentiment and sympathy for the man who took his life, Henry Blair.

Blair might have been a nervous wreck, a broken down cigaret fiend, but when he called Thompson to his house to kill him, he knew he intended to take a human life, but judging from past precedents he was not certain he would lose his own because of it, in fact he likely reasoned to him self, that North Carolina does not make it a point to electrocute men who are able to pay for their defense and he felt reasonably sure he was able to pay for his defense. It was like a costly debauch, a game in the bloody arena, in which he expected to win because he could pay for it, and his intelligence was just enough blunted for him to not care for the cost.

Sickly sentimentality turns to Blair in sympathy now, as the weak unfortunate, all pity for him, but for the valuable citizen whose life he deliberately took, ah! he is gone they say we can not help it now.

Very much like a few years ago when Sam Kober of Winston was held on a charge of murdering Henry Kober. The Jews made up a big purse for Sams defense, and when chided about the act as there was at that time strong presumption of Sams guilt, the Jew answered "to hell with the dead Jew," it is the live Jew that we want to look after, and it is this universal sentiment that has made life cheap, and murderers common, and the criminal lawyers practice valuable especially in North Carolina.

THE HOPE OF A SETTLEMENT.

It is devoutly to be wished that the allied powers of the Balkan States will give Turkey the worst thrashing ever inflicted upon that much discredited power, and that they will be permitted to use their own pleasure in a division of the spoils.

A policy of "territorial disinterestedness" in the Balkans, if France, Russia and Great Britain have their way will replace the now discredited shibboleth of "status quo" as a basis of collective action by the great powers should the time arrive for a redistribution of sovereignty in Turkey through the success at arms of the allied Balkan States over the Turks. This self-sacrificing ordinance, of course, would apply only to the nations constituting the concert of Europe, as there is no longer any suggestion of opposing the aspirations of the Bulgarians, Greeks and Serbs for a national unity.

It is recognized that they must have their respective slices of territory should the Musselmen finally acknowledge defeat, but it is acutely feared that any attempt by outsiders to put their hands in the grab bag almost assuredly would lead to the European conflagration which the chancelleries aver they are so anxious to avoid.

An effort to wipe Turkey off the map would have been undertaken long ago, had not the collective powers regarded Turkey as a kind of arch to Europes great federation, and an effort at abolishing the cut throats of musselman would have resulted in a fight over the spoils that all Europe shudered at. It is now conceded that the Balkan States may absorb so much of it as they see fit, and yet they would still keep on moving.

A Day of Sunshine.

O gift of God! O perfect day;
Whereon shall no man work, but play;
Whereon it is enough for me,
Not to be doing, but to be!

Through every fibre of my brain,
Through every nerve, through every vein,
I feel the electric thrill, the touch
Of life, that means almost too much.

I hear the wind among the trees
Playing celestial symphonies;
I see the branches downward bent
Like keys of some great instrument.

And over me unrolls on high
The splendid scenery of the sky,
Where through a sapphire sea the sun
Sails like a golden galleon

Toward yonder cloudland in the west,
Toward yonder islands of the blest,
Whose steep Sierra far uplifts
Its craggy summits white with drifts,
Blow, winds! and waft through all the rooms

The snowflakes of the cherry blooms!
Blow, winds! and bend within my reach
The fiery blossoms of the peach!
O Life and Love! O happy throng
Of thoughts, whose only speech is song!

O heart of man! canst thou not be
Blithe as the air is, and as free?
—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Porto Rico's New Wonder.

From far away Porto Rico comes reports of a wonderful new discovery that is believed will vastly benefit the people. Ramon T. Marchan, of Barce loneta, writes "Dr. King's New Discovery is doing spendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest and more than 20 others, who used it on my advice. We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles it has no equal. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Mebane Drug Co.

There are persons so radiant, so genial, so kind, so pleasure-bearing, that you instinctively feel in their presence that they do you good, whose coming into a room is like the bringing of a lamp there.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble, Price 50 cents at Mebane Drug Co.

Sunset City.

There's a city that lies in the kingdom of clouds,
In the glorious country on high,
Which an azure and silvery curtain enshrouds,
To screen it from mortal eye.

A city of temples and turrets of gold,
That gleam by a sapphire sea.
Like jewels more splendid than earth may behold.

Or are dreamed of by you and by me
And about it are highlands of amber that reach

Far away till they meet in the gloam;
And waters that hem an immaculate beach
With fringes of luminous foam.

Aerial bridges of foam there are,
And belfries of marvelous shapes.
And lighthouses lit by the evening star
That sparkle on violet capes;

And hanging gardens that far away
Enchantedly float aloof;
Rainbow pavilions in avenues gay,
And banners of glorious woof.

When the summer sunset's crimsoning fires
Are aglow in the western sky,
The pilgrim discovers the domes and spires

Of this wonderful city on high.
And gazing enrapt as the gathering shade

Creeps over the twilight lea,
Sees palace and pinnacle totter and fade,
And sink in the sapphire sea.

Till the vision loses by slow degrees
The magical splendor it wore;
The silvery curtain is drawn, and he sees

The beautiful city no more!
—Henry Sylvester Cornwall.

Only A Fire Hero

but the crowd cheered, as, with burned hands, he held up a small round box, "Fellows!" he shouted, "this Bucklen's Arnica Salve I hold, has everything beat for burns." Right! also for boils, ulcers, sores, pimples, eczema, cuts, sprains, bruises. Surest pile cure. It subdues inflammation, kills pain. Only 25 cents at Mebane Drug Co.

The Illinois Supreme Court is trying to determine whether poker is rest or work. As for ourselves, we know nothing about the subject; but the reprehensible acquaintance, who is fast becoming also indispensable, tells us that it depends altogether upon how the cards "run."

CURIOS WORK OF PENANCE
Ancient Buddhist of Japan Writes
126,000 Words on Piece of Paper
18 by 7 1/2 inches.

For some time there has been shown in San Francisco a piece of paper 18 inches by 7 1/2 inches, on which there are written 126,000 words. This writing is the work of Kobo Taishi, a Buddhist of Japan, who lived 1,100 years ago. Before his time his countrymen used only Chinese characters in writing and he evolved the idea of the Japanese alphabet.

The writing on the paper is so fine that a microscope has to be used to decipher the intricate Japanese characters. It is an exact copy of eight books of the Buddhist Bible, and was written by the author as a sort of penance to purify his spirit. It is the property of a descendant of the writer, and has passed as a sacred heirloom from father to son for a thousand years. Every precaution has been taken to insure the safety of the document. In a case of white wood is a beautiful laquered box wrapped in green silk. Within the laquered box is another made of a very light porous wood that is extensively used in the manufacture of cabinets in which to store treasures. In this box is the precious writing.

Avoid Rheumatism

Rheumatism with its accompanying pains and tortures, is the result of a decreased action of the kidneys which results in an accumulation of Uric Acid in the blood.

Treatment should commence with the first hint of trouble.

Those almost insignificant pains in the small of the back mean trouble—it's a warning of kidney weakness—inability to separate the poisons from the blood.

The action of the kidneys is incessant—they work constantly and in company with the liver and bladder strive to purify the blood and keep the system free from poisons. They should have help—if they become weakened and neglected it means Rheumatism or Bright's disease.

If you would avoid these dangerous disease use
Nyal's Stone Root Compound—start with the first symptoms and make sure that the kidneys are restored to their normal strength and activity.

Nyal's Stone Root Compound was devised for that very purpose—to assist the kidneys, bladder and liver in their functions and rid the system of Uric Acid and other poisons. Does it, too!

Fifty cents and one dollar the bottle.
