Mr. Charles Cates spent Saturday afternoon in Burlington. The dog tax question become a hot issue while he was up there. A number of prominent citizens had views on the dog tax question. They named from a fifty Monday morning when it was decided cent tax to a two dollar tax. One dollar was the final limit.

The work done by a force of hands on the Southern Railway yard in covering the had places with cinders, will prove of great value to the freight move. Much credit is due agent Slack, for pulling the officials coat tails until he got them to do something. Mr. M F Smith, section master, also contributed much in securing the work.
