THE MEBANE LEADER.

"And Right The Day Must Win, To Doubt Would be Disloyalty, To Falter Would Be Sin."

VOL. 4

K

-

s

5

IS

1d

re

J.

lina

TS CK

iges

rni-

MEBANE, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 10, 1913

NO. 65

The Mighty Arm of Law,

The pride of the Allen family, of the Virginia mountains, was not that they were good citizens, law-loving and law-respectivg; it was that they had physical courage, were intolerart of restraint and that no member thereof had suffered degrading punishment.

THE DEATH OF R. M. PHILLIPS, Associate Editor of The

Greensboro News.

In their attitude there was nothing The Greensboro News of April the 3 elevating, nothing approaching the says this in part in refference to the higher form of bravery; they were death of Mr. Phillips. simply without sense of moral re-

Robert Masten Phillips died yestersponsibility, determined to have their Last Friday the Trinity base ball presentative C. C. Carlin of Alexand- day afternoon at 6 o'clock at his home selfish way and willing to "shoot it near Carthage. He had been sick but out" with those attempting to thwart Wake Forest in what is termed the Congress, and approved by the Presi. a few days, and had gone to his home them, regardless of consequences. If hardest fought battle, which has taken dent This act imposes a maximum for a temporary rest in the belief that the law interfered with them they were place between the two Colleges in fine of $5,000 or imprisonment for not he would regain his strength, and it ready to kill the agents of the law, many seasons. The score was three to more than ten years for any person was expected he would return in a few risking the chance of getting killed. two in favor of Wake Forest. The convicted of unlawfully breaking into days to resume his duties as associate Such was the attitude of the elder score stood two to two until the minth any railway car containing interstate editor of The Daily News. The death Allens and it was inevitable that the inning when Edwards of Wake Forest or foreign shipments of freight or ex. was caused immediately by heat fail. younger generation should come to manknocked a home run which left the press, or of stealing or obtaining by ure, superinduced by chronic gastritis hood with the same contempt for the He was conscious and was laughing and law, and for the mandates of civil zed Rev. Thornton Whaling, President of pot, platform, vessel, or wharf, any talking two minutes before his death. society. And so it was that two His associates on The News and nephews of Floyd Allen, Sidna and Columbia Theological Seminary, freight, express or baggage which con-stitutes or is a part of any interstate friends in this city and state were altogether unprepared for the shock they church, and disliking the manner of received when the wire prought the the Baptist preacher, proceeded to pull news last night. But a few days ago him cut of the pulpit. They were his big face was beaming on those he arrested for disturbing religious worship loved, and he loved every man in the Those young men had been bred in that world. But a few days ago he was atmosphere where law and the forms hopeful of the future, and was spinning of society that infringed upon their inthe happy jokes that made him friends dividual desires were held in contempt. by the hundred wherever he went. must be remembered that Trinitie's Well Known Newspaper He knew he was seriously sick when reacher, or for the religious senti-regular team did not play, otherwise Man and Prominent Day He knew he was seriously sick when the ments of their neighbors, and there

They had no regard for God, for him good. In search of health and about us.

strength, he sought the place of his The beginning of the end of the proud James C. Boylin, editor and owner cradle, the place where associations Allen family was at that little church of the Messenger and Intelligencer, for him were the sweetest, the place of in the mountains A deputy sheriff The Observer last summer had oc- died at Wadesboro, April 3 after an which he dreamed when his heart was took the young men in charge and was casion to refer to the trim condition in illness of three months. He had been sad, for as jolly as he was, as hearty on his way to the county seat, when which the women of Lincolnton keep unwell for some time, and three weeks as was his greeting, his body often was met by the uncle, Floyd Allen. He their town. They have prepared to ago pneumonia developed, and his shaken by the feelings which come dragged the deputy from the wagon, natured of men. Friends here but a the handcuffs from the prisoners. have appointed a clean-up day, on stand the attack. which they propose to put Lincolnton Mr. Boylin was in his 50th year, hav-day or two ago had been told he was Stupid, ignorant brute-passion ruled, at the manacults from the prisoners. in shape for the Summer. After that ing been born May 2, 1863. He was a better and the appearance of his kindly otherwise the : lder man would have the Village Improvement Society will native of Wadesboro but moved to face was watched for hopefully. Death known and profited by the knowledge, locate the garbage cans, provide sani- Monroe when a young man and learned came at the close of one of the purest that he was not greater than the law of tary drinking cups at the public places the printing business with his brother, days of spring, one of the days which Virginia and that this rescue could be start a war on the flies, and proceed in W. J. Boylin, the proprietor of the kindled songs in his heart, and made only temporary; that the law openly to the attack until it prevriled.

The Edwards boys were sentenced for their unlawful acts, and Judge Don't waste your time swatting flies and rescuing prisoners. Allen was Fleyd Allen for attacking an officer this summer unless you have your convicted, and as the sentence to be able to handle the militant suffragetts	Misses Bessie Lloyd and Hattie Dunn spent Saturday night in the country	in civic endeavor. It is for this reason that is late ways visitors have always anchi they realize that they are just as	with Mrs. Thomas Williams and family.		10 1 m 1 0

	The English government will never		Perhaps this old town was the pioneer	ligencer and combined the two.
Walter Malona and wite spent Thurs-	capable of committing nemeous crimes		ticular town Charlotte Observer.	Bomb Throwe's Supreme day last Greenshoro	as any other class of her citizens, and	Mr. Henry Gordon met with a Dau		Sacrifice.
		accident last week, he was carrying		Great Truchersh fort which for The blowing up the railroad station		Then The Donkey Brayed	Great Tarabosch fort, which for he fell against the glass and cut his	Tot day the Deltimore simulation	months has held the allies off Scutari head right bad.	Just after the Baltimore annual con ference of the Methodist Episcopal	is now practically in the hands of the
	for the destruction of property here,		church had decided to send a commit-classes the suffragetts with the			whom lost his life in a last desperate Greensboro Tuesday.	commonest, and most vicious criminals.		congratulate him upon his election and
Ma Dovid White hustion of Ma			"to strengthen him in his good works"
Mr. David White, brother of Mr. J. Ed White and cousin, Mr. Bob White	A Word For The Civic		a Democratic donkey in the alley bray-
Vann, spent Sunday in Mebane.		carpende ene es mineres	ed loudly, cheerfullp and brazeniy, says	These bomb throwers were all picked
	League.	Miss Estelle Lloyd is spending a lew	the Baltimore Evening Sun.	men, chosen from several battalions.
A Sunday School convention will be		days with her brother Mr. Granam	Bishop Cranston was making his an-	Clambering up the mountain side under held in the M. P. Church in Mebane	What the women of Lineon out	Lloyd of Spencer.		a murderous fire from the Turkish guns, done to clean, and beautify their town,		looked aghast. Some wanted to laugh.	they cut the wire entanglements an
		and Sunday in Durham visiting her	The donsey brayed again - a long,	getting to close quarters threw bombs
Roads presbyterian church, went up to	and I believe that they will do it.		loud call. A few ministers snickered.	among the Torks, thus opening the way
	There are several of the ladies of	Sunday evening.	The donkey brayed a third time right	for the storming party.
	Mebane who are interested in a civic		under a window. It was too much.	Not one of the bomb throwers return-international A. S. January Development and	league, and with the proper encourage-	came up to see his wifes narents. Mr	Bishop Cranston burst out laughing.	ed, but they had accomplished their Durcham Cilling Durcham	ment would do something. I have just	and Mrs. Robert Cheek / Saturday, Mr.	The preachers gave way to their pen-	object and the Montenegrin infantry been informed that the committee on	and Mrs. Cheek continues very ill.	tup mirth.	following close upon them charged the organization appointed some time ago		"Brethren please don't get the two You can't hurry too soon is the head-	are hard at work, and have secured a	Miss Lula Roberson has returned	announcements twisted," said the bis	The Turks covered their ground and promise of Mrs. Jones of Durham to	after a short stay in Noriok and	hop.	a desperate, bloody, hand to hand fight come up and give them a talk on civic	1 I am talan in Manfalls mag filed		ensued, lasting an hour and ending in read and profit by it.	league work and aid them organize.	before she arrived, all were glad that	List of Letters Advertised	victory for the Montenegrins, who lost
We note a surveyor plotting several	I suggest that the town commissioners	before sne arrived, an were glad that		600 men killed and wounded.
	take this matter up with the committee		For the week ending April 5 1913.	The Witchery of The in Mebane Monday. We hope to see	on organization and write Mrs. Jones.	Miss Berta and Lillie Ray were new	1 Letter for Mrs. Annie Williamson substantial building going up on this	Now is the time to commence work,	additions to the Philathia class last	1 " Mr. and Mrs John Keyser	Bermudas.
property.	and have a general cleaning up. Our	Sunday. This class elected new officers	1 " " Mrs. Cora Miles	(From the Bermudas, by Washington · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	town needs it badly. W. E. White.	for the quarter as follows: Miss Alma	1 " " Mrs. Nettie Roberson •	Inving.)
W. A. Murray returned yesterday	W. E. White.	Lloyd President; Miss Gracie Lloyd,	1 " " Miss Frunnie Wilson 1 " " Miss Lillie Thompson	Sails were stretched as awnings over to his home at Mebane. He was in-		Sect. and Treas.; Miss Atkinson, Miss	1 " " Miss Lillie Thompson 1 " " Miss Eliza Turentine	the quarter deck to protect us from the vited into the order of Elks at the	A Kind Word From The	Berta Ray and Miss' Mellie Crawford	1 " " Miss Heady Bracner	midday sun. Under these we lounged
Wednesday night meeting here		Hustling Committee.	1 16 If Mr. Too Lear Woods	away the day in luxurious indolence, Greensboro News.	Journal.	Some of the "Early Birds" have		musing, with half shut eyes, upon the
FD1			1 44 Mr Tommy Vanghn
The time for choosing a Mayor and	Mr. J. O. Foy, editor of the Mebane	been planting corn, but the greater	1 mit, Johnary Vaugini	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely
The time for choosing a Mayor and board Alderman is about three weeks	Leader, spent yesterday in the city	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a	1 " " Mr. George Taylor	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris-
	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a	1 " " Mr. George Taylor 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of
off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men,	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet.	1 " " Mr. George Taylor 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. Howard Hegenian	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children	1 " " Mr. George Taylor 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. Howard Hegenian 1 " " Mr. Runny Morges	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen-	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent	1 " " Mr. George Taylor 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. Howard Hegenian 1 " " Mr. Runny Morges 1 P. C. " Miss E. D. Miles.	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails
board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone. Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Resemond returning to Charlotte Sun-	1 " " Mr. George Taylor 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. Howard Hegenian 1 " " Mr. Runny Morges	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a
board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone. Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Lea-	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun-	1 " " Mr. George Taylor 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. Howard Hegenian 1 " " Mr. Runny Morges 1 P. C. " Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our
board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone. Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Lea- der to direct attention to a large line	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here,	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte San- day.	1 " " Mr. George Taylor 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. Howard Hegenian 1 " " Mr. Runny Morges 1 P. C. " Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through
board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone. Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Lea- der to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc.	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte San- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man"	1 " " Mr. George Taylor 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. Howard Hegenian 1 " " Mr. Runny Morges 1 P. C. " Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list. Respt.	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every
board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone. Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Lea- der to direct attention to a large line	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball	1 " " Mr. George Taylor 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. Howard Hegenian 1 " " Mr. Runny Morges 1 P. C. " Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list.	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm-
board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone. Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Lea- der to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loval support to her progress or	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening.	1 " " Mr. George Taylor 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " " Mr. Howard Hegenian 1 " " Mr. Runny Morges 1 P. C. " Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list. Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or
board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone. Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Lea- der to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy.	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will	<ol> <li>"Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>"Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>"Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>"Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>"Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles.</li> <li>These letters will be sent to the</li> <li>Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not</li> <li>called for. In calling please give date</li> <li>of list.</li> <li>Respt.</li> <li>S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> </ol>	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore-
board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone. Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Lea- der to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page. Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane,	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte San- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will he served before the play. Come and	<ol> <li>"Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>"Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>"Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>"Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>"Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list. Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> </ol>	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and
board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone. Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Lea- der to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page. Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an ac-	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper.—	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will he served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together.	1 " "Mr. George Taylor 1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian 1 " "Mr. Runny Morges 1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list. Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M. Mebane, N. C. Daniels Should Keep	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice
board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone. Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Lea- der to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page. Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an ac- tive-energetic man, and tries to earn	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper.—	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will he served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting	1 " "Mr. George Taylor 1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian 1 " "Mr. Runny Morges 1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list. Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M. Mebane, N. C. Daniels Should Keep Handel Offi	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive
board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone. Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Lea- der to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page. Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an ac-	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper.— Winston-Salem Journal.	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days.	1 " "Mr. George Taylor 1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy 1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian 1 " "Mr. Runny Morges 1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list. Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M. Mebane, N. C. Daniels Should Keep Hands Off	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active-energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in his new undertaking.</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper.—	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will he served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days, His gon, Mr. Robert Daviu of Texas,	<ul> <li>1 " "Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles.</li> <li>These letters will be sent to the</li> <li>Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list.</li> <li>Respt.</li> <li>S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> </ul> Daniels Should Keep Hands Off 1	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour.
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active-energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in his new undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr.</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper Winston-Salem Journal.	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His gon, Mr. Robert Davis of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro	<ul> <li>1 " "Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles.</li> <li>These letters will be sent to the</li> <li>Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list.</li> <li>Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> </ul> Daniels Should Keep Hands Off t Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal reve-	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in him new undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr. Raiph Vincent and wife were called to</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper Winston-Salem Journal. Come South, Young Man. "If you live by the rivers you are washed away. If you live on the prai-	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte San- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His gon, Mr. Robert Davis of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro and has come back to the Old North State.	<ul> <li>1 " "Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles.</li> <li>These letters will be sent to the</li> <li>Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list.</li> <li>Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> <li>Daniels Should Keep Hands Off</li> <li>Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal revenue collector for the western district.</li> </ul>	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active-energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in his new undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr. Raiph Vincent and wife were called to Durham Friday to the sick bed side of</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper Winston-Salem Journal. Come South, Young Man. "If you live by the rivers you are washed away. If you live on the prai- ries you are blown away. If you take	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte San- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His son, Mr. Robert Daviu of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro and has come back to the Old North State.	<ul> <li>1 " "Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles.</li> <li>These letters will be sent to the</li> <li>Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list.</li> <li>Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> </ul> Daniels Should Keep Hands Off Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal revenue collector for the western district. This is certainly not becoming in Mr.	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active-energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in his new undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr. Raiph Vincent and wife were called to Durham Friday to the sick bed side of Mrs. Vincent the mother of the Messrs.</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper Winston-Salem Journal. Come South, Young Man. "If you live by the rivers you are washed away. If you live on the prai- ries you are blown away. If you take refuge in the mountains, there are the	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte San- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His son, Mr. Robert Daviu of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro and has come back to the Old North State.	<ul> <li>1 " "Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles.</li> <li>These letters will be sent to the</li> <li>Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list.</li> <li>Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> <li>Daniels Should Keep Hands Off</li> <li>Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal revenue collector for the western district.</li> <li>This is certainly not becoming in Mr. Daniels as a member of the President's</li> </ul>	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in his new undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr. Raiph Vincent and wife were called to Durham Friday to the sick bed side of Mrs. Vincent the mother of the Messrs. Ralph and Joe Vincent. She had</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper Winston-Salem Journal. Come South, Young Man. "If you live by the rivers you are washed away. If you live on the prai- ries you are blown away. If you take refuge in the mountains, there are the	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His ron, Mr. Robert Daviu of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro and has come back to the Old North State.	<ul> <li>1 " "Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles.</li> <li>These letters will be sent to the</li> <li>Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list.</li> <li>Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> </ul> Daniels Should Keep Hands Off Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal revenue collector for the western district. This is certainly not becoming in Mr. Daniels as a member of the President's cabinet, and his stand will only make	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- ed to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. Straight at It.
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in his new undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr. Raiph Vincent and wife were called to Durham Friday to the sick bed side of Mrs. Vincent the mother of the Messrs. Ralph and Joe Vincent. She had suffered a stroke of paralysis, but were store and store of paralysis.</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper Winston-Salem Journal. Come South, Young Man. "If you live by the rivers you are washed away. If you live on the prai- ries you are blown away. If you take refuge in the mountains, there are the avslances."-Kansas City Journal.	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte San- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His zon, Mr. Robert Daviu of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro and has come back to the Old North State. Drive Sick Headaches	<ul> <li>1 " "Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles.</li> <li>These letters will be sent to the</li> <li>Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list.</li> <li>Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> <li>Daniels Should Keep Hands Off</li> <li>Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal revenue collector for the western district.</li> <li>This is certainly not becoming in Mr. Daniels as a member of the President's</li> </ul>	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- ed to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. Straight at It. There is no use of our "beating
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in here undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr. Raiph Vincent and wife were called to Durham Friday to the sick bed side of Mrs. Vincent the mother of the Messrs. Ralph and Joe Vincent. She had suffered a stroke of paralysis, but we harn since is much better.</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper. — Winston-Salem Journal. Come South, Young Man. "If you live by the rivers you are washed away. If you live on the prai- ries you are blown away. If you take refuge in the mountains, there are the avslances."—Kansas City Journal. Migrate to Virginia. Here the riv- ers rise sometimes, but always in a	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte San- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His gon, Mr. Robert Daviu of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro and has come back to the Old North State. Drive Sick Headaches Away	<ul> <li>1 " Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list. Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> <li>Daniels Should Keep Hands Off</li> <li>Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal reve- nue collector for the western district. This is certainly not becoming in Mr. Daniels as a member of the President's cabinet, and his stand will only make the selection of Mr Watts certain. The secretary of the navy ought to keep hands off in appeintments of this kind</li> </ul>	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. Straight at It. There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in his new undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr. Raiph Vincent and wife were called to Durham Friday to the sick bed side of Mrs. Vincent the mother of the Messrs. Ralph and Joe Vincent. She had suffered a stroke of paralysis, but we harn since is much better.</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper.— Winston-Salem Journal. Come South, Young Man. "If you live by the rivers you are washed away. If you live on the prai- ries you are blown away. If you take refuge in the mountains, there are the avslances."—Kansas City Journal. Migrate to Virginia. Here the riv- ers rise sometimes, but always in a perfectly ladylike manner. The winds	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte San- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His gon, Mr. Robert Davis of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro and has come back to the Old North State. Drive Sick Headaches Away Sick headaches, sour cassy stomach.	<ul> <li>1 " "Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list. Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> <li>Daniels Should Keep Hands Off</li> <li>Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal reve- nue collector for the western district. This is certainly not becoming in Mr. Daniels as a member of the President's cabinet, and his stand will only make the selection of Mr Watts certain. The secretary of the navy ought to keep hands off in appointments of this kind from his own state or any other, and</li> </ul>	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- ed to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. Straight at It. There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well out with it first as last. We want you
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in here undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr. Raiph Vincent and wife were called to Durham Friday to the sick bed side of Mrs. Vincent the mother of the Messrs. Ralph and Joe Vincent. She had suffered a stroke of paralysis, but we learn since is much better.</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper Winston-Salem Journal. Come South, Young Man. "If you live by the rivers you are washed away. If you live on the prai- ries you are blown away. If you take refuge in the mountains, there are the avslances."Kansas City Journal. Migrate to Virginia. Here the riv- ers rise sometimes, but always in a perfectly ladylike manner. The winds only gently fan the cheeks of beauty	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte San- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His gon, Mr. Robert Davis of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro and has come back to the Old North State. Drive Sick Headaches Away Sick headaches, sour gassy stomach, indigestion. biliousness disappear	<ul> <li>1 " Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. " Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list. Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> <li>Daniels Should Keep Hands Off</li> <li>Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal reve- nue collector for the western district. This is certainly not becoming in Mr. Daniels as a member of the President's cabinet, and his stand will only make the selection of Mr Watts certain. The secretary of the navy ought to keep hands off in appointments of this kind from his own state or any other, and it would be highly proper for him to re</li> </ul>	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. Straight at It. There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well out with it first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in his new undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr. Raiph Vincent and wife were called to Durham Friday to the sick bed side of Mrs. Vincent the mother of the Messrs. Ralph and Joe Vincent. She had suffered a stroke of paralysis, but we learn since is much better.</li> <li>Mrs J. E. Bowland and daughter left Tuesday for Durham where they will spend the summer. M. J. E. Bow</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper Winston-Salem Journal. Come South, Young Man. "If you live by the rivers you are washed away. If you live on the prai- ries you are blown away. If you take refuge in the mountains, there are the avalances."Kansas City Journal. Migrate to Virginia. Here the riv- ers rise sometimes, but always in a perfectly ladylike manner. The winds only gently fan the cheeks of beauty and temper the sun's heat to the	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte San- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His gon, Mr. Robert Davis of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro and has come back to the Old North State. Drive Sick Headaches Away Sick headaches, sour gassy stomach, indigestion, biliousness disappear mickly after you take Dr. King's New	<ul> <li>1 " "Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list. Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> <li>Daniels Should Keep Hands Off</li> <li>Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal revenue collector for the western district. This is certainly not becoming in Mr. Daniels as a member of the President's cabinet, and his stand will only make the selection of Mr Watts certain. The secretary of the navy ought to keep hands off in appeintments of this kind from his own state or any other, and it would be highly proper for him to resign as North Carolina's national com</li> </ul>	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- ed to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. Straight at It. There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well out with it first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in his new undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr. Raiph Vincent and wife were called to Durham Friday to the sick bed side of Mrs. Vincent the mother of the Messrs. Ralph and Joe Vincent. She had suffered a stroke of paralysis, but we harn since is much better.</li> <li>Mrs J. E. Bowland and daughter heft Tuesday for Durham where they will spend the summer. M. J. E. Bowland has kept his wife and daughter</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper Winston-Salem Journal. Come South, Young Man. "If you live by the rivers you are washed away. If you live on the prai- ries you are blown away. If you take refuge in the mountains, there are the avslances."Kansas City Journal. Migrate to Virginia. Here the riv- ers rise sometimes, but always in a perfectly ladylike manner. The winds only gently fan the cheeks of beauty and temper the sun's heat to the plowshman and harvester in the fields	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His son, Mr. Robert Davis of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro and has come back to the Old North State. Drive Sick Headaches Away Sick headaches, sour gassy stomach, indigestion, biliousness disappear quickly after you take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They purify the blood and	<ul> <li>1 " "Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list. Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> <li>Daniels Should Keep Hands Off</li> <li>Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal revenue collector for the western district. This is certainly not becoming in Mr. Daniels as a member of the President's cabinet, and his stand will only make the selection of Mr Watts certain. The secretary of the navy ought to keep hands off in appointments of this kind from his own state or any other, and it would be highly proper for him to resign as North Carolina's national committeeman.</li> </ul>	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. Straight at It. There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well out with it first as hast. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or cold. There is no reason so far as
<ul> <li>board Alderman is about three weeks off. There seems to be a pretty lively demand for strong progressive men, men with backbone.</li> <li>Mr. I. J. Mazur of Burlington takes a fourth of a page in this weeks Leader to direct attention to a large line of seasonable dress goods notions, etc. See his ad on fourth page.</li> <li>Mr. A. P. Long has opened up a stock of goods in his new store next to the Bobbitt store. Mr. Long is an active energetic man, and tries to earn success. We hope he will succeed in his new undertaking.</li> <li>Mr. Joe Vincent and wife and Mr. Raiph Vincent and wife were called to Durham Friday to the sick bed side of Mrs. Vincent the mother of the Messrs. Ralph and Joe Vincent. She had suffered a stroke of paralysis, but we learn since is much better.</li> <li>Mrs J. E. Bowland and daughter left Tuesday for Durham where they will spend the summer. M. J. E. Bow</li> </ul>	Leader, spent yesterday in the city shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. Foy spent some years in Winston-Salem, first as editor and founder of the Twin-City Daily Sen- tinel, and afterwards as editor of the Journal. It will be conceded by those remembering Mr. Foy's service here, that no one was more devoted to the interest of Winston-Salem or gave a more loyal support to her progress or her public institutions than did Mr. Foy. We learn he is doing well at Mebane, where he edits a weekly paper Winston-Salem Journal. Come South, Young Man. "If you live by the rivers you are washed away. If you live on the prai- ries you are blown away. If you take refuge in the mountains, there are the avslances."-Kansas City Journal. Migrate to Virginia. Here the riv- ers rise sometimes, but always in a perfectly ladylike manner. The winds only gently fan the cheeks of beauty and temper the sun's heat to the ploughman and harvester in the fields	been planting corn, but the greater number are not yet ready or think it a little too cold yet. Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children went to Hillsboro Saturday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rosemond returning to Charlotte Sun- day. Don't forget "Tompkin's Hired Man" next Saturday night; also the ball game with Buckhorn in the evening. Either oysters or cake and cream will be served before the play. Come and let's have a good time together. Mr. James T. Davis is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. His gon, Mr. Robert Davis of Texas, recently bought a farm near Greensboro and has come back to the Old North State. Drive Sick Headaches Away Sick headaches, sour gassy stomach, indigestion, biliousness disappear quickly after you take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They purify the blood and nut new life and vigor in the system.	<ul> <li>1 " "Mr. George Taylor</li> <li>1 " "Mr. G. T. McElroy</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Howard Hegenian</li> <li>1 " "Mr. Runny Morges</li> <li>1 P. C. "Miss E. D. Miles.</li> <li>These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 19 1913. If not called for. In calling please give date of list.</li> <li>Respt. S. Arthur White, P. M.</li> <li>Mebane, N. C.</li> <li>Daniels Should Keep Hands Off 1</li> <li>Secretary Daniels is reported to be against A. D Watts for internal revenue collector for the western district. This is certainly not becoming in Mr. Daniels as a member of the President's cabinet, and his stand will only make the selection of Mr Watts certain. The secretary of the navy ought to keep hands off in appointments of this kind from his own state or any other, and it would be highly proper for him to resign as North Carolina's national committeeman. The two senators from this state catage of the state catage.</li> </ul>	quiet ocean. The night was scarcely less beautiful than the day, the ris- ins moon sent a quivering column of silver along the undulating surface of the deep, and gradually climbing the heaven, it lit up oer towering topsails and swelling mainsails, and spread a pale, mysterious light around. As our ship made her whispering way through this dreamy world of waters every boisterous sound on board was charm- red to silence, and the low whistle, or drowsy song of a sailor from the fore- castle, or the tingling of a guitar, and the soft warbling of a woman's voice from the quarter deck, seemed to derive a witching melody from the scene and hour. The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. Straight at It. There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well out with it first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or cold. There is no reason so far as

-Duplin Enterprise.

for Ten Years.

WADESBORO IS DEAD

Thursday.

d and

arcely e rismn of ace of g the psails every | harm-s well gh or

Every pill helps; every box guaranteed men for those jobs. Mr. Daniels cer- cures gained a world wide reputation, and people everywhere speak of it in the The same condition prevails in North Price 25c. Recommended by Mebane tainly ought to stay out of such fights. highest terms of praise. It is for sale pigs 8 weeks old $3.50 each. by all Dealers.

house well screened. Fly swatters imprisonment for a year fell from the are a refinement to be used only in lips of the judge, the Allen clan, houses or rooms where all the doors gathered from the mountains and still and windows are screened. Fly swat-placing their faith in force and holding n for ters are merely a finishing process- the law in contempt, tegan a fusillade, eutari a matter of refinement, if vou please- the prisoner in the dock being one of of the to be used in a well screened room or those to empty a pistol. rifice house where there are perhaps never The bullets of the desperate men he of over a dozen flies. By means of fly made a clean sweep of the "court" swatters you can lay low the last fly judge, state prosecutor, sheriff fell gro is screened you might as well blow Allens and Edwards rode to liberty. against the wind as to try to keep all They knew they were committing icked the flies out by swatting. lions. The first thing to do, therefore. is room, and pitting their unbridled pasunder to put up fly screens. Don't put it sions against the law, but they had no to be effective. In fact, in many in- they were feared by pony, cowardly eturn- stances a window can be screened per- county officials; their "influence" their fectly with mosquito netting for 15 played a big part in politics, just as antry cents. while a 35--cent ill-fitting extend the lion screen will let the flies come in of way. Their early aggressions had by the hurdreds.

For kitchen windows, where it is an old story in every community where I fight rarely recessary to open or close the the law is held in comtempt-until ng in shutters, there is no better way of they had come to believe they cou'd o lost screening than by means of mosquito actually successfully defy law. netting tacked to the outside of the window frame. Mosquito netting will aroused, the lawless were as leaves in aroused, the lawless were as leaves in with the inside shades or blinds. Of like wild animals and were hunted as course, if you have the money, there such. In dread of the awakened law is no objection to getting made-to- their friends dared not aid them. They order screens to fit all the windows, were hunted as assassing, tracked down but they will cost from $1 00 to $1,50 and taken, one by one. Even those apiece, aginst 15 cents for the mos- that fled a thousand miles were trapquito netting

Under the title; "The South; The Again the clan was gathered into a Nation's Greatest Asset," The Manu- court of justice, not to rescue one of read a facturers' Record, of Baltimore pre- their number from just punishment As our sents to its readers, as part of its is- but to face trial for murder, and the rough sue of March 27th, what is most prob- Law is in mastery. Riflemen surably the most voluminous and compre- rounded the court house, and had their hansive review of the resources and been danger of every mountaineer of tle, or industrial activities of the Southern every mountain in the Virginians and fore- States ever attempted. In directing Carolinians coming to their rescue the , and attention to the publication, the Re- Law could have called to its support voice cord says: "We believe that every ten riflemen for every one of them. derive man who rises from a careful study of Numbers of the murderers were conthat there is no other section in this or. Friday two of them, Floyd Allen and any other land known to mankind of his son, Clande, after their attorneys hining such boundless potentialities, predesti- had made a futile attempt to jockery e unto ned by nature to be the focusing point with the pardoning power of Virginia, of the world's greatest materials ac- went to their death. The son was eating Pilot. int you orce alleges that her husband destroy- before in the form with which it was emedy ed a couple of her best bonnets. That familiar, and one may believe his may not be sufficient cause for divorce, agony of mind on the day of execution but it was enough to ruffle the tem- was not for himself. He realized that per of any good wife. Greensboro News.

For sale thorough bred Berkshire

Mebane, N. C. W. E. Mudgett

n, for in a room, but if the room is not well dead, with four other victims, and the murder, were "cleaning out" a court guns, off another week or another month s an Do it now, and get the benefit of bombs screens all spring, summer and fall. e way Screens do not need to be expensive action. Back in their mountain homes been unchecked by faithless officials--- ne usually last an entire season, and it does not interfere in the least with raising or lowering the windows, or with the inside shades or blinds. Of ped and brought back to prison, as they would have been reached by the Great Work Well Done law's arm had they gone to the ends of the earth.

e and the facts presented here will realize victed, in differen degrees, and on praying. And no wonder! He was

A Washington lady in seeking a div- physicially brave; he had faced death in following his leadership his whole boastful family was destroyed, those who have escaped the electric chair and the penitentiary being cruished, ruined and the name forever stained.-Columbia State, winter and spring. They are very while nice people, and all have won very the torodic West. - Va Pilot. warin friends who regret to see them go, but will anxiously look for their return in the fall. Carolina.

Drug Co.

tivities and of the mightiest influences calm, the father, so fiercely desperate for shaping the world's affairs. - Va. but a while ago, broken, tearful and