Wild Rice a Valuable Food.
Wild rice, according to a consular report, is "the most nutritious cereal in America." The plant has a long black grain, and hence is sometimes called black rice. It has been used from time immemorial by certain Indian tribes as their principal food. In recent years it has come into the white man's markets, selling for considerably more than ordinary white rice.

Seek Appreciation of Others.
Mark Twain once said: "Be good, and you'll be lonesome." Nevertheless, most of us try in our own fashion to achieve that brand of loneliness. It is a characteristic of the average individual to "put the best foot forward." We wish to deserve well of our associates, and the desire to be, or at least appear to be, what others expect us to be is an underlying fact of civilization.

Shushful.
A buxom farm lass was recently called as a witness in a case in a Yorkshire (Eng.) county court. The girl happened to mention that her sweetheart knew something about the matter. "Oh," said the judge, "then I think we had better call him to court!" The girl blushed furiously. "It won't be any good, sir," she protested. "Ah'm fity put to it to get him to court when we're alone, an Ah'm sure he won't do it before all you gentlemen!"

Important Adjuncts to Life.
If the telescope is the greatest of all eyes, the microscope is the most useful of all eyes. With the microscope and the telescope we look in opposite directions. The one shows us the illimitable universe, whereby the imagination is excited to conceptions of infinity, but the other reveals the infinitely small—the microbes, the germs, the cells. With the telescope we elevate the mind; with the microscope we combat the enemies of life. Both are the handmaids of science and civilization.

Evidently Had Marrying Mania.
Probably the world's marrying record for men was created by George Witzoff, the notorious bigamist, whose marriages have variously been estimated at from 50 to 500. It has been said, however, that 100 is nearer the real mark. This man caused a great stir a few years ago, and it was reported that in the space of a single week he went through marriage ceremonies with seven different women.

Important Correction.
"I wish to say to my congregation," said the minister, "that the pulpit is not responsible for the error of the printer on the tickets for the concert in the Sunday school room. The concert is for the benefit of the Arch fund, not the Arch Fiend. We will now sing hymn six, 'To err is human, to forgive divine.'"

Altogether Too Literal.
Boarder (tackling a tough steak, to boarding house keeper)—"When you undertook to provide me with board, madam, I was unaware that you meant to do so literally!"

Another Complaint Recorded.
A woman journalist tells us that in a collection of recent poetry there are poems of dust, rags, fish and tea, and that "woman alone has failed to fan the poetic fires." She attributes it to the fact that woman has descended from her pedestal into the "hurly burly of life."

Had Gone Too Far to Change.
Little Helen and Jack had grown up together, and when Jack finally outgrew dresses and donned his first trousers Helen insisted that she, too, be allowed to have a pair. But Jack said: "No, you don't, either, 'cause you started out to be a girl and you've got to keep it up."—Chicago Tribune.

Poor Provider.
An old negro in Texas was asked if he was going to register. He wished to know how he would have to proceed. On being told that he had to swear to support the constitution, his eyes widened, and, drawing a long breath, he said he couldn't do it, because he couldn't support himself.

Pastime for Youth Only.
A sixty-two-year-old Sydney man is dead as a result of injuries received while trying to "skin the cat," after watching his grandson perform the feat. "Skinning the cat" is one of the most fascinating of youthful pastimes, but let us remember, as we contemplate our gray hairs, that it is a youthful pastime only, and govern ourselves with commensurate dignity.

Chinese Settlement in Paris.
Paris now has a Chinese settlement, which is both law-abiding and picturesque. The first families arrived a year ago, and now one hotel shelters fifty-three Chinese in five rooms. The men are mostly engaged in making toys, which the women and children sell throughout the city.

Look Forward.
Who can see the brilliancy of character attained by individuals of our race without feeling that there is a pledge in this that what has been done already in the individual will yet be accomplished in the nation and the race?—F. W. Robertson.

Unpleasant Task Laid on Him.
The farmer's son came home looking as if he had been through a tornado. His father inquired the cause. The son replied: "It's that darn correspondence school again. I got a letter from the sophomores telling me to haze myself."

Require Only Small Outfit.
The active Arab barbers require only a pair of scissors, a pair of clip pers, and a razor for their equipment. They erect their temporary shops in the market-places by spreading some matting over a few poles. Arabs have their heads shaved, keeping the hair short so that the white skull cap over which the fez is worn will fit closely.

Only Once?
Excerpt from an interview with a visitor to town, printed in an exchange: "The velocity of time and the friction of years will never erase the pleasure of this visit. The many pleasant rides and kisses from my once sweet girl friends will ever linger with me."

Why He Sought Solitude.
African Explorer (dumbfounded)—"What, you, Clarence Vere de Vere in the heart of darkest Africa! What in the world are you doing here?" Clarence Vere de Vere—"I'm wearing the necktie Miss Darling gave me for Christmas. I promised her I would, you know!"—Puck.

Make Your Own Paint—
When You Paint

Use PURE Paint and Use Pure LINSEED OIL to add to it at one-third the cost of Paint.

PURE PAINT is made with WHITE LEAD, ZINC and LINSEED OIL—that's the way the L. & M. SEMI-MIXED REAL PAINT is made.

But ALL the OIL needful to make the L. & M. PAINT ready for use is NOT put into the Paint when it's prepared for the Consumer who buys it.

The ADDITIONAL quantity of OIL is put into the Paint by the CONSUMER, as by so doing he SAVES MONEY. Therefore—buy 3 gallons of LINSEED OIL with every 4 gallons of L. & M. PAINT and MIX the OIL with the PAINT.

If the Paint thus made costs more than $1.50 per gallon—
If the Paint as you use it is not perfectly satisfactory—
Then return whatever you have not used, and get back ALL you paid for the WHOLE of it, and besides, the money you paid to the Painter.

Situation Sized Up.
The young girl had been engaged as an amanuensis by a society woman. She discovered that nearly every day the husband and wife had a quarrel, so she gave notice that she was going to leave. "Why?" inquired the lady, in surprise. "Oh, you don't need an amanuensis, madam," replied the girl. "What you want is a war correspondent."

Science Pursues Criminal.
Ultra-violet rays used while photographing a forged check are said to render detection absolutely certain. The forger uses a chemical ink eraser to remove some portion of the writing, but even though this be done so skillfully as to defy detection, under a high-power magnifying glass the rays reveal in the photograph a heavy smudge where the erasure occurred.

THE BUDDHIST HADES.

Eight Easy Stages of the Most Awful Kinds of Torture.

The places of torment to which all wicked Buddhists are to be assigned on the day of final reckoning is a terrible place of punishment. This Buddhist hell is divided into eight "easy stages."

In the first the poor victim is compelled to walk for untold ages in his bare feet over hills thickly set with red-hot needles, points upward. In the second stage the skin is all carefully filed or rasped from the body and irritating mixtures applied. In the third stage the nails, hair and eyes are plucked out and the denuded body saved and planed into all sorts of fantastic shapes. The fourth stage is that of "sorrowful lamentations." In the fifth the left side of the body and the denuded head are carefully roasted, Yema, the Buddhist Satan, superintending the work. In the sixth stage the arms are torn from the body and thrown into an immense vat among the eyes, nails and hair previously removed. Then in plain branding of the sore footed, blind, maimed, roasted and bleeding victim the whole horrid mass is pounded into a jelly. In the seventh stage the other side of the victim and his feet are roasted brown, and then comes the eighth and last stage, in which the candidate is thrown into the bottomless pit of perdition.

DEADLY MINE GASES.

White Damp, Firedamp, Black Damp and the Fearful After Damp.

"White damp is the gas most feared by the miners, for its properties render it difficult to detect, inasmuch as it is tasteless, odorless and colorless and when mixed in the proportion of about one part gas to nine parts air is called "firedamp" and becomes explosive to a degree hard to realize unless one has seen its effects.

Black damp, unlike white damp, is heavier than air, a nonexplosive gas which may be detected by its peculiar odor. Again, unlike the other, its effect is to suffocate and extinguish fire. This gas is so heavy and moves with such a sluggish flow that occasionally, when miners have been trapped in a mine following an explosion and have detected the black damp creeping in upon them by its smell, they have been able to stop its advance by erecting dams or barricades along the floor, building them higher as the volume of gas increased and keeping the air within their little inclosure comparatively clean by rude improvised fans.

Following an explosion, these two gases become mingled and form a mixed gas, possessing all the dreaded qualities of each, which is known as "after damp," and it is the mixture of gases which destroys any life that may remain following a mine disaster.—Atlantic Monthly.

Late Rising Birds.

A pair of singing birds had been advertised for sale.

"The property of a late rising family," the dealer stated.

"I wound up with that clause," he said, "so possible purchasers would not be scared off by the prospect of an unearthly chattering at 5 o'clock in the morning. Birds can be trained to keep any kind of hours. If they are brought up by a family of nightawks they learn to go to bed at midnight and get up at 9 a. m., along with the rest of the folks, but if they are tucked in right away after supper they wake up the neighborhood at a correspondingly early hour the next morning. It is advisable for any person who is likely to lie abed until noon to inquire into the early training of a bird before buying."—New York Sun.

American Golf.

Certainly you are in good luck as a golfer if you go to America at all, for they are gloriously hospitable in that land, and, so far as I could see, the idea that some have here—that the American's notion of the object of playing a game is purely to win it, not to enjoy the playing—is perfectly mistaken. I never had the impression more strongly anywhere of being in the company of men who were playing the game for pleasure, not for the mere sake of winning the match. But then it is certainly true, as I heard one of their judges (I mean a legal judge, though he was a judge of golf, too) say in an after dinner speech that it is "the cleanest sport in America."—Horace Hutchinson in London Telegraph.

The Voice of the People.

Lady John Russell visited Paris as a girl in 1830 and witnessed the somewhat artificial enthusiasm for Louis Philippe, who had just been placed on the throne by the revolution. "It is said," we are told, "that any small boy in those days could exhibit the king to curious sightseers by raising a cheer outside the Tuilleries windows, when his majesty, to whom any manifestation of enthusiasm was extremely precious, would appear automatically upon the balcony and bow."

One Formality.

"Oh, joy! She has written a letter saying she will marry me," "Congratulations. When?" "Well—er—you see her father has to endorse this promissory note before it's good."—Cleveland Leader.

How Ma Resembled Him.

"Tommy, you don't take after your father much, do you?" "No, ma'am. But, gee, you ought to see the way ma does sometimes!"—Exchange.
