Mrs. E. Y. Ferrell and children went to Burlington Tuesday to visit her mother.

Mr. J. G. Tingen left Mebane last week for Holly Springs where he will spend the summer.

Mr. Fred Wilson of Chapel Hill spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Morgan.

Mr. Glenn Scott has returned home from Atlanta, Ga., where he attended the Atlanta Dental College.

Mr. Marion Nicholson of Elon College visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholson Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. A. V. Craig and daughter Miss Mabel Craig of Asheville are visiting Mrs. W. S. Crawford and Mrs. U. S. Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murphy were called to Winston-Salem Saturday on account of the illness of Mrs. Murphy's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith and family have recently moved from South Mebane to one of the new Nicholson houses on North 3rd street.

Miss Lizzie Watkins returned to her home in Henderson Saturday morning. She has been teaching at the Graded School the past eight months.

Mrs. Blaylock and son, Mr. Henry Blaylock of Bushy Fork, stopped at the home of Mrs. J. M. Rimmer Sunday, on their way to Burlington.

Mr. W. E. White after an absence of several months in the interest of the White Furniture Co., returned home the latter part of the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cheek, Miss Lillie and Della Fowler, and Miss Jennie White went down to the Hawfields commencement Friday night. The commencement was fine.

Hawfields Cooking Class captured the Cook Stove prize at the County commencement, also a fifty dollar prize for the most improvement in school building and grounds.

A party of young people from Greensboro spent Sunday in Mebane with Mrs. A. N. Scott. Those in the party were, Misses Helen and Lucile Pickard, Eva Aiken and Lillian Watson, Messrs. Clifton Sutton and Rosser Clark.

Don't forget the Flower Show for the fall, a good many ladies are ordering chrysanthemums and daisies and we want as many contestants as possible so order your plants at once and be ready to win one of the handsome prizes to be offered.

Don't fail to read the change of ad of Nelson Dry Goods Co., in this issue, you will find something attractive in it.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Waraen, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Warren and Mr. W. Y. Malone spent Sunday at Corbett.

Miss Margaret Clegg of Graham, has excellent taste in her arrangement of her millinery display, she has a beautiful line of goods and will be glad to have you call and see them.

Mrs. D. C. Thompson and daughter, Miss Ruth Thompson of Orlando, Fla., are visiting Mrs. Hettie Scott. Miss Thompson expects to spend several weeks in Mebane, Mrs. Thompson will only be here a few days.

You will be surprised and pleased if you call at the Mebane Supply Co., Friday and examine their display of summer hats. Its a choice line they will have on exhibition.

We understand there is a bachelor in Mebane who is busy with building plans and other things essential in the preparation of a future home. He is quite willing to be roped in since he has been foot loose too long to please himself. He is a sensible fellow alright.

Misses Morrow and Bason, Inc of Burlington, places an attractive ad in today's issue calling attention to their summer display of millinery. It is needless to say it will be gratifying to any who may inspect their stock.

Orange Grove Items

Miss Pearl Crawford spent last week in Chapel Hill visiting relatives.

Miss Lois Cates is at home for a few days after spending sometime in Sumpter, S. C., and Burlington, N. C.

Miss Lula Roberson is visiting friends in Durham for a few days.

Mr. J. T. Davis has rheumatism but is able to be up and walk around.

Farmers are getting along nicely with their work but the cool weather will delay growing crops.

The commencement exercises at Orange grove were a success. The children showed that they had been trained, and the address by Prof. M. C. S. Noble was splendid. The play "Josiah's Courtship" was well presented and reflected credit on the actors and their trainers. The school has had a successful year, and the teachers won the friendship of all.

Miss Recie Crawford will leave this week for Philadelphia where she will attend the commencement exercises at the Woman's Hospital on May 20th Her sister Miss Annabel Crawford will graduate at that time.

Ofcourse you are a man, you wear men's clothing. There is no better place to buy them than at J. S. Clark's that is provided you want something nice that will wear well and satisfy you in the end.

Miss Emma Harris and Mrs. W. W. Corbett left for Jacksonville, Fla. Monday, where they expect to attend the Confederate Reunion which convenes there this week.
