

Foraker's Destruction

(Springfield Republican.)
The richness of the J. B. Foraker opposition to repeal of the canal tolls exemption isn't a sign of robust vitality in the opposition camp. The former Ohio senator's public influence was destroyed when he was exposed as the paid counsel in secret of the Standard Oil company while serving the state of Ohio in the United States senate.

Indigestion and Constipation.

"About five years ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets after suffering from indigestion and constipation for years without finding anything to relieve me. Chamberlain's Tablets helped me at once and by using them for several weeks I was cured of the complaint," writes Mrs. Mary E. McMullen, Phelps, N. Y. For sale by Mebane Drug Co.

A New Place

I have moved my barber-shop to the office of the old store of the Mebane Supply Co., on main street. I have had the shop fitted up the latest appliances and conveniences, hot and cold water, with a nice lavatory. Everything nice to please.

THE ART OF SELLING.

Real Salesmanship is a Light That Can't Be Obscured.

The boss wants lookers, because he knows the looker of today is the buyer of tomorrow and he wants to make the lookers feel that his store is "the best place to trade," which is only another way of saying that it is the best place to do one's looking. He also knows that the looker of today can sometimes be converted into a buyer before the day is over. All he requires to accomplish what he desires is salesmanship among his salespeople.

Does he get it? Not from all of them. If he did there would be less need for commissions to inquire laboriously into the relation between shopgirls' wages and shopgirls' chastity, for real salesmanship will get the money wherever it is practiced and by whomsoever it is practiced. Real salesmanship is one light that can't be hidden under a bushel. It's a light that can't be obscured. It's a light that will shine above department heads and floorwalkers and reach clear up to "the old man" in his private office, if you keep it burning long enough.

What is salesmanship? No one quite knows. But if you will take care of the lookers, if you will make all the lookers pleasantly remember what you showed them and how you showed it to them when they were merely looking, you will have mastered one very important branch of retail salesmanship.—Collier's Weekly.

SPEED OF GAME BIRDS.

The Hazel Hen Said to Be a Wonder in a Short Spurt.

What is the fastest game bird that flies? Of course, in seeking an answer to the question, as a writer in the Scotsman points out, one must assume equal conditions of atmosphere and cause for flight, for all creatures, human or other, seek their highest rate of speed under the influence of fear.

A recent writer declares that in a race of, say, 200 yards he would back a bird which, though not found in Britain, is indigenous to most of the rest of Europe and is especially familiar in Scandinavia—the hazel hen or gell-nette.

Yet, curiously enough, this is one of the forest haunting birds which, like the American "fool hen," usually fly up into a tree when flushed and, rejecting further attempts at escape, elect to be shot sitting. "But," says the writer referred to above, "on the rare occasions (and that they are rare I readily admit) when one catches a gell-nette in the open I have never seen any bird fly so fast nor move its wings with such extraordinary rapidity."

Next to it at any rate one must surely place the teal, which has a marvelous knack of getting under way quickly. Some experienced observers would give the third place to a blurock pigeon—the wild, not the Hurlingham variety.

Inflammable Celluloid.

Celluloid, being first cousin of gun-cotton and closely related to nitro-glycerin, is highly inflammable and should never be brought in close proximity to a flame. Celluloid is a compound of cellulose or vegetable fibrine, reduced by acids to gun-cotton. Cellulose is found in all vegetable life, particularly in young plants. It is a starchlike substance. Cotton fiber is principally cellulose. After the cotton fiber is cleaned it is submerged in acids, which quickly reduce it to cellulose in the form of a thick, pasty, semi-transparent mass. Camphor is added further to thicken it, and the required coloring matter is thoroughly mixed in, after which the celluloid is molded by heat and pressure into various useful and ornamental objects, such as combs, boxes, pens, paper cutters, ornaments, etc.—New York World.

Learn to Write Well.

First legibility, second sightliness should be the endeavor in handwriting and let the "character" and the "individuality" take care of themselves. If you wish to devise a signature hard to forge that is another thing, but one's everyday handwriting should be plain and as good looking as one can make it. The art of writing a neat, legible, well punctuated, correctly expressed and spelled letter should be long to every high school graduate, much more to every college graduate, and the thanks of the community are due to those who are testing and trying to improve our methods of education; but they must remember that the letter style is properly more loose and conversational than any other and therefore should not be criticised in just the same way.—Kate Upson Clark in Leslie's.

Within the Law.

A real negro mammy of the old type came up the walk through the old-fashioned garden to the side porch. She had a basket of "fresh aigs" on her arm and was offering them for sale.

"Are you sure they are perfectly fresh, auntie?" asked the lady who came out of the house.

"Yes'um, they sho is all right, Miss Bess. Ain't nary disorderly ail amongst 'em."—New York Post.

Exclusiveness.

The pinhead puts a barbed wire fence around himself because he instinctively knows he's a fourflusher and is afraid you'll find it out if you get too close.—Indianapolis Star.

The Main Point.

Crummer—I see that a woman was killed in the crush at a bargain counter yesterday. Mrs. Crummer—Dear me; what bargains were for sale?—Puck.

Adversity borrows its sharpest sting from our impatience.—Horne.
