The death of Nelson P. Aldrich of Rhode Island removes a once very conspicuous figure from American politics, a man of large brain, and powerful influence. Mr. Aldrich for a while prior to retiring from the senate of the United States largely dominated that body. But it was Mr. Aldrich that struck his party its death blow. The party under Mr. Taft's administration had been returned to power upon a pledge to reduce the tariff. Mr. Aldrich backed by the high tariff element, was the dominant figure on the committee to revise the tariff. Mr. Aldrich took it upon himself to revise it upward, advancing too high, in the interest of the protectionist, and the people revolted, and elected Wilson.

The great hurrah now being kicked up because of the stopping of so many cotton mills due primarily to the impossibility of securing German dyes, is a fault of the American people because they would not equip themselves to make the dyes, forsooth because this government did by a prohibitory tariff enable them to acquire a large percent in their manufactures. We have raised a cane over here asserting we wanted a high tariff to protect our labor from the products of the cheap labor of Europe. Now labor defiantly demands its share and some times more than its share of the results of this beneficent tariff.

The sudden and unexpected death of Col. A. B. Andrews at Raleigh Saturday night last was an event of unusual sadness. It has cast a shadow of sorrow and regret over the entire State and far beyond its borders, for he was well and favorably known over the entire Eastern slope. His death becomes a distinctive loss to a large number of business associates, and in fact all who have had intercourse with him whether in his official capacity or upon friendly relations. He has been a power for good in North Carolina, and an estimate of his great work will only be reached now since he has stopped his labors. The press of the State with small exception entertained and feel affection an regard for him. His courteous and considerate regard for it was ever manifest. He builded well, and North Carolina is richer and greater from every standpoint because he lived, labored and died a citizen of this State.

Germany is deeply interested in what the Japanese are doing at Turtle Bay on the West Coast of Mexico, is the glaring headlines of a telegram, and so it is, Germany would be deeply interested in anything that might hurt this government. Germany is the Ishmealite of the nations of the world, her hand is against every nation that refuses to permit her to dominate them. They are seemingly the descendants of the stragling remnants of the armies, of the Goths, the Huns and the Vandals. Her cruelty a little more refined but equally as brutal. Germany could build a pyramid of human skull from the innocently slain Belgians, victims of her infernal rapacity, her grasping greed.

DESPIASABLE FABRICATORS

There is no nation that has engaged in war since the creations dawn whose attitude towards her enemies, and the world at large has been more contemptible, more despicable, more cruel, and brutal butchery than has the Germans. They seem lost to every instinct of honest manliness. No one with good sense expects war a play thing, a kind of interchange of diplomatic courtesies, and the amenities of life. People who think know that war is like Sherman said it was, it is hell, but the Germans have sought, and found a deeper, a darker, a more lurid hell, a more damnable hell, a hell so infamous, so cruel, that Satan could not find its counterpart by searching the archives of the infernal abode of the damned. No one ever dreamed that on earth there ever dwelt a people so lost to every instinct of humanity as the Germans are proving them selves to be. They are not only cruel and brutal, but they are proving to be the most consummate liars on earth, and many of those who undertake to defend them lie to do so. It is the only way they can defend them.

Germany began her infamous piratical and murderous warfare on the high seas by offering as her excuse for it that England was about to starve her civic population, she did this after forcibly seizing every pound of food stuff and putting it under Government supervision, to be dispensed as the imperial government desired to dispense it, it now turns out that Germany has food sufficient to last her population for twelve months hence.

A representative of The World finds that Germany, while husbanding its food, is in no danger of starvation; that it has supplies for at least one year and that the promise of big crops this season is excellent. He also heard in Germany itself that the bread cry was raised in order to compel neutrals to hasten to the relief of the empire.

And there you get Germanys game in a nut shell. If England who has a very superior navy had announced to the world that she would send every one of her battleships to some port and then keep them there until the war ended then perhaps, and only perhaps Germany, might not have so thoroughly mined the high seas, or sought with her submarines to make war upon helpless merchantman, and sinking them, some times with a load of innocent human freight, at least maliciously destroying all the property they could find undefended on land and on sea. Germany is the scourge of hell, the sirocco from the blast of the furnaces of perdition, the most infamous power existing. This fact will be proven before the war is ended.

A Farewell

Look, Love! I lay my wistful hand in thine
A little while before you seek the dark,
Untraversed ways of war and its reward,
I cannot bear to lift my gaze and mark
The gloried light of hopeful, high emprise
That like a bird already poised for flight,
Has walked within your eyes.
For me no proud illusions point the road.
No fancied flowers strewn the paths of strife;
War only wears a horrid, hydra face,
Mocking at strength and courage, youth and life.
If you were going forth to cross your sword
In fair and open, man-to-man affair,
One might be even reconciled and say,
"This is not murder; only passion bent
On pouring out its poison"—one could pray
That the day's end might see the madness done
And saner souls rise with the morrow's sun,
But this incarnate hell that yawns before
Your bright brave soul keyed to the fighter's clench—
This purgatory that men call the "trench"—
This modern "Black Hole" of a modern war!
Yea, Lord! yet naught I say can save you, so
I lay my heart in yours and let you go —Edna Mead, in N. Y. Times.

To the man who is always waiting for something to turn up, success is always just around the corner of the next street.

Rheumatism Yields Quickly to Sloan's

You can't prevent an attack of Rheumatism from coming on, but you can stop it almost immediately. Sloan's Liniment gently applied to the sore joints or muscle penetrates in a few minutes to the inflamed spot that causes the pain. It soothes the hot, tender, swollen feeling, and in a very short time brings relief that is almost unbelievable until you experience it. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25c. of any Druggist and have it in the house—against Colds, Sore and Swollen Joints, Lumbago, Sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.

Changing a Name's Spelling.

Many have changed their names of late, but no surname probably has undergone so many alterations as that of Sir Harry Stapleton Malinwaring. At Peover hall, his Cheshire home, there is a record showing the different ways in which the name has been spelled in the course of the centuries. They number 394, says the London Chronicle. Shakespeare can beat the 394 different ways of spelling Malinwaring, and quite easily, too. In 1869 a diligent American published a volume showing that the poet's name could be spelled in 4,000 different ways. And the name of his father actually appears under 16 different spellings in the council books of Stratford, and Shakespeare himself had no settled convictions on the subject.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS! ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and Doesn't Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile creates a coating which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It's harmless; doesn't gripe and they like it pleasant taste.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful at night and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick. I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It's harmless; doesn't gripe and they like it pleasant taste.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill. I wish every suffering woman would give
