THURSDAY, MAY, 20TH, 1915

While it is entirely too early in the season to make any safe prediction about crops, still if weather conditions continues as favorable as recently there is every reason to believe that this year will be a good crop year. It looks well for corn, tobacco and wheat. If one thing is unfavorable for us may be there will be others that will be in our favor to make up for it.

If the Germans wish to make it appear that they have a plenty, they can take correspondents of leading dailies over there and convince them, that they have a plenty and to spare for several years, and then when they want to put up the plea that their civilian population is starving and they must drown a few hundred on the high seas to bring England to her senses, they go about the work just as if they had not lied somewhere, and lied much about it.

In as much as most of all the European resorts will be closed this summer, it would seem that American resorts would be crowded, and we are much inclined to believe that business will be very much better at resorts in this country this summer. Those in the mountains and those on the sea coast ought to have very much increased patronage. If the managers of these resorts will go after the business they will get it.

We would like to see the old Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City full as in the days gone by. Why not.

If after Mr. Wilson had framed his demand upon Germany for the sinking of the Lusitania and her cargo of America citizens he had appended this ultimatum, that if Germany had not by the hour of noon on the 20th day of May given guarantees and assurance that America demands should be respected and fully met in every detail, then the President of the United States would proceed without further notice to use such power and authority enjoined and conferred upon him to that extent necessary to carry in to effect and make such demand an effective force.

And Sign it Bryan
This would have brought results.

We should organize a trade at home society, or club, and then work diligently to that end. It is hard to conceive of how much money is lost to a community by their citizens buying goods and wares from distant mail order houses. The parcel post and the express office tells the tale. Thousands and thousands of dollars go out of each community annually to enrich the big mail order houses of the North and West, and it goes to pay for goods that could be purchased from home merchants at far more satisfactory prices than are paid for them, besides to buy at home, you get a chance to get some of the money back again. If you send it to the mail order houses it goes beyond your reach forever. Stick by home institutions. We often hear men preaching this same doctrine and then send off for job work that their home office would do as cheap and better. Be loyal to your home institution or quit talking about it.

We have some good, brave patriotic people in America, some whose ardent love of country makes them stand ever ready to support this Government in what ever emergency it may be placed, and then there are those who have become so commercialized, such devout worshippers of the almighty dollar, that no affront to this government however flagrant, no wrong however unjust, or serious would excite in them the slightest degree of resentment. Let it go they say, the sinking of a few hundred people on the Lusitania by the Germans, is a matter of but little consequence, the fact is they had no business to have been on the lines, in fact they were warned to keep off. This is in substance the utterance of a leading North Carolina daily, but if the man who once stood sponsor for its editorial utterances had been here you would have seen no such stuff in his paper, pity it is, but such is the case. The whines of the commercial grafter who cares nothing for country save as it makes it possible for them to get hold of the almighty dollar. If this crowd was in the saddle, or some with similar sentiments, well might the lovers of the home of the brave and free hang their heads in shame. The United States has fought several wars, but she was never more justifiable in reeking a wrong, in calling and insult than she has in the murder of her citizens on the Lusitania. That is all there is to it. Now wait and see what Germany will have to do to show her contempt for America and her institution. Look out for more wrongs.

Make Your Mother Happy

By Request
Children, make your mother happy; Make her sing instead of sigh, For the mournful hour of parting May be very, very nigh.

Children, make your mother happy; Many griefs she has to bear, And she wearies'neath her burdens Can you not those burdens share?

Children, make your mother happy; Prompt obedience cheers the heart; While a wilful disobedience Pierces like a poison dart.

Children, make your mother happy; On her brow the lines of care Deeper daily, don't you see them? While your own are smooth and fair.

Children, make your mother happy; For beneath the coffin-lid All too soon her face, so saint-like, Shall forevermore be laid.

Bitter tears and self-upbraiding Can not bring her back again; And remorseful recollections Are a legacy of pain.

Oh, begin to-day, dear children, Listen when your mother speaks; Tender, quick, and sweet obedience, For your highest good she seeks.

She loves you better than all others, For your sake herself denies; Always patient, prayerful, tender, Ever thoughtful, true, and wise.

Remember while you live, dear children Should you search the rounded earth, You'll never find a friend more faithful Than the one who gave you birth.

Some Forms of Rheumatism Curable

Rheumatism is a disease characterized by pains in the joints and in the muscles. The most common forms are: Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Rheumatic Headaches, Sciatic Rheumatism and Lumbago. All of these types can be helped absolutely by applying some good liniment that penetrates. An application of Sloan's Liniment two or three times a day to the affected part will give instant relief. Sloan's Liniment is good for pain, and especially Rheumatic Pain, because it penetrates to the seat of the trouble, soothes the affected part and draws the pain. "Sloan's Liniment is all medicine. Get a 25c. bottle now. Keep it handy in case of emergency."

White Man With Black Liver

The Liver is a blood purifier. It was thought at one time it was the seat of the passions. The trouble with most people is that their Liver becomes black because of impurities in the blood due to bad physical states, causing Biliousness, Headache, Dizziness and Constipation. Dr. King's New Life Pills will clean up the Liver, and give you new life. 25c. at your Druggist.
