ITS A GOOD THING

It is a good thing for the North Carolina insurance department to do what it can and all it can to encourage precaution against fire losses. To do all it can to have people avoid the risk from which fire results, but would it not be equally commendable in commissioner Young to try his hand at seeing the people were not imposed upon so badly, through high rates on insurance.

Of course we know it cost big money to pay for the enormous marble palaces that insurance companies do business in, and we know it takes big money to pay the high salaries of their officials, but has all this and more too got to be paid for before the public can be given a square deal by the insurance companies. Mr. Young had duties before the last legislature as a body, and duties in the interest of a long suffering people who are imposed upon by high and unjust insurance rates. Did he discharge them? The insurance companies agree to give you a very low rate of insurance if you will equip your factory with the latest devices for extinguishing fire by a system of pipes conveying water to every portion of your building, at a cost approximation eight or ten thousand dollars, after you have done that then they demand that you carry a very large insurance so they may still get the commission in big batches.

It is fortunate for this country that the Editor of the Charlotte Observer has not the ear and confidence of President Wilson if he did he would soon Germanize this country, or at least make tremendous efforts to do so.

The Womens Suffragist in their Congressional Union at Washington are doing a lot of howling about the unrest among farm women. Why bless your soul honey there is unrest every where. There is unrest among the men, the girls, and even among the babies, there is unrest in Europe, in Africa, in Japan, in China, and even in America. There is no such thing as rest. There is ever present in people and country, a longing for the unattainable, when all wishes are satisfied the suffragist will be out of a job. A lot of short haired women, assisted by a lot of long haired men are striving to foist upon the pure and good, upon the only element that has kept the world from going to hades, a lot of isms and ideals totally at variance with every sentiment of right, solely to meet the whims, and caprices of a few misfit he's unsexed, and parading in womens garb, a curse and a blight to race and country.

God give us more women who think the future of their baby boy is of infinitely more importance, than is the affections of a poodle, or pug who trails at their heels, or travels in their their mistresses arms. Give us women with hearts and conscious that lifts to the pure love of mother and home, and keep us away from the loud mouthed shams that masquerade as suffragist, whose siren songs are but the lullaby of womens wreck and ruin.

NO CAUSE TO FIGHT

Germany commenced preparing thirty years ago for the war she is fighting to day, a war of her own making. It was Germanys deplomacy, and her agents that forced Austria there ally to declare war against the Serbs. Germany immediately after this fire brand became a blazing torch started her cut throat legions through Belgium on their way to capture the French capital, but the Belgium much contrary to their expectation blocked their way at Antwerp, which gave the French long enough time to collect their forces, to meet the invader, Had it not been for these brave little Belgians the German forces would in all probability have been in Paris to day.

Germany had no cause to fight save one of cruel greed, and insatiate thirst for dominion. All this trouble caused by the European war is directly traceable to Germanys militarism to the brutal Emperor of Germany. England would have had nothing to do with it had it not been for Germanys disregard of Belgiums neutrality. The Germans regarded a solemn compact made to respect Belgiums neutrality as a scrap of paper. When England declared war she did it solely on account of the Germans treatment of Belgium, for she reasoned well that a nation which had no more regard for its word, and its honor, a nation that was manifesting more elements of cruelty than had ever been known in modern times, should be curbed ere they reached that point in which they would over ride the more conservative civilization of the world, and dominate other powers as she had dominated Belgium.

All the oceans of blood, and all the wilful waste and destruction of the splendid buildings, the architectural dreams of the best builders centuries ago, and all the hell that is raised in Europe and elsewhere to day is the realization of the hideous dream, the ghastly ghost of death that haunted the mind of this monster, mid-day and night for forty years. The press of the world that long ago predicted that the day would come when Emporer Williams of Germany would prove the scourge of the world, the fanged monster of hate, cruelty and heartless infamy seemed to know what it was talking about. He is trying to rear upon the walls of true democracy the ghostly gallows of a military moloch.

IT MAKES US WEARY

It makes us weary, very weary to listen to the tomy rot emanating from the lips of the famous or infamous Austrian Baron Barian in his explanation and complaint of Italys severing her connection with the tripple alliance. The Baron pretends to think it that Italy is doing an awful and unholy thing to sever her connection from this gang of cut throats, and adventurers whose invasion of portions of Europe constitutes the blackest and bloodiest page ever written in ancient or modern history. Did the Baron ever think of how Germany, one of the members of the tripple alliance treated Belgium. After pledging to protect her neutrality. Germany invades Belgium laying waste to her cities, murdering her citizens outraging, and maiming her woman and mutilating her children and trying to crush out every patriotic impulse that throbbed in the hearts and souls and moved these brave people to dare and die. Burn down and destroy Germany with fire and sword, and plow through the ashes of her destroyed cities, sow the thorns and weeds of sorrow and the world will be satisfied, but not until.

What is the matter with Bickett? Is he not all right? We think so, and believe he would make North Carolina a good Governor. Why not nominate him, and elect him, we believe he would put out of practice that method so recently adopted of letting leading politicians run his office. We wonder how many appointments to state official position that Governor Craig has made without first asking the losses what they thought about it. We need a man for Governor with some independence of character, some scruples of right of his own by which he would be governed, one who can do things without consulting the bosses.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst. I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework. I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off. I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it. After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely. I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether." Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution. Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy. Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.
