People should be diligent in acquiring information for preserving their health and prolonging life.

We suppose all that is necessary to do with Bryan is to sit still and let him talk himself to death. This seems the inevitable if he keeps on.

Cotton seems to be climbing a bit now, we hope it will go right on up because, the price can have nothing what ever to do with affecting the acreage now, that matter is settled.

It now seems pretty certain that Greece will enter the European war against the Germans and Austrians, but my, it looks as if it is going to take the whole world combined to whip them.

Mr. Bryan is doing a lot of hurrahing about peace, it amuses him, but what other purpose. The Germans care no more for what he says about it than they do about the barking of Bryans dauch hund, Bryans hyphen.

The Chicago street car strike argues bad for our national law makers. There is a way to avoid these big tie ups which paralyzes the business of our large cities, and inflicts irreparable injury and wrong to so many innocent sufferers, and like war, a strike don't pay, they cost too much, arbitration would settle them.

What good purpose is the Germans accomplishing in their submarine warfare it would be difficult to answer. It is not weakening England, and the allies is quite true, but they are wilfully and maliciously destroying an immense amount of valuable property, for absolutely no purpose.

It is now stated that Mr. Bryan secretly sent to Canada a couple of months past $500.00 to be donated to interned Germans it turns out that there are no such Germans in Canada, so it is not known what he instructed should be done with this money, that the Belgians so sorely needed, and whose needs were created by the Germans.

There was one hundred and eighty one applicants for license to practice medicine at the State medical board meeting at Greensboro last Wednesday. Of the number applying twenty nine failed. This is more than one hundred and fifty new doctors for North Carolina. They are expected to settle, and practice some where, and necessarily their living must be made from the sick and suffering. We have got to have them but do we need them, is a question.

Possibly it is permissible for a nation to lie while it is at war, but it seems a notorious fact that the Germans have had the least respect for the truth during the present war than any nation has shown in our day. There is one big lie they have told, as times goes on that seems the least excuseable. For instance they claim that their submarine warfare is due to England's starving her civic population. There is not a word of truth in the statement, in fact it has been proven that Germany is better supplied with food than any other nation at war in Europe. If it were true that England was trying to starve them she would be doing no more than has been done by warring nations for centuries.

Why don't Germany hire a number of assassins, a lot of thugs and cut throats and send them to England to do her bloody work to get rid of England's official. There is just as much excuse for one act as there is for the other. There is nothing in the catalogue of crimes, of infamous crimes that Germany is now hesitating at. It is to make war so frightful, so hideous that she hopes to bend the nations of the world subservient to her military despotism, and she hopes by lying continually to create a favorable sentiment among neutrals to her course. Germany's reckless sinking of merchantman reminds one of a blind dog with the rabbiess on the war paths.

We Shall Know

Sometimes we feel the pressure of a hand,
Sometimes we catch a call from out the deep,
And then, nor years, nor time, tide, sea nor land,
Our own from us can keep?
Sometimes we feel upon our fevered brow
A hand laid in the stillness of the night
As tho' 'twere someone come back from the dead
To put our fears to flight.
Sometimes among the shadows dim we seem
To see the radiant outlines of a face—
Whence the illusion is or whence the gleam or light—and who shall trace?
Sometimes when all things seem our soul to try—
The while the burden borne seems all too much—
When depth abyssmal do before us lie,
Who stays with a touch?
Ah! who shall tell it, call it what ye will,
An angel, God of Allah—even so,
Yet some time, when those tongues of curs are still,
These hearts of ours shall know,
—Albert Frank Hoffman, in American Israelite.

SEEDS AND DOLLARS

Seed that is not planted does not grow. Dollars that are not banked do not increase. No farmer is so foolish as to think that a paper bag of watermelon seeds hanging from the rafters, will ever grow until he planted it. Yet are you not expecting those dollars in that bureau drawer will grow without banking them? Dead seeds and dead dollars brings no returns.

ON BRINK OF KILAUEA

TOURIST TELLS OF A VISIT TO FAMOUS VOLCANO.

Finds It Not Just Back of City Hall, as He Had Supposed, but is Forced to Admit It Was Worth Seeing.

I had always thought that Kilauea, the largest active volcano in the world, was just back of the city hall in Honolulu, but when I got to Honolulu I found that a person has to get on a boat and ride all day and night to the island where the volcano has secreted itself, says a writer in Leslie's Weekly. Instead of having to climb a towering cone with one of those alpenstocks they have in the chocolate advertisements, all we had to do was to sit still and be whirled clear to the crater. The only one in sight was one with ice cream inside it. On the way to the crater I tried to give sharp, penetrating glances at the rock formations so that when people asked me what kind of trees, shrubs, and flowers grow along the way, and how many eruptions there had been, I could tell them, but for the life of me I couldn't look outside. I couldn't keep my eyes off the newly married couple and the man from Berlin, who kept his caters open with the bulb dangling ready any moment to snap something for his "My Trip Abroad." The newly married couple cared nothing for flowers or how many disturbances there had been. He was more interested in knowing if she was happy, and she in throes of keeping his tie straight.

"Kilauea crater!" called the chauffeur, as if announcing a station, while I marveled at the luxury of going to see a volcano. All around was a deep, rich-looking, black mud all tumbled up as if an unseen hand as big as a state had squeezed it out between its fingers in rich, black streams, then gone on to a new toy. It looked as if we were going to step into 40 acres of gumbo, but instead of being rich, first bottom mud a few steps out showed it hard volcanic rock.

Watching until the wind lifted we would edge in to the crater rim and peer over, down into the heaving depths. We could see nothing, when suddenly the smoke would rise, and down in the blackness of a million nights would come a glimmering light, wavering and feeling, like a man with a lantern coming around the corner, beams reaching out and fingering the way. With numbers lending courage the lanes of light would gather and spring up in a flare, would come tumbling and rolling up the sides as if the lava were seeking freedom while the guarding smoke nodded.

The light would shoot and reach blindly for a moment, to be suddenly cut off, as if massive firemen were coaling the world, shutting their doors behind every shoveful. Behind all, under all, came a snapping and a snarling, not like the complaint of waves, but like the charging of a caged lioness; a frenzied, trapped animal defiance. Just as silence was beginning to burden and one's heart ached for the lioness, light for a thousand temples would leap and a growling would come as if the creature were climbing the very sides.

Standing on the brink and peering down into the boiling bottom, one trembles and fear lays hold of him lest he go crashing, but when one stands long with only a few inches for shelter a wild desire comes to leap over. Only does the shout of a companion bring one to a realization, and then one turns guiltily away.

Humorist's Favorite Joke.

Irvin S. Cobb, who has recently added war correspondence to his humorous achievements, writes: "Searching back in my mind, I'm inclined to think my favorite joke is the little story of the large, slow-footed darky who was leaning against the corner of the railroad station in a Texas town when the noon whistle in the canning factory blew and the hands hurried out, bearing their grub buckets. The darky listened, with his head on one side, until the rocketing echo had quite died away. Then he heaved a deep sigh and remarked to himself:

"Dar she go. Dinner time fur some folks—but jes' twelve o'clock fur me!" "I like that story because it is short, because there is pathos under the laugh—as there always should be to make the laugh go better—and because there is a certain philosophy bound up in it which is not only Afro-American but American."

Activities of Women.

The Woman's City club of Boston has nearly 3,000 members. Woman suffrage is proving to be an ally of prohibition. Nearly 10,000 women are employed as bookkeepers in Chicago. The death rate among females is lower than that of males. Female clerks in Chile are paid salaries of $20 per month, with a commission on their sales, which in some cases runs the salary to as high as $100 per month. Women in the habit of using rouge and face powder will have to pay more for their complexion now since the war has caused French manufacturers to increase their prices. Any woman who can cook is eligible to take the examination for the position of specialist in home economics for which the United States government is willing to pay $3,500 a year salary.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Is Harmless To Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels.
Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.
Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out" if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight on my guarantee.
Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.
I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.
