The 4th of July

Will as usual be observed in Mebane, and while we shall have to celebrate the 3rd instead of the 4th as the 4th comes on Sunday, the day will be observed in Mebane with its usual fun and frolic. There will be baseball games, motorcycle races, etc. Come and have a good time as you all ways do at Mebane. Remember Saturday July 3rd.

The Mebane-Ralph Wedding is Solemnized.

A charmingly simple home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mebane on 6th street Friday afternoon when their only daughter, Fannie, became the bride of William T. Ralph. Promptly at 4 o'clock Miss Frances Gilliland, Greensboro, sang very sweetly "I Love You Truly." As the notes of the familiar Lohengrin's wedding march sounded under the skillful fingers of Miss Edna Gilliland, the two little flower girls Dilsey Tarpley and Frances Spruill entered, wearing white dresses and carrying baskets of beautiful pink and white sweet peas.

Then came Dr. William T. Ralph with his best man Dr. H. G. Ralph. The ring bearer, little Miss Helen Spruill, followed by the bride with her maid of honor Miss Linnie Gilliland in a charming gown of white net with blue girdle and pink picture hat carrying Killarney roses. The officiating clergyman was Dr. F. M. Hawley, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who used the impressive ring ceremony.

The brides gown was a beautiful traveling suit of gray, with hat, gloves and shoes to match, and she carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph left on the afternoon train for Belhaven their future home.

The bride is a very popular young lady and greatly admired by her friends. Dr. Ralph is a dentist and is well known in Mebane, having spent several years here.

Reception.

The bridal party of Miss Fanny Mebane and Dr. William Ralph were entertained Thursday evening most delightfully, at the home of the brides parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mebane. The large home was made very attractive by the lovely flowers of the season.

After dainty refreshments were served the brides cake was cut. The button fell to Mr. Trace Mebane of Greensboro, Miss Edna Gilliland cut the wish bone and Miss Margaret Moore of Graham won the ring. The "key to happiness" was not found. Only the family and a few intimate friends were present.

The out guest were: Misses Linnie, Edna and Frances Gilliland of Greensboro. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gilliland of Greensboro, Mrs. T. M. Tarpley, Misses Bettie and Dilsey Tarpley of Spartanburg, S. C., Misses Ielena and Frances Spruill, and Miss Annie Ralph, Columbia, Miss Margaret Moore of Graham, Miss Lizzie Watkins, Henderson, Mr. Dave Mebane, Yanceyville, Mr. Trace Mebane, Greensboro.

B. B. Club

With Mrs. J. S. White as the charming hostess at her home East of Mebane. The Thursday afternoon Benefit Book club had one of the most delightful meetings of its summer series Thursday afternoon. After the current events and books discussion. The hostess served fruit, punch and ice cream.

Members present were: Mesdames, W. A. Murray, S. G. Morgan, J. E. White, J. R. Singleton, Charles Grant, and Miss Lenora Walker, Guest, J. M. Thompson, Felix Graves, W. W. Corbett, Arthur Scott, Holloman Misses Jessie White and Margaret millender.
