Unicago Traduces The South.

The Chicago Tribune, a journal which calls itself "The World's Greatest Newspaper," apropos of a lynch ing Georgia, launches this diatribe at

"The South is backward. It shames the United States by illiteracy and incompetence. Its hill men and poor whites, its masses of feared and bullied blacks, its ignorant and violent politicians, its rotten industrial conditions and its rotten social ideas exist in circumstances which disgrace the United States in the thought of Americans and in the opinion of foreig-

The South is half educated. It is a region of illiteracy, blatant self-righteousness, cruelty, and violence. Until it is improved by the invasion of better blood and better ideas it will remain a reproach and a danger to the American Republic."

Is Chicago in a position to throw stones! Has the Windy City nothing ington. to learn from the despised South? For Chicago to prate of "ignorance" and violent politicians" is, as certain Venetian gentleman once remarked, "hypocrisy against the devil." Can the South match Bath-House John and Hiney Dink? Has the South ever emual ted the Lorimer scandal? Yet Lorimer

Chicago has, through Lorimer, brought disgrace upon the politics of a nation; its municipal government has been sordid and corrupt; what did Chicago ever do in a constructive way to advance the political thinking of America or help forward-looking men to better things? Nothing at all; in in the realm of political construction Chicago has been as barren as a stretch alkali desert under a blazing sun. But look at little Galveston, a few years since stricken by one of the worst disasters in history; yet setting of the wrath of Nature but also to fashion a city government on a new art of city government made by the United States since the birth of the nation came out of the South.

What has Chicago done for Cook County, except to debauch its politics? The Illinois metropolis might well take a leaf out of the book of Fort Worth, Tex., which has so stimulated the good roads enthusiasm of Tarrant Co. that that jurisdiction has within two years invested $2,000,000 in improved highways, expended, not according to the methods of pork-tarrel politics, so well comprehended in Cook County, Details of the reported execution by but under the personal supervision, most eminent highway engineers in
