Carried to Hospital.

Mr. Will H. McDonald, recently of this city, was carried this week to Raleigh where he will receive treatment at the hospital for the Insane. Mr. McDonald came here some weeks ago and secured a position with the town as book keeper and secretary and treasurer.

He graduated some years ago from the University of this state and has filled positions of trust and importance. He had no trouble to make the bond required by the town and made a good impression when he first came here. After assuming the duties of his office he began at once to show signs of extreme nervousness, and it became noticeable that he was not normal in his manner and that there was some defect about him. He was finally asked by the authorities to give up his books, and it was then that he rapidly grew worse and imagined many things in his wild moments. His worst delusion was that he had been greatly imposed upon and that all the great men of the state would come to his assistance and get justice for him. It took the form of being almost a joke when he secured the services of one of the ablest Greensboro lawyers to come here in his interest, having made the lawyer believe there was a $300.00 fee in the case. When the able attorney arrived he found his client in the hands of friends who explained. The people sympathize greatly with the afflicted man and did all they could to assist him. It now appears that he has before been subject to these attacks of extreme nervousness and that he has rapidly recovered from former attacks. He has taken treatment before in the same institution where he was this time carried.

Mr. W. E. Merritt accompanied him to Raleigh. It should not be left unsaid that during all the work he did for the town he kept his books straight and was able to account for every cent of money he collected. There was not the slightest intimation of any intent on his part to do a wrong to any one.

Culpepper Revival Closed.

Three splendid services last Sunday marked the close of the great revival under Rev. Burke Culpepper of Memphis, Tenn., that has so greatly stirred our town for the past two weeks. Rev. Culpepper came here an absolute stranger never having even held a meeting in North Carolina before, he left our town beloved by every denomination; pastors and people of every creed will cherish his memory all through life and many prayers will ascend to the throne of grace for his safety and success.

About a half hour before the hour set for the closing service Sunday evening, Rev. Herman sent a message to the hotel where Rev. Culpepper was staying saying that the Church was packed and hundreds being turned away, to please come at once as it was very warm and many were standing, indeed the church was packed at every evening service and as many as 500 persons turned away more than once.

Rev. Culpepper is a young man, only about 35 years of age though his hair is gray, he is refined well educated, good natured, a born actor and an athlete, his voice is pleasant and his stock of wit and humor inexhaustible, he has been preaching since he was a mere boy of 14 years and is the son of a noted evangelist, but the secret of his power lies in none of these things, nor in all of them, nothing but personal consecration and the presence of the Holy Spirit can give a man the power to touch the hearts and lives of his fellow man as Rev. Culpepper touches his hearers. His power is wonderful, he appeals to the best there is in a man, his big loving heart fairly yearns over the evil doer and wins him to a better life. About 250 have given their names for church membership and every church in town will have accessions as a result of this meeting. Rev. Culpepper's slogan is "Put God First" and as we think of the wonderful work he is doing under God's direction we are led to ponder over this thought, we cannot all be Burke Culpeppers, but if he can do such mighty works by resigning his will to the will of his Maker, could not the same God use the rest of us to accomplish wonderful things if we would really "Put God First."

Rev. Culpepper left Sunday night by automobile accompanied by Dr. H. B. Rowe, and Messrs Cleve Hale, John Folger and Sunderland for High Point to catch a fast train for Memphis to spend a few hours with his family after which he goes to Arkansas to conduct a meeting.

There will be a special service at the Episcopal church Good Friday, April 6th, at 11 o'clock. Easter Day service at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Special music. Service Holy Communion 11 o'clock.

J. G. Wood & Co., of Rockford, N. C., as agents have sold to Mr. C. W. Bunker of this county, a complete plowing outfit consisting of plows, harrows, etc. The machine was delivered here last week and cost $900.00. It will plow from six to ten acres of land a day.

Sunday April 8th, (Easter) will be observed as a special Church Rally day by the First Baptist Sunday School. By this we mean to say that a special effort will be made to enlist those of our Church membership, who can, but who do not now attend our School, and to have them present at that time. Coupled with this, we will undertake to rally our present enrollment, that we may if possible have the largest Church Member attendance in the history of our school.

We most earnestly and cordially invite every member of the Church living in or near Mt. Airy to be present promptly at 10 a. m. You will enjoy it and be benefitted by it. Then, too, you will greatly help and encourage those who have been thus laboring for years. We are persuaded that it is your duty to fall in line and cooperate with us. We are meeting and studying together the word of God with a view to greater efficiency on the part of our people in the work of the kingdom of God, and with a view, too, of reaching and winning to Christ, His Church and His Work, our relatives, children, friends, neighbors and their children. We need you. We shall count on you.

T. H. King, Pastor,
A. V. West, Supt.

Mrs. Permelia Peele Passes.

Mrs. Permelia Peele died at her home in High Point last Saturday and the remains were brought here and carried to the neighborhood of Union Church and laid to rest in a family burying ground. She was 58 years of age and had long been a consistent member of the Primitive Baptist church. She leaves a large family and circle of friends who mourn at her passing.

Prizes for Best Gardens.

The Betterment Association will meet in the New School building Friday at 3:30 and the object of the meeting will be to start a movement to get the people of this city to put forth great effort to make good gardens. Plans have been worked out and business men will give premiums for the encouragement of the work. It is the desire of the Association that every parent in the city meet and help push this effort to a success and thus make our people as self sustaining as possible.

Aged Lady Passes.

Mrs. Susann Simmons passed from this life on March 23 at the advanced age of 85 years. The remains were laid to rest in the Oak Grove cemetery and the funeral services were conducted by the Rev. C. C. Haymore.

She was a member of the Baptist church and a good and useful woman. She lived to see all her family of brothers and sisters pass from this life and leaves three children who survive her. A large number of friends attended the last services.

Mt. Airy Vs Westfield.

Saturday afternoon at three o'clock the girls of the Mt. Airy High School played the Westfield girls in a very interesting game of basket ball on our splendid court in the Opera House. The game was full of enthusiasm and interest from beginning to end. While the Mt. Airy girls seemed to be able to handle the ball more accurately than the visiting girls, the country team showed that they had good material and did unusually fine defensive work.

On the Mt. Airy team the forwards, Folger and Haynes, played a very good game and made some of the best shots that the girls have made on our court this season although they were guarded the closest they have been before. Sparger and George played guard the first half and Smith and Baldrige the last half. They allowed the visitors only one field goal in the first half and none in the second. We are all proud of Johnson's work in the center. She played a fine game and promises to make us a star player next year.

On the Westfield team the forwards Shelton and Jessup, N., played a nice clean game, but they were unable to put the ball in the basket because of the good work done by the Mt. Airy guards. Alta Jessup was fast in the center. We believe that she is one of the best we have seen this year. Clarace Simmons and Lola Jessup guarded for the visitors in the first half, Inez Simmons substituting in the last half. These girls did the best defensive work that we have seen done on our floor this year. Folger and Haynes can well congratulate themselves on throwing six field goals on these girls. The final score was 14 for Mt. Airy and 5 for Westfield.

Some Good Advice.

"Don't think too much of your own methods. Watch other people's ways and learn from them." This is good advice, especially when bilious or constipated. You will find many people who use Chamberlain's Tablets for these ailments with the best results, and will do well to follow their example.
