ONLY GROUNDS FOR EXEMPTION.

The War Department has just issued a bulletin telling who will be exempt, and it is a wide field, and many are the men who can successfully claim exemption if they do not want to go. The list came in this morning and is official. It reads:

"The following are the only grounds for exemption:

1. That you are an officer—legislative, executive, or judicial—of the United States, a state or territory or in the District of Columbia.
2. That you are a regular or duly ordained minister of religion.
3. That you were on May 18, 1917, a student preparing for the ministry in any recognized theological or divinity school.
4. That you are in the military or naval service of the United States.
5. That you are a subject of Germany, whether you have taken out papers or not.
6. That you are a resident alien who has not taken out first papers.

"In addition to claims for exemption claims for discharge may be made on any of the following grounds, which are the only grounds for discharge by a local board: :

1. That you are a county or municipal officer.
2. That you are a customs house clerk.
3. That you are employed by the United States in the transmission of mails.
4. That you are an artificer or workman employed in an armory, arsenal or navy yard of the United States.
5. That you are employed in the service of the United States (under certain conditions.) See paragraph e of section 20, Regulations.
6. That you are a licensed pilot regularly employed in the pursuit of your vocation.
7. That you are a mariner actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States.
8. That you are a married man with a wife or child dependent on you for support.
9. That you have a widowed mother dependent on your labor for support.
10. That you have aged or infirm parents dependent upon your labor for support.
11. That you are the father of a motherless child under sixteen dependent upon your labor for support.
12. That you are the brother of an orphan child or children under sixteen dependent on your labor for support.
13. That you are a member of any well recognized religious sect or organization organized and existent May 18, 1917, and whose then existing creed or principles forbade its members to participate in war in any form, and whose religious convictions are against war or participation therein in accordance with the creed or principles of said religious organization.

"These are the only grounds for exemption or discharge by a local board. Another person can file a claim in your behalf, but must use different forms in filing the claims."

PUBLIC SALE

Valuable Patrick County Land!

Pursuant to a decree of the Circuit Court of Patrick County, Va., entered at the March Term, 1917, in the chancery cause of H. G. Gallaway vs. G. G. Gallaway, et al, I will on Friday, August 3rd, 1917

Beginning at 10:30 A. M., proceed by way of public auction to sell to the highest bidder that tract of land lying and being in Patrick County, Virginia, adjoining the North Carolina line, on the waters of Ararat River and Wolf Creek and containing 689 acres, two roods and sixteen square poles. The property will be offered first in nine different tracts which have been carefully laid off by metes and bounds as follows:

Tract No. 1.—Containing 108 acres and 32 sq. poles. It lies on each side of the Ararat River and is on the extreme south end of the above mentioned tract of land which is known as the "Stuart land," more recently as the "Galloway land." It has upon it three dwellings, a granary, stables, three tobacco barns, timber, plenty of wood and water and a number of bearing apple trees. A large percent. of this land is bottom and table land and is easily accessible by public highways in every direction. It reaches within some five miles of Mount Airy, N. C., and the sand clay road runs right up to it.

Tract No. 2.—Contains 73 acres, 2 roods and 3 square poles, and lies north and northwest of No. 1 and adjoins T. H. Brown, et al. It is also reached by the public road and has fine outlets. It has upon it a splendid four room dwelling in excellent condition, feed barn, granaries, large cattle shed and other outbuildings. It has upon it a splendid orchard. A large per cent of this tract is the very best bottom and table land. It has plenty of wood, pasture etc. This is a magnificent tract of land.

Tract No. 3.—Contains 67 acres, 1 rood and 39 sq. poles. It lies west of No. 2 and north of No. 1 and on the west it is bounded by Wolf Creek. It has upon it a tobacco barn, lots of young timber. A large per cent of this tract is bottom land. It has plenty of wood and water and is easy of access, a road leading right through it.

Tract No. 4.—Contains 44 acres and 28 square poles. It lies west of Ararat River just north of Lot No. 3. This tract contains about 20 acres of fine bottom land and the remainder is splendid upland, has upon it good building sites, is well watered, plenty of wood and is accesible to the public highway, a road running right by it on one entire side.

Tract No. 5.—Contains 84 acres, 3 roods and 18 sq. poles. It lies on the west side of Ararat River and adjoins the lands of T. H. Brown and James Orender, is north of lots 2 and 4 and east of Lot No. 6. This tract has about 3 1/2 acres of fine bottom land, is well watered and has upon it much young timber and is easy of access to the public road.

Tract No. 6.—This tract contains 51 acres, 3 roods and 2 sq. poles, and adjoins Lots No. 3, 4, 5 and 7, and adjoins Wolf Creek on the west. It has upon it a two room dwelling, two tobacco barns. A large per cent of this tract is good bottom land and open uplands. It is well watered and timbered and is traversed by a road. Thomas Moore now lives on the tract.

Tract No. 7.—This tract contains 53 acres and 36 sq. poles and is situated in the northern end of the "Stuart Farm" and adjoins Wolf Creek on the west and on the east by Lot No. 3, on the south by Lot 6 and on the north by Lot 8. This tract is principally woodland. There is upon it great quantities of young timber; it is well watered, and has upon it splendid building sites.

Tract No. 8.—Contains 89 acres, 1 rood and 28 sq. poles. This lot is altogether woodland. There is a great quantity of good timber on it. It is well watered and fine outlets to schools, roads, etc. It reaches and is bounded on the west by Wolf Creek, on the North by lot No. 9, on the East by the lands of James Arender, on the South by lot No. 7.

Lot No. 9.—This tract contains 117 acres, 2 roods and 17 sq. poles and is principally woodland. It has upon it much timber, well watered, and has desirable building sites. It is convenient to mills, schools etc. This is splendid land.

After the land is sold in lots it will be offered as a whole and the way bringing the best price will be accepted. This is a very valuable boundary of land. It is what is known as the "Stuart farm"; is in a splendid community and reaches within five miles of the thriving City of Mount Airy, N. C. The "Sand Clay Road" from Mount Airy reaches up to it.

There is a good roller mill in the community. These lands are located convenient to stores, mail routes, telephone lines and other modern conveniences. Persons desiring a good home in a thriving, prosperous community, near to a good market, which can be reached by a permanent road, has an opportunity to get it here. Any one of the nine tracts mentioned herein will make a good home. If you should desire you can buy two or more tracts or all of it. It is an opportunity of a life time.

The various lots herein mentioned have been laid off by Mr. Harry S. Clark, a careful and competent surveyor, and plats of the land and the various lots can be found at the Post Office at THE HOLLOW, at the law office of Mr. W. F. Carter, Mount Airy, N. C., with Mr. Harry S. Clark, or at the office of the undersigned, at Stuart, Va. Any one desiring any information as to the location of the lots can be furnished it by Mr. Clark who made the survey.

Persons interested are advised to go examine the property before day of sale. The sale will begin at 10:30 A. M., at the dwelling on tract No. 1, on the premises. DON'T FORGET THE TIME AND PLACE.

TERMS OF SALE:

The sale will be for one-fourth cash on day of sale, and the residue in three equal installments of one, two and three years' time, the purchaser being required to give interest-bearing bonds with approved surety for the deferred payments.

Stuart, Va., July 9th, 1917.

J. M. HOOKER, Com'r.
