WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing bladder ills? Pinnacle people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit?

Mrs. J. L. Spainhour, Pinnacle, N. C., says: "For about four years, I suffered from my back. I could hardly get around at times on account of a dull pain in my kidneys. I couldn't straighten up without taking hold of something for support. Nights I couldn't rest well, as my back ached like a toothache. I was always miserable and had no ambition. Nothing did me any good until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. The first box or two gave me relief and now after finishing six boxes, I am feeling better than I have in a long time. My back doesn't ache near so much and my kidneys act regularly."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Spainhour had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Has a Bank Account; Must Serve in Army

Chicago Ill., Aug. 22.—Bryan Washburn, a widely known motion picture actor, must serve in the national army Major B. M. Chipperfield, representing the Provost Marshal General, ruled today. Washburn, who had passed physical examination, claimed exemption on the ground that he had a wife and child dependent upon him. Secret service agents learned, Major Chipperfield said, that Washburn had a bank account of $5,500 and that his wife, who was Mabel Forrest, an actress, had appeared in pictures before and after the birth of their child.

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up a corn or callus so it lifts off with fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of frezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain. A small bottle of frezone cost very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any frezone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.

KEPT FIGHTING UNTIL LAST SHOT BEEN FIRED.

Tanker Campana Surrendered Only Because She Had Not Another Shot Left.

This was the story told by J. H. Bruce, third mate of the Campana, who with 40 other members of the Campana's crew and eight gunners arrived here today on a French steamship. The battle began at 5 a. m. and was waged for four hours at a range of between 7,500 and 7,500 yards.

The U-boat fired 400 shots, only two of which hit the mark. The Campana, nevertheless, was outraged by the two guns, one 4-inch, the other 2-inch, with which the submarine was armed. The U-boat also was fully as speedy as the American vessel.

After the Campana hoisted the international signal of surrender her last shell gone, the submarine nevertheless continued to fire, Bruce said, and all hands took to the boats.

The U-boat commander first approached the boat commanded by Bruce, which had aboard the Campana's thirteen naval gunners, and ordered it alongside. He then went to the lifeboat occupied by Capt. Albert Oliver of the Campana and took him prisoner.

Five Gunners Made Prisoners. Having room enough only for six additional men aboard his craft, the German skipper made only five of the gunners prisoners, Bruce said. These included the chief gunner and two petty officers. One of the gunners whose name was Miller, was included because he could speak German.

The submarine was the U-2. Bruce did not learn the commander's name. The German told him he said, that he had fired a torpedo at the Campana but had missed, the projectile apparently passing under the steamship.

The Campana was sent to the bottom by bombs after her crew had been allowed to return and get their personal effects. Directions were given to Bruce by the submarine commander how to reach the nearest port. He told him at the same time that he had heard wireless messages exchanged by two French war vessels in the vicinity and warned him not to allow himself to be picked up by them.

"I am going to sink them," he said. Bruce and his men nevertheless took the chance, encountering a French warship after floating about in small boats until 6 o'clock that night. The warship took them aboard and landed them in France. Bruce said he was told by an officer of the war vessel that he had heard a wireless from another French cruiser, saying that it had sunk a German submarine in the vicinity of the place where the Campana had been sunk. Bruce said it was only a matter of conjecture as to whether this was the submarine that attacked his vessel but if true he feared it means that Captain Oliver and his gunners had perished.

"When Captain Oliver and the other prisoners went below on the submarine," said Bruce "the U-boat captain said they will be treated as prisoners of war and landed in a few days at a German base where the captain said they would be given every opportunity to send word home to their families. I was allowed to take a personal message from Captain Oliver to be delivered to his wife.

"The bluejackets with us were a game lot. When the last shell had gone they would have tackled the Germans with their revolvers had the word been passed to them.

"The captain said his instructions were to take all American gunners and captains of armed ships prisoners. He said however, he was sorry the United States was in the war because he hated to fight Americans, as he had always found them friendly and good sports. Americans, he said, will always fight to a finish. He had no use for the French or the English though, especially the English."

The names of the gunners taken prisoners were: James Delaney, chief gunners mate; Wm. Miller, seaman; Fred Jacobs, seaman; Ray Roop, boatswain's mate, second class, and Chas. Klime, gunners' mate.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

State of North Carolina Governor's Office Raleigh.

North Carolina is about to send twenty-five thousand men into battle. These men are making the supreme sacrifice that forever hereafter the wisdom of the many shall determine the decrees of nations. They go to make war on war. They go to destroy with the sword the government that maintains that the sword is, and of right ought to be, the final arbiter of a nation's rights.

When the government that defies war shall perish in war then war will come no more upon the earth.

It is fit that these guarantors of the world's peace should be sustained by the love and prayers of all good men:

Now, Therefore, I, Thomas Walter Bickett, Governor of North Carolina, do request the people of the State:

First, to assemble on Saturday, the first day of September, in township and school district meetings, and hold patriotic exercises in honor of the men we are sending to the front:

Second, on Sunday, September 3rd, let special religious services be held in all the churches in the State, and let all good men pray for the safety and success of the men who are going into battle that lasting peace may come upon the land:

Third, That on Labor Day, September 3rd, appropriate patriotic exercises be held in every county seat in the State and let the men who have been drafted into the public service be the guests of honor at these exercises.

Done at our city of Raleigh this the twenty-fifth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and in the one hundred and forty-second year of our American Independence.

T. W. BICKETT, Gov.
