SEES PHYSICAL WRECKS CAUSED BY FLAPPERISM

Pennsylvania Homeopathic Head Also Calls Volstead Enforcement Officialdom Gone Mad

Chicago, June 19.—"Flapperism" is bringing about inefficient, sleep-starved, under-nourished physical wrecks among modern city youths, Dr. Clarence Bartlett, president of the Pennsylvania State Homeopathic society, said today, in an address before the American Institute of Homeopathy Convention.

Not only were the habits of the flapper assailed, but the methods of enforcement of the Volstead Act were characterized as "officialdom gone mad," by Dr. Bartlett.

"On all sides we hear comments of the precocity of the youth of the present day," he declared. "Their flaunting of authority, their hours, their general habits as to hygiene, are all made subjects of comment. And we blame them for it. Really, it is the parents who are to blame."

Prohibition, he said, is a great thing from a health standpoint, but the methods of enforcement, as applied to medical practice, he declared, are deserving of criticism, because they are "utterly oblivious to all medical and therapeutic principals."

Dr. Roy Upham, of Brooklyn, president of the homeopaths, announced in an address that an invitation had been issued to Dr. Victor D. Lospinasse, noted gland expert, to appear before the convention and discuss an operation he was reported to have performed a few days ago on Harold F. McCormick, chairman of the Executive Committee of the International Harvester Company.

He said homeopaths were anxious to hear details of it because of its apparent success.

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Woman Relied Upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Emporia, Kansas.—"I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine years ago when I was a girl. For several years I had severe pains at menstrual periods, making me very weak and interfering with my regular duties. I tried several remedies without obtaining relief. I was induced to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by friends and it restored me to normal health. I often have occasion and do recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends who have troubles similar to my own. You may use these facts as a testimonial."
—EVA ALDRICH, 218 Union St., Emporia, Kansas.

There are many women who first used our Vegetable Compound during their girlhood days. They found it a valuable help during trying periods. In later years they use it whenever they feel those annoying symptoms which women often have.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's medicine. It is prepared carefully from the best quality of medicinal plants, whose properties are especially adapted to correct the troubles women have.

Mrs. Butler Is Overjoyed at Her Recovery

Declares Tanlac Gave Her Complete Relief After Everything Else Failed to Reach Her Case

"I am overjoyed at the wonderful good Tanlac has done me after I had suffered five years," said Mrs. Mamie Butler, 1258 Taylor St., Richmond, Va.
"Indigestion troubled me so long I had little hope of seeing another well day. Nearly everything I ate soured on my stomach and I felt stuffy and nauseated. The pains around my heart were so dreadful and I felt so tight across the chest I thought I would suffocate. Black spots came before my eyes and I almost fell over. I was badly constipated and so run down that often I had to go to bed and stay several days.
"But now I am well and happy for Tanlac has fully restored me after everything else failed. I enjoy everything I eat, my nerves are steady and I get plenty of restful sleep. Tanlac deserves all my praise and thanks."
Tanlac is sold in Mount Airy by all druggists.
