The Parent-Teacher association will meet in the high school auditorium Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All parents, are urged to attend.

Mesdames Wolfe And Hines Hostesses

The ladies parlor of the Blue Ridge hotel was the scene of two delightful parties Wednesday. Mesdames W. S. Wolfe and Earl Hines being joint hostesses at ten a. m. to a number of friends, while at three p. m. they entertained the members of the Young Matrons Book Club. The hotel parlor was attractively decorated with baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums, rook was played at eight tables in the morning, and at thirteen tables in the afternoon. A delicious salad course was served in the morning by Misses Mae Gwyn, Elizabeth Long, and Virginia Banner, in the afternoon by Misses Mary Franklin Graves, Nannie Fulton, Margaret Ashby, and Alma Yokley, the favors were little Halloween baskets filled with pistachio nuts.

Girl Scouts Entertain Boy Scouts

The local Girl Scouts gave a Halloween party Tuesday evening in compliment to the Boy Scouts.

Two rooms in the Binder home on Pine street were cleared of heavy furniture, and autumn leaves corn stalks and pumpkins lanterns used to stimulate the out of doors, a thick carpet of leaves making the pretense very clever. All the scouts were masked and some really attractive costumes were provided for the occasion.

Games were played, marshmallows toasted, corn popped, and bobbing for apples afforded much amusement.

Miss Elizabeth Merritt, Girl Scout Leader as gypsy fortune teller predicted wonderful futures for the young people.

Halloween Celebration

A little premature, but none the less hilarious for that, was the Halloween celebration at the North Main school building last Friday night.

Several hundred people gathered on the lawn before the door was opened and other hundreds came until the crowd overflowed the auditorium, every seat and every foot of standing room being taken and still they came, until in desperation the teachers said "don't sell any more tickets."

The stage was attractive in autumn leaves, flowers and pumpkin lanterns and the program was highly creditable and included recitations, songs and drills by the children, many of them dressed as witches, ghosts etc and readings, vocal, and instrumental music by the teachers.

After the program the folks scattered over the building, among the catch penny attractions were a curiosity shop, a sandwich and coffee booth, candy booth, fish pond, two real live gypsy fortune tellers, apples suspended by strings, and other apples floating on a tub of water to be had by bobbing or ducking and catching them with the teeth.

Everybody had a good time and everybody spent a little money and the teachers were happy for when the cash was counted they had $150 enough to pay for their victrola and records and then some to spare.

Union Service

The regular fifth Sunday union service of the churches was held in the Presbyterian church Sunday night.

Rev. E. I. Olive of the First Baptist church presided, and stated that only one member of the ministerial association was absent, the Rev. Mr. Fulghum of the Second Baptist church but stated that they were glad to have Rev. D. Vance Price to occupy his chair, for he said "Mr. Price is a sort of Bishop of all the churches."

The sermon was preached by Rev. G. W. Williams pastor of the Rockford Street Tabernacle, and president of the ministerial association.

A large crowd was present both the auditorium and Sunday school annex being full.

Mrs. James Ashby Ill

Mrs. James Ashby became very ill last week while visiting in Winston-Salem. Her nephew Dr. E. C. Ashby went down and brought her to this city in an ambulance last Thursday. She is now a patient in Martin hospital and is somewhat improved tho her heart and other organs are seriously affected. Her son Paul Ashby will arrive from the government hospital at Fort Bayard, New Mexico, to attend her bedside.

Mrs. Byerly Hostess

Mrs. W. J. Byerly was hostess to the members of the Entre Nous Book club and the Young Matrons Book club at her spacious home on North Main street Wednesday afternoon.

Yellow and white chrysanthemums adorned the rooms where twelve tables were arranged for rook, and Halloween score cards were used.

Mesdames E. M. Linville and A. V. West assisted the hostess in serving a delicious salad course with coffee followed by yellow and white mints.

Notice of Administration

Having qualified as Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Alfred W. Fogleman, deceased, I hereby notify all persons holding claims against this estate to present the same to me for payment within twelve months from the date of this notice, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of recovery thereon. Persons indebted to the estate are notified to make immediate payment to me. This Nov. 1, 1922.

Wade C. Moody, Executor of the will of Alfred W. Fogleman, Dec'd. Mt. Airy, N. C.

How Not To Take Cold

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excesses, over eating, becoming over heated and then chilled and getting the feet wet. Then, when they feel the first indication of a cold, they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over.
