Want Fewer Stills and More Operators Caught

Craven county commissioners paid a bill of $800 for captured whiskey stills, at $20 per, during the month of April. The size of the bill evidently caused a bit of thinking on the part of the Craven authorities, with the result that it was the conclusion that fewer stills and more of the people connected with the operations of the plants would be better arrangement. Whereupon the premium for captured stills was reduced to five dollars per, which should furnish a fair return on the number Craven officers have been able to find. A hootch plant accompanied by one prisoner connected with the operation is still good for $20 in Craven. This may reduce the number of captured stills but it will either get better results or cost the taxpayers less money.—Statesville Daily.

How to Bud A Fruit Tree

Raleigh, N. C. June 4.—If you want new fruit trees of a desirable variety, these may be secured by taking buds from the desired varieties and inserting them on seedling stocks or on new wood of old trees. June is the month that this is generally done because the bark slips easily. R. F. Payne, extension horticulturist for the State College and Department of Agriculture, tells about the process as follows:

"Stone fruits such as peaches, cherries and plums are always budded. Other fruits as apples, quinces, and pears may be grafted but are usually budded because it is cheaper, quicker easier and simpler process.

"Shield budding is the type most used. The bud should be placed on a stock about the size of a lead pencil. This usually means one year old wood with the peach and two year wood with the apple.

"A cut should be made on the stock about 3-8 inch around the tree and another one about 1 1/2 inches long above, vertical to and dividing this horizontal cut so it will look like an inverted T.

"The buds should then be taken from present seasons growth where the leaves have been removed but part of the petiole left to be used as a handle. A cut should be made about 3-4 inch above the bud so that it will be about half way thru the stick when it reaches the lower end of the bud, there the bark should be cut square across. Then taking hold by the petiole remove it from the stick and insert on the tree to be budded under the flaps until the lower end comes in contact with the lower part of the inverted T. Press down the edges and bind with raffia or any other good string.

"After the union is made this string should be cut to prevent binding.

A Booklet of Real Value.

Have You Read It.

A Surry County boy, Rev. H. L. Atkins in spite of great difficulties, made his way to a place of honor and usefulness in the ministry of the Methodist Church, but who has been how nearly twenty years in the mountains of Texas, in a life and death struggle with tuberculosis. The title of the work is, "Our Dead, or The Life After Death."

It is a fine Scriptural statement of the immortality of the human soul and of the folly and dangers of modern Spiritualism. It will do much to enable you to understand just what the Bible teaches about this sacred, important and ever present subject. It will bring you comfort, encouragement, strength and a new insight of God's Word.

Thousands of copies of this booklet should be bought and read by Surry County people.

It is not a denominational work, but is just as suitable for Baptist, Friends or Presbyterians as for Methodists.

Order from the Christian Advocate Publishing Co., Greensboro, N. C. Price 20c. per copy, $1.00 a dozen.
