Strange, But True

Rockefeller can write a few words and figures on a piece of paper and make it worth $10,000,000—THAT'S CAPITAL.

The United States can take an ounce and a quarter of gold and stamp an eagle upon it and make it worth $20.00—THAT'S AUTHORITY.

A mechanic can take material worth $5.00 and make it into watch springs worth $1,000.00—THAT'S SKILL.

A merchant can take an article worth $1.00 and sell it for $1.50—THAT'S BUSINESS.

A Chiropractor can adjust a vertebra of the spine and restore health.—THAT'S SCIENCE.

Your spine MUST be right before you can enjoy health—THAT'S A FACT.

Dobbins-Black Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Irene Dobbins, of this city, to J. N. Black, of Winston-Salem, was announced at a beautiful party given by Miss Ethel Haynes, Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Zinnias, asters and cultivated sunflowers beautified the Haynes home and bridge was played at six tables.

The announcement was made at the refreshment hour, cards bearing the initials, "I. E. D.—J. N. B. Early fall," being placed in the napkins.

Misses Mary Lou Haynes, Kathleen Jackson, Agnes Galloway and Eloise Sparger served a delicious salad course.

Top score prize was won by Miss Culverhouse of Florida, the prize being a deck of cards.

A beautiful piece of silk lingerie was presented to the bride elect.

The out of town guests were Mrs. Clewell Everhart, Winston-Salem, house guest of the hostess, Mrs. Dowell Lewis, Pilot Mountain, Miss Dorothy Yates, Raleigh guest of her sister Mrs. E. G. Smith, Mrs. Culverhouse, of Ocala, Fla., guest of Miss Elizabeth Long, and Miss Eleanor Hill, of Kinston guest of Miss Isabel Smith.

The bride elect was becomingly gowned in black satin with pastel shades of georgette trimmings and purple velvet hat with trimmings in pastel shades.

Joint Hostesses At Rook

Mrs. M. H. Sparger and Miss Beas Merritt were joint hostesses at a beautiful party in the home of Mrs. Sparger Wednesday afternoon of last week honoring Mrs. E. G. Ashcraft, of Marshville, formerly of this city.

The hall was decorated with lovely fall asters, while zinnias were used in the dining room and stately gladiolus in the living room.

Miss Kathrine Merritt and Mrs. O. H. Yokley served punch on the veranda to the arriving guests and score cards were presented by Marvin Sparger, Jr., the small son and nephew of the hostesses. Rook was played at twelve tables after which Misses Elizabeth and Kathrine Merritt, Elsie Sparger, and Mrs. O. H. Yokley served ice cream, cake and mints.

Other out of town guests besides the honorees were Miss Dorothy Yates, of Raleigh, house guest of her sister Mrs. E. G. Smith, and Mrs. E. E. Rector, of Charlotte, guest of Mrs. W. Fulton.
