Feeling that his mission in life was the work of a minister, he completed a theological course in Union seminary, Richmond, Va.; last spring, and has since been ordained to the ministry.

Mr. Boone Purchases Broadway Theatre

A deal has just been closed where Mr. A. Boone becomes sole owner of the Broadway Theatre, of this city, having purchased it from the United Theatre Corporation. Mr. Boone needs no introduction to our people as he has been manager of this theatre for some time. Since his stay here he has become attached to our city and purchased this theatre with the idea of making Mount Airy his permanent home.

Since the purchase Mr. Boone expects to make many new improvements. He has already fitted up a nice ladies' rest room at one side of the entrance which is open to the public at all hours of the day and will be glad for any one to avail themselves of it whenever it suits their convenience. In the picture line he has taken on additional companies, among them being films of the First National Corporation and the Metro films.

Moore-Wells
