The little three year old girl of Deputy Sheriff J. E. Monday was seriously burned last Tuesday morning. There were no eye witnesses to the accident, the mother coming to the rescue of the screaming child. In some way its clothes became ignited and it was severely burned about the body and face.

Mesdames Cora Hollingsworth and P. S. Rothrock are attending the general U. D. C. convention in the New Willard hotel Washington, D. C., this week, leaving here Monday. On Tuesday they went by special train to Annapolis, Md., where a portrait of Matthew Fontaine Maury, (the pathfinder of the seas), was presented to the Naval Academy, under the auspices of U. D. C. While in Washington Mrs. Hollingsworth is the guest of her daughter Miss Kate Hollingsworth who holds a position there.

Granite Mercantile Force Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wrenn entertained the officers and employees of the Granite Mercantile company at an elaborate six o'clock dinner Friday evening.

Mr. Wrenn is the president and senior member of the firm and the occasion was very enjoyable.

Prominent Farmer Stricken With Paralysis.

Columbus Steele, a prominent farmer living six miles west of Dobson, while sitting by his fireside reading a paper last Saturday afternoon, was stricken with paralysis and toppled out of his chair. Mr. Steele, who is the father of our townsman A. E. Steele, is 65 years old and up to the time was in excellent health. On Friday he was in Mount Airy and several friends remarked how well he appeared to be. On Saturday before he was stricken he cried a household name for James Cox. He talks incoherently and is semi-conscious, but his physician reports that there is hope of his recovery.

Local Steam Laundry to Resume Operation.

The machinery and equipment of the defunct Granite City Steam Laundry has been leased to H. Eastland and W. H. Ray of Winston-Salem, who will re-open the plant about December 1st. Eastland and Ray are both experienced laundry operators and it is their plan to overhaul the machinery and put the entire plant in first class shape before starting up. For the present the laundry will be operated at the old stand on Main street.

It is planned to introduce what is known as the "wet wash" service for Mount Airy housewives. You take your clothes to the laundry, have them washed and returned to you for drying and ironing. The usual starch and ironing work done by steam laundries all over the country will also be done by this plant.

H. C. Lawrence Passes Away

After an illness of several months H. C. Lawrence passed away at his home near Round Peak on Nov. 14th and was buried at Flat Top cemetery last Friday, the funeral being conducted at his home by Revs. Stone and Fulk. The deceased was a well-to-do farmer of his section and was 82 years of age. He was twice married and leaves a large family. Chief of Police C. E. Lawrence of this city being one of his children, also Charlie Lawrence who holds a position with the National Furniture Co.

P. W. G. Club Meets

The P. W. G. Bridge club members were delightfully entertained Tuesday evening by Miss Elizabeth Long at her home on Cherry street.

An interesting game held the attention of the players for an hour or more and when scores were counted the prize, a bridge slate, was awarded to Mrs. Harry Lewellyn.

An ice course followed by stuffed dates was served by Misses Annis Folger and Lucile Haynes.

Miss Annie Baughan Injured

Miss Annie Baughan suffered very severe injuries Sunday evening when knocked down by a car driven by a man named Jessup, near Cross Roads.

Miss Baughan was on her way to the Flat Rock Baptist church when the accident happened.

Two cars were passing her in opposite directions and the man who struck her claimed to be blinded by the head lights of the opposite car.

Miss Baughan is confined to her bed though her injuries are not thought to be serious.

Ford Touring Car Stolen

Monday night between eight and nine o'clock a Ford touring car belonging to C. S. Lamb was stolen from in front of the Mount Airy post office. Howard Hawkes, an employee of the post office, was using the car during the afternoon and parked it while he worked in the office. The car had been run about five months. The switch key was not left in the car and the steering wheel was locked by a well known lock. The theft was committed by an expert operator, is the opinion of the owner.

No discount will be allowed on county tax after Nov. 30th. Don't forget to avail yourself of this saving.

In The Recorder's Court

Monday's fines and costs in the Recorder's Court amounted to about $228.00. This brings the total paid into the court for fines and costs since Judge Lowellyn took his oath of office last December to the sum of $11,281.00, or almost one thousand dollars a month.

Dan Hodge paid the cost for an affray.

J. E. King and O. T. Massey were each fined $50 and the cost for operating a car while under the influence of liquor.

Chas. Inscora paid the cost for giving a worthless check.

It costs Geo. Johnson about $15 for being on a drunk.

Robt. Towe, who lives on the Fancy Gap road a few miles north of this city, was convicted of retailing and given a 12 months road sentence. Towe took an appeal to the Superior court.

Phillip Jones paid $5 and the cost for being drunk. Kyle Snyder paid the same fine, and Phillip Galloway was taxed with the cost.

Deputy Sheriff J. E. Monday caught Jim Shelton and Ted Brower with six quarts of liquor near the quarry a few nights ago. Owing to the youth of the defendants the court fined them and let them out under a sentence of good behavior.

Brit Flemming again appeared in court, this time for being drunk and paid the costs.

Let's Eat!

"Though the eagle screams on the dollar

The turkey makes the table talk; And who can say, Thanksgiving Day, Which bird o' the two is the cock o' the walk!"

On Friday, Nov. 23, from noon thru the supper hour, the women of the First Presbyterian church will cater to the public at their annual turkey dinner. They will serve turkey with all its accompaniments; also oyster, chicken salad, ice cream and homemade cake, so make your plans now to dine up town Friday in the store room recently vacated by the Kittrell Co., in the Blue Ridge hotel block. Reported

Mrs. Clarke Bridge Hostess

The Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club members were guests of Mrs. C. P. Clarke at her home on Franklin street Tuesday evening.

The home was aglow with soft lights and gorgeous with late autumn flowers and after an enthusiastic game Misses Eleanor Kirkman and Alice Hardie assisted the hostess in serving a chicken salad course followed by an ice course.

Pay your tax before Dec. 1st and save the discount. C. H. Haynes, Sheriff.
