Ladies Night With Kiwanis Club

The Kiwanis Club held its annual Easter Ladies Night Monday evening at the Blue Ridge hotel entertaining the wives and lady friends of the club members. During the evening the Robt. E. Lee orchestra from Winston-Salem furnished music, the Kiwanis quartette rendered selections and Misses Homet and Burns and Rev. Eugene Olive sang.

The address of welcome to the ladies was made by Rev. Z. V. Roberson and the response very graciously made by his wife, much to Mr. Roberson's surprise as she had given him no hint that she had been invited to respond to his welcome in behalf of the ladies present.

S. P. Graves spoke a few minutes on the subject of making Mount Airy more beautiful. He said he would like to see the Kiwanis Club working in conjunction with the Woman's Club in a movement to plant some flowering shrubbery that would be universally adopted by the city as its favorite plant. He also touched upon the matter of play grounds for the children and regretted very much that the young people of our city did not have the privilege of a municipal playground.

Charles Andrew, manager of the hotel had arranged an artistic decorative effect with apple blossoms and jonquils and served an elaborate six course menu consisting of fruit cocktail, celery, pickle, olives, spring chicken, ham, green peas, Saratoga potatoes, salad A La Blue Ridge, ice cream moulded as Easter lilies. Liberty bells, Cinderella slippers, statues of animals, turkeys and many other interesting forms, Roquefort cheese, saltines after dinner coffee and mints.

The favors for the ladies were rose-leaf sachets in spring colors and the attendance prize for ladies was drawn by Miss Irene Smith and for club members by R. C. Brown.

Fire Destroys Good Country Home.

Fanned by a strong wind, Mrs. Joel Simmons, of Francisco, Stokes Co., aged 69 years, stood and saw a tiny blaze on the roof of her home grow into a roaring furnace which destroyed her eight room house, tobacco barn, feed barn, store house and outbuildings, causing a loss to her of more than $10,000, with only $1,100 insurance. This all occurred within a few minutes on last Saturday afternoon.

With Mrs. Simmons lived her son and several grand children. All the members of the household were visiting a neighbor with the exception of Mrs. Simmons and a six-year old grand child. Mrs. Simmons discovered the fire on the roof near the chimney when it was just a tiny curl of smoke and licking flame, but owing to her age she was helpless and the high wind that was blowing soon brought destruction to her residence and other buildings. The store house was unoccupied but contained all the grain, meat and other provisions of the family. Mrs. Simmons is a sister of our clothier, G. L. Simmons.

Clark-Williamson

It will be of interest to friends of the bride here to learn of the marriage of Miss Mary Louise Clark to Otis Loftin Williamson, of Sanford, which occurred in Bennettsville, S. C. April 13. The marriage was kept secret a short time.

The bride is the youthful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, of Sanford formerly of Mount Airy, and left here a year ago with her parents a mere school girl. The groom is also youthful and has the contract for handling the in-coming and out-going mail at Sanford.

Easter Dance

About twenty five couples enjoyed the twenty third annual Easter dance given in the Commercial club rooms Monday evening.

Music was furnished by the Robert E. Lee orchestra of Winston-Salem.

E. B. Eldridge and Rev. C. W. Irvin of Glade Valley were visitors here last week.

Misses W. C. Turner and sisters, Misses Ruth and Georgia Soyars of Max Meadows, Va., passed through the city Monday en route from attending the Easter services in Winston-Salem.

New Pastor Called

Rev. Gibson Davis Has Accepted Call to Pastorate of First Baptist Church

Those who met the Rev. Gibson Davis, or heard him preach when he visited this city several weeks ago, will learn with delight that he has accepted the call to the pastorate extended to him by the officials of the First Baptist church.

The Rev. Mr. Davis is a young married man and comes highly recommended, both he and his wife are gifted musicians.

It will probably be a month before he can be relieved from his present duties in Cynthiana, Ky., after which time he and his wife and child will be domiciled at the First Baptist parsonage.

Coon-Baxter

A marriage which came as a surprise to most of the friends of the young couple was solemnized at the parsonage of Muir's chapel at Foreston Wednesday afternoon of last week at 2:30 o'clock when Miss Elizabeth Coon, of Wilson, became the bride of John T. Baxter Jr., Rev. E. E. Williamson pastor of the chapel, officiated.

The bride until her marriage was a student at North Carolina college. She was a member of the sophomore class this year. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coon, of Wilson, and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Sparger of this city. Her father, who is superintendent of schools of Lenoir county is well known in state education circles. Mrs. Baxter is a very charming young woman and quite popular where ever she is known.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Baxter, of Spring Garden street extension, Greensboro. The young man is connected with the North Carolina Car Service association which had headquarters at High Point.

The ceremony was very quiet and was witnessed only by a few friends and relatives of the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. Baxter left for Asheville for a bridal trip. On their return they will be at home in Pomona.

Mount Airy Boy Weds in New York

News has been received here of the marriage of Bryon Gentry, formerly of this city, to Miss Eleanor Bartley which took place at the home of the bride's parents Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock Richmond Hill, New York city. Mr. Gentry is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gentry of this city and since he completed his education he has spent much of his time in Washington and New York, he is now employed with the Western Electric Co. in New York and after their return from a bridal trip to Boston they will be at home in their own home in that city.

Lineback-Sumpter

A very quiet marriage took place Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Haymore when Miss Clara Lineback became the bride of Trig B. Sumpter, of Bluefield, W. Va., the Rev. Mr. Haymore officiating.

The bride is the youthful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lineback of this city. She was attractively attired in a costume of dark blue crepe with accessories in Alice blue.

The groom is a valued employee of the Mount Airy Mantel and Table company and a native of Bluefield, W. Va.

They are now at home at the residence of the bride's parents on Worth street.

College Girl Campers

A party of seven students of Salem College, Winston-Salem chaperoned by a teacher spent Easter camping on the lawn of the C. Binder home, on Pine street. The party was composed of Miss Chase, teacher, from Massachusetts, Misses Mirlam Breits, Selma, Elizabeth Tyler, Bristol, Tenn. Lois Culler, Kernersville, Agnes Carlton, Margaret Hannah, Eloise Willis all of Winston-Salem and Flora Binder of this city.

A Bridge Party

Miss Isabel Smith entertained Tuesday evening at two tables of bridge honoring Misses Irene Dobbins, Ethel Haynes and Elizabeth Long who leave soon for a distant city to enter a hospital for nurse training.

Other guests were Miss Jeannette Culverhouse, of Florida, guest of Miss Long. Misses Eleanor Hill, Lessie Smith, Nell Folger and Mrs. H. H. Lewellyn.

Mrs. Lewellyn won the prize a hand carved ivory pendant.

Frozen fruit salad, sandwiches, iced tea and mints were served.

Mr. Clark Kitchen, of Arizona, visited his sister Mrs. C. G. Croveling here last week returning to his home after accompanying the remains of his father to Pennsylvania for burial.

REV. MR. PARDUE CLOSES HIS MEETINGS.

Seven Weeks of Service in This Community Brings Splendid Results.

Evangelist Tom L. Pardue closed a two weeks' revival meeting at Haymore Memorial Baptist church Sunday night. The meeting was a great success and large crowds attended every service. More than 125 professions were made and the membership of the church was greatly increased. The baptismal service will be held at some future date when the pastor, Rev. J. H. Fulghum, can be present. At present he is in the north working in the interest of Mountain Park school.

The termination of the meeting Sunday night marked the close of a series of revivals that Rev. Mr. Pardue has held in this section during the past seven weeks. At the aFancy Gap Baptist church his meeting resulted in the addition of 30 members to the church, and more than 100 have been received into the Flat Rock church where he held his first series of meetings.

Rev. Mr. Pardue will come back to Flat Rock church Thursday night and preach every night until Sunday night. On Sunday afternoon the baptismal services will be held for the Flat Rock church, when he will baptize from 75 to 100 candidates for that church.

From here the evangelist goes to El kin to hold a meeting in his large tent.

Buster Brown Here Friday

Buster Brown and his wonderful dog "Tige" were here Friday and word was sent to the primary schools that he would talk to the children at the theatre immediately after school and soon every available seat was taken and then there was not room for all who wanted to see Buster and Tige.

Buster carried a lot of educational picture slides in addition to his usual stunts and my! what a good time the little folks had.

A Robber of "Man Power"

Don't let constipation rob you of either brain power or physical energy. Unchecked, it will do both. Chamberlain's Tablets, convenient to take, unobtrusive and gentle in action, entirely without unpleasant after effect stimulate the entire intestinal tract, and are exactly fitted to the needs of both business and sedentary people.

Dressing the Children

It is no longer a problem to keep the children well dressed at moderate cost, as our present showing of children's wear will quickly prove to the mothers who come here shopping.
