ELKIN MEN GIVEN HEAVY FINES IN IREDELL
D. L. Mayberry Loses Car and Draws $800 Fine; Three Others Fined $750 Each
 Statesville, May 15.—After a trial of intense interest lasting for nearly two days, Judge A. L. Starr, of the Iredell county recorder's court, rendered his decision late yesterday evening in the case of D. L. Mayberry M. M. Mayberry and T. J. Carter, of Elkin, and P. H. Booe, of Winston-Salem, who were arraigned on a number of charges growing out of the trouble at the Harmony school commencement Thursday evening which led to the killing of E. L. Swaim, of Jonesville.
 The young men were under the influence of liquor, according to the testimony of witnesses, attacked and seriously injured Harden Lazenby, and by their violent conduct created much excitement at Harmony, even resisting the interference of officers. During the trouble, a bullet was fired by some unknown person from the rear of the car occupied by the young men, and passing through Swaim's head, resulted in his death a few hours later. Charges of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill cursing on the public highway and in a public place, possessing and transporting liquor, and operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor were brought against the defendants, D. L. and M. M. Mayberry, T. J. Carter and P. H. Booe, County Solicitor John G. Lewis was assisted in the prosecution by W. D. Turner; the defendants were represented by Grier and Grier, of Statesville, J. H. Burke, of Taylorsville; and Harry Barkley, of Elkin.
 After the case was ably argued by both the prosecution and the defense, Judge Starr ruled that the large Studebaker car occupied by the young men should be forfeited and its owner, D. L. Mayberry, should pay fines aggregating $800 and costs; the other defendants were each fined $750 and costs and required to give bonds for good behavior, the dates for their appearance in court here being July and January, next.

VACATION time... home coming... the sharp-eyed little stranger... how many a daughter finds her social standing strengthened or impaired by her guest's impression of the home she lives in.

Your daughter who loves her home so well can see nothing but beauty in it, but you can't expect her guests to overlook the untidy truth of dingy, dull or shabby floors.

Japanese Import Wheat
 Vancouver, B. C.—Advances in the price of native rice are forcing Japan to buy Canadian wheat in heavy quantities, according to T. Shimusaki, representative of a Tokio milling firm, who is investigating the wheat situation.
 Mr. Shimusaki said Canadian wheat could be imported by Japan at about 1 cent a bushel cheaper than Japanese wheat could be produced and was much cheaper than rice. The Japanese people, he added, have come to prefer wheat to rice.
 Japan has imported 80,000 tons of Canadian wheat in the last three months according to statistics of the port of Vancouver. China also has been a heavy purchaser, taking 120,000 tons.

The Verdict of Old-Timers: Nothing to compare with the delicate and delicious flavor of the real Orange-Crush!

Here are six reasons: (1) The natural fruit oil of oranges; (2) The natural acid of citrus fruits (oranges, lemons and limes); (3) Orange juice; (4) Pure carbonated water; (5) U. S. Certified food color; (6) Pure cane sugar. My, what a drink!
