OLD COUPLE BANK 30-YEAR SAVINGS

Take Their Pennies and Dollars to Greensboro Institution In Two Meal Sacks

A man and a woman, gray, toll worn and stooped with age, and a stalwart young man, perhaps, 25 years old, entered the American Exchange National Bank of Greensboro recently just as the day's business was getting well underway, says the Greensboro News.

On his shoulder the old man carried a small meal sack. It was bulging with money. The younger man carried one also. The two sacks contained $2,900 in currency and silver.
The elderly people were man and wife. The savings of the couple for the past 30 years were contained in the little meal bags. The young man was a friend and neighbor.

The three made their way to the window at the savings department.
"Is this here the bank?" the old man said. Then he looked about with a considerable show of curiosity. It was a novel experience. Neither the man nor the woman could read or write and they were about to entrust their hard earned savings to the care of a bank for the first time in their lives. For 30 years, week by week and month by month they had watched their meager savings slowly grow.
Pennies, nickles, dimes, quarters and sometimes dollars they had placed from time to time in a cache at their home.

Two employes in the savings department took the situation in hand.
Considerable diplomacy was needed.
The young man had evidently persuaded his neighbors to put their money in a bank but when the aged couple reached the bank they had to be reassured they were doing the right thing.

Everything had to be explained, and the money pennies, nickles, dimes, quarters, halves and dollars had to be carefully counted. With the preliminaries over the old man dumped the meal sacks on the ledge of the grated window. The count started.
First the young man counted, then the bank employes. The entire transaction required nearly two hours.

Once the old man stopped the bank employee as he was counting dollars.
"Here, here" he said, "not so fast." I didn't make it that fast. I got to see that its all there. His wife smiled faintly. She watched the counting, fascinated.

A little sack containing 1,800 pennies was dumped out of one of the meal sacks.

"I'll take your count on that just to save time," said the bank employe, pleasantly.

"No-sir-ee," said the old man.
"Don't you do that. I don't take yourn. Better count 'em. See if they're all there." They were.

When bank employes told the de-positors what amount they could draw in interest on their deposit they were frankly delighted. But something akin to regret was registered upon their faces when they were informed that they had lost approximately $600 in interest by allowing their savings to remain at home instead of in the bank all these years.
"We'll come back and put in some more before long," said the old man.
His wife nodded assent.

The transaction over, the three left the bank well pleased. But 10 minutes had scarcely elapsed before they were back in a hurry. Their little passbook, the one they had just received, was lost. What could be done?
Could it be that the savings of 30 years had vanished so suddenly? But the bank employes assuaged these fears. A duplicate passbook was issued and once again the three departed.

The man and wife and their young neighbor live in Guilford county within a few miles of the city.

Vote For George K. Snow For Recorder

In The Democratic Primary To Be Held On The 26th of July, 1924

By every test that can be made to determine the measure of a man George Snow qualifies for the office.

You should vote for him because:

He received his academic and a part of his legal education at a Christian College. His best assets are a high Christian character and an absolutely clean life.

A public-spirited citizen, he has given of his time and money to every worthy public enterprise of this community—religious, educational, charitable and patriotic.

He has a trained mind and recognized ability.

He stands for strict law enforcement, with fear nor favor to no man, and does not ask the support of any person who does not favor strict enforcement.

He is the only ex-soldier who has asked for elective office in Mount Airy township. He volunteered in 1917 for service in the United States Army and served in France. George Snow returned to us, his own home folks, a commissioned officer with a perfect service record. He had offered his all for his country, for the home folks, for the profiteers, for all those who were safe on this side of the water. In 1917 we asked the Boys to keep the faith. We said that those who met the test then would be the leaders afterward. George Snow kept the faith then, he has kept the faith in peace no less than in war. We should keep faith with him.
The war may be over now for some of us but for George Snow the war will never be over in this life, for his loss in that war is constantly with him.

He is not asking election on his war record—he has, in abundance, all other necessary qualifications for the office—but his record when the nation called foreshadowed a useful life given to unselfish service in time of peace, and it is one of the reasons why he is entitled to your support in this primary.

He is a loyal Democrat who has never scratched a ticket.

He is a licensed attorney-at-law.

He is a christian gentleman by precept and example.

He will administer the affairs of this Court of Justice intelligently, tactfully, and fearlessly.

GIVE HIM YOUR VOTE. DON'T LET THE POLL WORKERS VOTE FOR YOU. USE YOUR OWN VOTE AS YOU WILL.

Whose Judgment May Be Trusted to Manage Your Property?

Before you make this important choice you owe it to yourself, and to those whom you wish to benefit, to compare the admittedly superior advantages offered by a good bank possessing the qualifications of any individual you might select to act as your executor and trustee. Many people have an impression that the expert administration of an estate by a big organization like the Bank of Mount Airy costs more than the services of an individual trustee. Let us begin, therefore with the fact that these fees are established by law; that they are the same whether an institution of trust acts as your executor or an individual, and that they are exceedingly moderate in North Carolina, being based on the amount of principal and income received and paid out. Moreover the total final charges against an estate are usually less when a bank serves as executor and trustee.

THE BANK OF MOUNT AIRY
Acts as Administrator, Executor, Guardian and Trustee.

ATTENTION FARMERS!

Surry Agricultural Credit Corporation is a newly organized bank to fill the needs of those interested in Agriculture of Surry and adjoining counties. We make loans on Tobacco participating certificates, personal notes, deed of trust, etc., that any other bank can. And our terms and rates are best suitable for farmers and under our plan there is no limit to amount of money we can loan. We want you to come in our office and let us explain to you the plans. And we feel that we can save you money as we have fully demonstrated to 300 farmers this spring that our plans are best, as we have saved the farmers of this section near the amount of our capital stock in discounting their Guano bills, etc.

Keep this one idea in your head—you can not pay your bills, put your children in school and sow a grain crop by October first. Under our plan you get longer time to do this in. You save interest, and after all you will get a part of the earnings.
This is worth while your consideration and when in town drop in to see us and get a drink of ice water while we talk the matter over. Our business is especially adapted to your wants and needs.
