

Carolina-Virginia FAIR

MOUNT AIRY, N. C.

5 Days --- Sept. 30 : Oct. 4

FREE Acts

Berlo Sisters

In a High, Trick, Fancy Diving display that is peerless—an array of American Beauties with form supreme—They flash through the air in a series of thrilling daring dives.

RAYMOND & MAISON

Lady and gentleman in "Did You See It." Mildred Maison, ex-Sennett picture beauty certainly looks like a "Million Dollars"—Nature has been kind to her—Sure fire laugh promoter, concluding with the Rocking Table Finish.

LES DE KOCH TROUPE

Acrobats and Equilibrists, Extraordinary, introducing "Rags" the famous and only canne acrobatic understander in the world.

THE GREAT KABILL

The Master Gymnast

Sensational Flying Breakaway Trapee. The Aerial Demon, reaturing his thrilling Cloud Swing and Startling Drops. Class and then more class.

MISS WEST

The Great Equestrian Act—High School Horse—An Attraction that pleases.

BOB HUTCHINSON

Noted clown and his understudy will furnish a laugh and plenty of fun.

HIGGINS BAND

16 Pieces. Concerts twice daily and Lady Soloist during Races.

Biggest Free Program

Horse and Auto Races

EXHIBITS

The greatest display of Poultry ever seen in Western North Carolina. Poultry show in charge of C. M. Ball.

Agriculture and Live at Home Exhibits for men in charge of J. Luther Wood. Bids fair to be the best ever.

Jersey Cattle Exhibit in charge of J. Everett Hill, will bring out the best specimens of Surry County Jersey Breeders Association, in addition a great many others who are not numbered but claim to have "them beat."

The Dog Show will be in charge of Walter Banner, who says all the boys are going to bring their best dogs and has given me notice to provide more room.

Mrs. J. D. McCollum is clamoring for more space for the Needlework Department.

The Pantry Department, as usual, will be filled to the brim, showing the work of the good housewives of this county.

The Carolina-Virginia fruit growers are going to put an apple display on the entire floor of the Commercial Building, which will be second to none. This display has been advertised over the entire South and will draw a great caravan of visitors from the produce dealers of the entire South.

Fire Works

There are no words to describe the transcending beauty of the many and varied displays to be presented every night.

Fire Works

Auto Races

The big feature of the 1924
Carolina-Virginia Fair

Two Day of Whirl-
Wind Speed

World's Greatest Dirt Track Drivers

Seven big racing events

America's Fastest Cars Competing

Friday and Saturday

Oct. 3rd and 4th

We lived a life of comfort
In Dobson, County-seat,
We farmed a forty acres
That sure was hard to beat.

Misanda used ter help,
Miranda is my wife—
For thirty years we've worked it
With not a sign of strife.

We mostly put our time
In fighting flies and fleas,
Raising spuds and turnips,
Lettuce, corn and peas.

One day I cranked old Henry
And took my wife to see,
The big Fair at Mount Airy,
Where races were to be.

By gum I bought some tickets
Into the big grand stand,
And chewing peanuts settled
To listen to the band.

They had some pony races
And jockeys rode them fast;
The nag I picked to win
Came chugging in at last.

I said, "Miranda listen
I wish I had my hoe,
This grand stand seat is granite,
I'd rather weed a row."

But pretty soon a person
Appeared upon the track,
And shouted to the grand stand,
"We have auto polo back."

Dad ding I never heard
Such awful mad hurrahs,
The grand stand shook and shivered
Because of this applause.

I couldnt guess the reason
Until I saw them start—
By gum, two auto polers,
Up leaped my sinking heart.

Miranda clutched my elbow
And shouted in my ear,
"Oh Hiram ain't this awful,
They'll kill themselves I fear."

But cracky, goah old hemlock,
Those dad-burned fords upset,
They twisted, turned and bumped—
Like two mad-bulls they met.

Miranda fainted right away,
I almost lost my chaw;
I kinda hated looking—
But guess what all I saw.

The auto poler players
Were grinning like to say,
Don't worry Hiram Haysseed,
We do this every day.

Well guess we wer'nt surprised,
And glad them fellers smiled;
Miranda blushed and whispered,
"Hiram, I'm feeling wild."

But soon the fair was over,
The last big game was played,
And when we flivvered home-ward
Our hearts were quite dismayed.

We thought of fleas back home,
And lettuce bugs and lice;
We thought of cheese and crackers,
That's swiped by pesky mice

And then Miranda colored,
And snuggled to my side;
It weren't Miranda's nature,
And filled my heart with pride.

I said, "Miranda honey—
Just like I used ter spark,
We're going every year,
And imitate the lark."

And when those poler fellers
Commence their pesky fun,
We'll sit within the grandstand—
Won't we Miranda Hon'?"

The Greatest Game A Goin'

Auto Polo

The Dynamic Feature of this Year's Fair

The World's Most Sensational
Motor Mania

OLDSNAR AMERICAN TEAM
World's Champions

vs.

BRITISH TEAM
Champions of Europe

Oct. 3rd and 4th