Senator Haymore Continues Ill

For about a month now Senator R. L. Haymore has been a patient at Martin Memorial hospital where he continues to remain in very poor health. Mr. Haymore attended the sessions of the special legislature and then it was learned that his health was not very good. Immediately on his return from Raleigh he entered the hospital where he has since remained. He is suffering from low blood pressure caused by a weak heart.

Bankrupt Stock Sold

A. G. Webb, trustee for the bankrupt stock of J. E. Ayers & Co., this week sold the entire holdings of the company at public auction. The stock and fixtures inventoried at $7,600 were bought by Martin-Brown Co. for $3,400. Fred Quesinberry purchased the new Ford touring car for $295, and the accounts of the firm amounting to $3,800 were bid in by Mrs. Masie Ayers for $205.00.

Death of Prominent Farmer

This section lost one of its best and most progressive farmers last Thursday in the death of J. A. Blue of the White Plains section. Some weeks ago Mr. Blue suffered a slight stroke of apoplexy from which he suffered a great deal. He was carried to a sanitarium at Morganton and remained there for several days after which the doctors decided they could do nothing for him. On his arrival home he gradually grew worse until the end came last Thursday night.

Mr. Blue was about 50 years old and was a leader among the farmers. He took much pride in his orchards in his farm and supplied this market with the choicest of fruits, many of our citizens buying his farm products regularly.

Mrs. Holcomb and Mrs. Merritt Hostesses

On Friday afternoon and night two lovely parties were given at the home of Mrs. William Merritt on Rockford street when Mrs. Merritt and Mrs. Hugh Holcomb entertained at bridge. Mrs. Ransom Weatherman of Winston-Salem, sister of Mrs. Holcomb and Mrs. S. S. Lawrence, of Oklahoma, were honor guests.

The home was beautifully decorated with goldenrod, yellow and green being the keynote color scheme throughout.

At the close of the game a delicious salad course was served by Misses Love Banner, Katherine Price, Bess Merritt, Mary Franklin Graves, Mrs. Joe Haynes, and Mrs. Ed Inman.

To the honor guests the hostesses presented pretty gifts. Top score prizes in the afternoon were won by Mrs. Raymond Sargent and Mrs. Hoffman. Mrs. Whitlock proved most successful in the evening.

About eighty friends enjoyed these delightful affairs.

With the Recorder

The troubles of Allen Brown and Walter Carter, colored were aired in the Recorder's court Monday. They had engaged in a fight which ended in Brown getting shot through the arm by Carter. Carter was bound to Dobson court and Brown paid $25 and the cost for starting the fight.

Martin Parker paid $50 and the cost for driving a car while drunk. Also given eight months suspended sentence to take effect if found drinking in 12 months.

Wade Gardner's former suspended road sentence for being drunk was continued and he was required to reveal the source of his liquor. He is also not to be found drinking in 12 months else the road sentence goes into effect.

Edgar Shaw was bound to Dobson court for stealing an automobile.

Ed Williams paid the cost in his case for not having city license for his car.

Bride and Groom Leave for Bassett

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Norman leave today for their future home in Bassett, Va., after spending a week visiting relatives in this section and attending the Carolina-Virginia fair.

Before their marriage, which occurred at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed Matthews on route 5 Wednesday of last week, Mrs. Norman was Miss Inez Matthews. They will make the trip through the country.

Republican Speaking

Chairman O. B. Webb of the Republican party of this county has booked for speakings in the county between now and the election Jake F. Newell, the H. Hopkins, Republican candidate for governor, and T. C. Carter, who is opposing Major Steidman for Congress.

Mr. Newell will speak at Elkin next Monday night, he then addresses an audience at Dobson at the noon hour next Tuesday, and speaks in the city hall in this city Tuesday night.

Mr. Hopkins' date for the county are: Elkin, Monday night, Oct. 20; Dobson, Tuesday noon, Oct. 21; and Mount Airy Tuesday night, Oct. 21. Mr. Carter will accompany Mr. Hopkins and will address the people at the same hour.

These are considered among the best speakers the state organization of the Republican party has to offer and local Republicans are hoping that their coming will do much toward uniting their ranks for the contest that will be staged in this county on election day between the contending political parties.

Mrs. Combs Hostess for Visitor

Mrs. S. T. Combs was hostess at four tables of bridge Thursday evening honoring her house guest, Mrs. J. K. Davidson, Jr., of Lithonia, Ga.

The high score was held by Mrs. Martin Bennett and cut glass perfume bottles were presented to Mrs. Bennett and the honoree Mrs. Davidson, Jr.

An appetizing salad course and mints were served by Mrs. G. A. Bailey, Mrs. J. D. McCollum and Mrs. Earl Hines.

Beautiful cut flowers furnished the decorations.

Dr. Mitchell in Hospital

Dr. Roy C. Mitchell submitted to an operation for acute appendicitis Wednesday afternoon of last week at Martin hospital.

Returned Missionary to Address Methodist Women

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of Central Methodist church for October will be one that the women of the church can not afford to miss.

Mrs. George Hutchison will preside and the subject will be Japan.

Special features are a letter from Mrs. J. W. Frank, of Japan, wife of Central's representative in the foreign field; an address by Mrs. Shaver wife of a returned missionary from Japan and a recent tour of "Samantha Allen" in Japan, by Mrs. Boyer.

The meeting will be held in the Sparger room of the church Monday at 3 P. M.

Residence Remodeled

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Merritt, who returned from several years residence in California in the spring and have occupied the Gwyn residence on North Main street, will move to J. G. Powell's the last of the week to remain until their new home, formerly the P. A. George residence, on Rockford street is ready for occupancy. Mr. Merritt is having the interior remodeled, new floors laid and other improvements made in his new home which will require several weeks time.

Death of an Infant

Little William Howard the six month old child of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thacker died at the home of his parents Sunday morning after an illness of three weeks. The little fellow was a lovable sweet baby and bore his suffering so patiently.

The funeral was conducted at the home by Mrs. E. G. Key and body interred at Oakdale cemetery, Monday at 3 P. M.

J. M. Patterson's Son Ill

Messages are being received here almost daily about Edward Paterson son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson, of Hazard, Ky., formerly of this city, who is critically ill in a hospital in Bluefield, W. Va.

The boy, who is about nine years old, became ill en route to Bluefield where the family expected to spend Mr. Patterson's vacation.

His intestines and kidneys are involved and grave concern is felt regarding him.
