Several Well Known Citizens of City and County Receiving Treatment at Martin Hospital

Many readers of The News will learn with interest the condition of a number of people of this city and county who are now patients at Martin Memorial hospital in this city. For many weeks Dr. Bob Hollingsworth underwent treatment at the hospital and some time ago he submitted to an operation. Since then he has continued to improve and it will not be long before Dr. Bob will again be out.

Miss Alice Homet, teacher at the Rockford street school is recovering from an appendicitis operation.

Eugene Schuyler, postmaster at Lowgap, returned to his home Wednesday. Mr. Schuyler was a very sick man when he entered the hospital and he owes his recovery to the skill and attention of the doctors and nurses. Mrs. E. M. Martin submitted to an operation for appendicitis last Friday. She is steadily improving.

Phillip Warshaw, Mount Airy merchant, while away the time tinkering with his radio which he has installed for gall stones some weeks ago and it was not long thereafter when he began to call for his radio. Now he entertains the entire upper floor with the instrument and he can tune in on the stock markets of New York and Chicago at will and keep in touch with market conditions.

N. E. Alberty, of Fairview, a brother of Sheriff Alberty, is a patient at the hospital suffering with heart trouble. His condition is very serious and little hope is entertained of any improvement. He also has a son who is being treated for pleurisy by Dr. Martin in the hospital.

J. R. McKinney returned to his home Tuesday following successful repairs to a broken ankle. He is still tightly strapped up and it will be some time before he will have full use of his limb.

Mrs. L. I. Martin continues to improve following an operation some weeks ago, and expects to be able to return home in a few days.

L. R. Sparger, salesman for Hollingsworth Drug Co., was operated on last Friday for gall bladder, and is on the road to recovery.

R. C. Brown, superintendent of the North State Granite Co., has been a patient at the hospital for several days. He was operated on Monday for ulcer of the stomach.

Richard Martin, son of Dr. Moir S. Martin, remains right sick. "Dick", as he is popularly known, was making a splendid record as a student in the High School and would have graduated this year, but was taken ill several weeks ago and has been receiving treatment at the hospital. He is suffering with the disease known as "sleeping sickness," which is brought on by inflammation of the brain. Recovery from it is very long and drawn-out and Dick has the best wishes of our folks for an early restoration of health.

Miss Jessie Wood, daughter of W. H. Wood of White Plains, submitted to a serious operation Wednesday.

Holcomb Apartment House Rented

Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews, who recently leased the P. & H. cafeteria, have taken over Mrs. F. D. Holcomb's apartment house on Pine street and are now prepared to accommodate the public with steam heated rooms as well as to furnish meals.

Mrs. Holcomb will retain her living rooms and the Matthews family will also have living rooms in the Holcomb house.
