Mr. Hutchens has erected a new building on South Main street especially for the laundry and has installed a large amount of machinery of the latest design in the laundry line. The outfit he has constructed represents an outlay of about $12,000.00 and has been installed with a view to caring for the demands of the city for a number of years as its growth increases.

Dies After Short Illness

Thomas J. Thompson, prominent and influential citizen of the Kapps Mill section, died at his home Thursday morning of cancer. He had been critically ill for two days prior to his passing. He was one of the largest land owners of that section of the county, and his death is a keen loss. He was 69 years of age and is survived by his wife and one brother William Thompson. The funeral was conducted from Mountain Park Baptist church.

Surprise Birthday Dinner

About fifty friends of John Kirkman gathered at his home on route 2 Sunday to celebrate his 53rd birthday with a feast which was enjoyed on the lawn. The gathering was a surprise to Mr. Kirkman.

No Sympathy Asked

"My wife belongs to so many clubs and societies that I see her only about an hour a day."

"You poor fellow!"

"Oh, that's all right. An hour soon passes."

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank our many friends and neighbors for their sympathy shown us, kind deeds done, kind words of consolation spoken during the long illness and at the death of Floyd, our beloved little boy. Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Hutchins.

Miss Galloway Bride of Mr. Southland

The following announcement will be read with interest by many friends of the bride in this section. "Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Galloway announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret Cardwell, to Mr. Charles Woodman Southland on Monday, April the twenty-seventh, Wilmington, North Carolina. 'At home' 1701 Market Street." The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. ### McKnight's Healing Spring Water

I am now ready and prepared to ship and deliver McKnight's Healing Water, 100 per cent pure. All who want it delivered to their homes call phone No. 201. Analysis of this water may be read any time at my office.

M. T. McKnight, Proprietor, Mount Airy, N. C.

Marion, N. C., April 20th, 1925.

McKnight Healing Springs, Mr. M. T. McKnight, Mount Airy, N. C.

Dear Sir:

It gives me very great pleasure to recommend your Healing Spring Water. Last year I was almost down with kidney trouble and I have been drinking your water and apparently I am now sound and well, and have taken nothing but the water as cure.

Therefore, I wish to tell any and everybody suffering from kidney trouble, Bright's, etc., that your water was a perfect specific for my trouble.

Yours truly, R. G. FINLEY.

Rev. E. E. Snow Will Preach—High School Chorus Sing

Central Methodist Church Will Hear Rev. Sun Next Sunday—Other Church News

Rev. E. E. Snow, of Rural Hall, will fill the pulpit at Central Methodist church next Sunday morning. The Rev. Mr. Snow is Mount Airy's own and is a son of this church which will hear him gladly.

Music for the morning service will be furnished by the high school chorus under the direction of Miss Marian Dobson, which is of itself an assurance of a full house as the singing of these young people, so ably directed, is well worth hearing.

In the evening Rev. J. W. S. Walker of the Mount Airy circuit will preach at 7.30.

The Workers' council of the Sunday school will meet Friday evening.

The Epworth league program, given so successfully by Central Methodist leaguers at Hatcher's chapel recently will be repeated next Sunday at Oak Grove at 7.30 P. M. Cars will be furnished to convey the members from the church to Oak Grove.

Rev. H. K. Boyer, D. D. and Mrs. Boyer leave Friday for the home of Mrs. Boyer's sister, Mrs. Saunders, at Seven Mile Ford, Va. Dr. Boyer will go from there to Nashville, Tenn. to attend a meeting of the General Board of Missions and Mrs. Boyer will remain with her sister until his return.

The Woman's Missionary society will be hostess to the members of the Josephine Frank Missionary society Monday evening May 4 at 7.30 o'clock. A full attendance of the members of both societies is desired.

The meeting will be held in the banquet hall of the church and reports from the delegates to the Annual Conference will be heard at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, of Junction City, Kansas, were admitted to the church by letter Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson are housekeeping in an apartment in the Woodruff home on Church street.

C. of C. Meet Saturday

The Col. B. Y. Graves C. of C. will meet Saturday afternoon May 2nd at 2.30 with Blanche Halt and Sarah Scott Gwyn, at their home on North Main street.

Those of you who forgot to bring the handkerchief to send to the Soldiers' Home please bring it to this meeting, also the 25 cents for our scholarship fund. Leader.

First Baptist Church

E. Gibson Davis, Pastor.
Bible School ..... 9.45 a. m.
Morning worship ..... 11.00 a. m.
E. Y. F. U. .... 7.00 p. m.
Evening service ..... 8.00 p. m.
Prayer and praise service, Wednesday ..... 8.00 p. m.

You will please note change of time in the evening hour of services. They begin one-half hour later. The pastor preaches next Sunday morning and evening on the following subjects, "Grieving the Spirit," and "The Clean Path For Youth." The message of the morning will be the first in a series of morning messages bearing on the deeper Christian life. The evening message will be the first of a series on first-hand problems for youth, particularly adapted however to men and women of all ages.

We extend a hearty invitation to all. Let mothers come, as we have a nursery under competent supervision and the children will be well taken care of. Let us put Christ first in our lives at this time of the year.

Change in Train Schedule

Agent M. A. Pendleton, of the A. & Y. railway, announces the following changes in the schedule of the passenger trains arriving in this city.

No. 30 will leave at 8:40 A. M. in the future instead of 8:15.

No. 33 which has been arriving in this city at 11:30 has been moved up to 11:35.

No. 32 will leave at 2.40 P. M.—10 minutes earlier than the old schedule.

No. 31 will arrive at the usual hour 7.50 P. M.

The above changes are made to conform with a re-arrangement of some of the schedule on the main lines and also to permit connection at Rural Hall with the Wilkesboro trains.
