Bride Injured and Groom Killed by Railway Train

Salisbury, May 20.—A grade crossing accident at Landis today just before noon turned a wedding day into one of death and sadness and instead of the young couple being married, the groom-to-be, Charles M. Lomax is in a local morgue and the bride-to-be, Miss Pauline Caster, is in a local hospital, with only a slight chance of recovery.

Mr. Lomax and Miss Caster had just visited the office of Dr. O. L. Black at Landis and secured the physician's certificates that would enable them to secure marriage license. Leaving the office to come to Salisbury to secure the license and be married here, the couple was stopped at a nearby railroad crossing while a freight train passed going south.

Other cars were stopped by the freight and as soon as it passed Mr. Lomax attempted to cross. Those in other cars tried to get his attention to warn him of the approach from the south of passenger train No. 36, but failed, and the train hit his car in full view of a number of persons.

Robed Figures Emerge From Woods For Rites

Burlington, May 20.—Funeral service for George E. Howerton, 37, a highly respected young farmer living near Gibsonville, whose death occurred several days ago, was conducted from Frieden's church, by Rev. Mr. McClanahan.

During the service at the grave and near the close of it, ten robed figures marched out of the woods near the burial ground, placed a cross on the mound, and with folded arms stood by until the benediction was said then marched again into the woods.

KINSTON TOBACCONISTS VIEW CHINESE WEED

It Feels Like Tissue Paper and Is Inferior To Home-Grown Product

Kinston, May 21.—Samples of Chinese tobacco sent to Ernest V. Webb, of this city are attracting the attention of growers and warehousemen. The weed is of fair color but unusual thinness. It has a feel similar to tissue paper. The Oriental product falls short of the quality of the famous bright leaf of this belt, according to authorities.

Numbers of Eastern Carolina men are supervising culture of the weed in Shantung and other parts of China. Kinston has four or five representatives in the country back of Shanghai. These report the Chinese to be thorough farmers. Their yield is high. Methods of cultivation are primitive, having undergone no change from those employed by the growers' remotest ancestors. Figures of the total production in the Far East have been carefully guarded, it appears.

Despite the large crops assumed to be made in China, trainloads of tobacco go to Shanghai and Hong-Kong from this belt every year. The demand for cigarettes has increased amazingly in the country, it is said. The war failed to curtail production materially. The celestial addict gives tobacco first consideration and food second.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson To Motor in Europe

Washington, May 20.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson is sailing Saturday from New York to spend the summer motoring in southwestern Europe. She will be accompanied by Miss Belle Baruch of New York, daughter of Bernard M. Baruch, wartime chairman of the war industries board and one of the intimates of the late President Wilson.

Although Mrs. Wilson wanted to avoid public notice of her vacation trip, news of it leaked out when she got her passport today at the state department. Although she has made all of her plans to motor leisurely through France, possibly Belgium and Italy as privately and with as little notice as possible, she necessarily will travel over much of the same ground where she witnessed stirring scenes with her late husband when he made his notable swing of the allied capitals, during the peace conference and was acclaimed with such remarkable demonstrations.

Dies of Effects of Blow at Ball Game

Winston-Salem, May 21.—Fleet Smith, son of J. Henry Smith, and a senior at City High School, died today from the effects of a blow on the head received last Friday while attending a baseball game at the high school grounds. Young Smith was in the bleachers at the time and the ball was thrown from the outfield.

The blow while painful was not considered serious, and Smith was able Sunday to teach his class of boys at the First Baptist Sunday School. Monday he was again stricken, however, and after being removed to a local hospital never regained consciousness. He was a member of the basketball, football and baseball teams of the high school and would have graduated two weeks hence.

STOMACH ILLS
 Mississippian Was Weak, Couldn't Eat Enough.

"I had a bad case of stomach trouble," says Mr. N. A. Smith, of Shaw, Miss. "I couldn't eat enough and was very weak. Everything I ate hurt me, formed gas, and I spit up my food.

"I would feel stupid or staggery. I didn't feel like doing any work. I knew what Black-Draught had done... and I began taking small doses. I certainly got relief. It did me lots of good.

"When I go to town, I look first to see how near out of Black-Draught we are, and then get more. We keep our home remedies and the main one is Black-Draught."

In hundreds of thousands of homes, housekeepers keep Black-Draught as a remedy to relieve indigestion, biliousness, constipation. Containing no harmful or other mineral drugs, Black-Draught is absolutely safe to take for all members of the family.

You should keep Black-Draught always on hand, for use when needed.
