Lynching in Past Six Months Shows Increase Over 1924

Tuskegee, Ala., July 1.—Records compiled by Tuskegee Institute for the first six months of 1925, made public today by E. R. Moten, principal, show nine lynchings. This compares with five for the first six months of 1924, five for the same period of 1923, and 30 for the first half of 1922.

All of the persons lynched were negroes, according to the reports, and the offenses charged included: Murder, four; criminal assault, two; attacking women, one; attacking child two.

The report says that three persons were lynched in Mississippi and one each in Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Utah and Virginia.

Orphanage Gets Rich Gift

Danville, Va., July 10.—An important meeting held by the trustees of Hughes orphanage was held yesterday evening when plans for the structure were definitely approved and when the administrators of the Hughes estate turned over to the board $800,000 in cash and deeds to real estate in Virginia and North Carolina valued at between $350,000 and $500,000.

Execution Paid $2,100

Ossining, N. Y., July 4.—John Hillbert, executioner in Sing Sing prison, completed today a banner year in the collection of fees for putting to death convicted murderers. Hillbert received a total of $2,100 for 14 executions, in addition to his salary as electrician of Auburn prison. In the previous fiscal year he received but $750 for nine executions.

Guiltily

She—"Grieving for your wife, I suppose?" He—"No; I'm worrying for fear she's not grieving for me."

Couldn't Keep Up

"Funny thing about these 15-cent socks." "Wassamatter?" "Every time I walk they run."

Tim—"I attended a wooden wedding today." Eddie—"Who got married?" Tim—"Two Poles."

Wrong

"I argued with the cop, and—" "No you didn't. It isn't done. You mean you argued at the cop."

His Title

Sam—"So you're the circulation manager of the team. What do you do?" Bo—"Why, give them the rubdown."

Foreign Visitors Too

Ida M. Tarbell, the noted author, said in New York the other day: "Foreign visitors to the United States find fault with our political morality. There, perhaps, they have reason. But what don't they find fault with? And where they can't find fault they damn with faint praise."

"A young English nobleman was invited to dinner by a Fifth avenue millionaire. The millionaire showed him his $500,000 Velasquez, and the young man with a yawn pronounced it dubious. He said the Louise Seize comode was dubious, too."

"The dinner could not have been finer, but he yawned through it indifferently. With the coffee a famous Napoleon I brandy was brought on. The millionaire passed it to him and then said anxiously: "What do you think of this brandy, Lord John? Not bad, eh?" "Lord John yawned again."

"Not very," said he."

Gold Crown in Coffin

Near Vilna, Poland, workmen found an iron coffin which contained, besides a skeleton, many objects made of gold and a large number of coins. A finely preserved gold crown was one of the objects found. It was richly studded with precious jewels. The crown is supposed to be one worn by a Lithuanian king centuries ago. The coffin was found in a burial vault of a Lithuanian family. How the crown came to be inside is a mystery.

Sign of Improvement

Goide was working in his garden when the minister passed. "Allow me to congratulate you," said the pastor. "Oh, my garden isn't so much," modestly said Goide.

"I didn't mean that," the minister explained; "this is the first time I ever saw you on your knees."

Up to Date

Lyric Writer—Whatcha doin' now? Composer—I'm rewriting all this barber-shop music to include parts for soprano and contralto voices.

Lacked Positive Proof

Jack—"Do you really think he is in love with you?" Jill—"I don't know. He says he is, but his letters don't sound a bit silly."

Women in Reichstag

The number of women members in the German Reichstag has been increased from 28 to 32 as a result of the latest elections.

Canada Sells Millions Worth of Whiskey Here

Ottawa, July 4.—Whiskey, ale and beer valued at $12,284,987 were exported to the United States from Canada during the 12 months which ended May 31, official trade returns of the dominion bureau of statistics show.

Whiskey exports increased by 14,004 gallons over the previous year, 462,032 gallons worth $7,845,890 being shown on the export list during the last 12 months.

A large decrease both in imports and exports with the United States for the last 12 months is shown in official reports.

Value of imports declined $72,000,000 while exports to the United States decreased $5,000,000. The import decreases were largely among the minerals with a drop of six millions in fibres and textiles and three millions in wood and paper.

Class of Deaf Mutes "Hear" Bible Lectures

Shelby, July 10.—Shelby perhaps has the state's most unique Bible class. Oft times have outsiders heard of the big Bible class taught by Clyde R. Hoey and the one that listens Sunday after Sunday to O. Max Gardner, but this one is far more unusual. Every other Sunday there gathers in Shelby between 60 and 70 deaf mutes, thought to be the largest class of its kind in this entire section, who are taught by Mr. Andrew C. Miller, Jr., a son of Mr. A. C. Miller, Sr., retired textile manufacturer. Mr. Miller is himself a mute and the class he has organized and teaches has his own idea. The class hears the Bible lecture, prays and even sings in the sign language. The singing is led by the wife of Mr. Miller and signs are used entirely.

There are some 200 deaf mutes in Cleveland, Gaston, Rutherford and Lincoln counties and it is the hope of Mr. Miller to have all of these in his class within a few months.

Killed By Jumping From Burning Car

Atlanta, Ga., July 4.—H. F. Taylor, of Macon, Ga., pilot of the Mercedes, was instantly killed, and another speed pilot narrowly escaped death when he jumped from a burning automobile, at the Fourth of July racing program at Lakeland park this afternoon.

Taylor was killed when his machine crashed into a fence.

Dick Ryan, of Atlanta, piloting a Dodge special, not only saved his own life but perhaps the lives of many others by piloting his burning machine into a nearby lake, thereby preventing an explosion. He dived from his car as it hit the water. Taylor was hard pressed by another driver on a curve and accidentally guided his machine into a fence, meeting instant death. Thousands witnessed the accident.

Died in Room Where He Was Married

Williamston, July 4.—Martin county lost one of its oldest and most respected citizens recently when J. A. Martin died. About three years ago he was struck with paralysis and had been in declining health until death. He was 75. In the room where he died, 47 years ago he was married to Miss Laura Burroughs. He left four children.

AGENCY
PILOT LIFE INSURANCE CO.
GREENSBORO, N. C.
A Good Sign
Hang It Over Your Door
The Pilot wants a representative in Mount Airy. Not a sitter, but a go-getter. Not a man who expects the world to drop plums into his lap, but one who has an eye for opportunity, gumption to seize it and energy to make it pay.
Some men who can sell anything through personality are absolutely short on service. The Pilot wants a man of intelligence, clean record, and ideals. The Pilot will teach him how to write Pilot policies.
There is nothing difficult about it, for the man who really tries. The Pilot is one of the pioneer Carolina life insurance companies, established 20 years ago, sound, solid, successful, growing more powerful every year. In spite of business depression in 1924, the Pilot showed a 25% increase of new business written as against an average of 8% for the whole country. There is real opportunity in tying up with an organization that is going ahead like this.
