

Better Baby Chicks

"Bred for Winter Layers"
From the Best Single Comb White Leghorn Blood in America

Highest Production Tancreed males mated with 200-eggers and better. Highest Production Ferris males mated with 200-eggers and better. Ferris Highest Type Show males mated with 200-eggers and better. And a few good matings headed by unpedigreed sires for less money. Come and see our flock and the matings and look our hatchery over, then come out after Jan. 1st and see the chicks, such chicks as you never saw before—chicks that live and grow from our own egg producing, winter laying, money making leghorns, and then too, we have pure-bred R. I. Reds, Rocks, Orpingtons and Wyandottes from other flocks, that we sell for broilers.

50,000 Better Baby Chicks

This season we will hatch only 50,000 chicks, keep 10,000 and sell you 40,000. This is not many chicks but when you get in position to furnish as some hatching eggs worth while we will increase our hatching capacity and turn out lots of them, then we will all be in better standing with our banker if the rest of the world does go a little shy on "chewing and smoking."

Prices on Baby Chicks

Chicks from our best Leghorn matings in less than 1,000 lots 20c each, in over 1,000 lots 18c each. Chicks from our good Leghorn matings in less than 1,000 lots 17c each in more than 1,000 lots 15c each. Heavies for broilers in less than 1,000 lots 18c each, in more than 1,000 lots 16c each. Mixed for broilers in less than 1,000 lots 17c each; in more than 1,000 lots 15c each.

These chicks that we are offering for broilers are pure-bred and will make you fine stock to keep at home. We want eggs from pure-bred heavy varieties and will pay a nice price for same, but will not accept small or rough shell eggs.

Remember that we will have only 40,000 chicks to sell this season and as we are advertising in all the southern poultry and agricultural papers they will soon be sold, therefore, if you want to get the best and at the same time give us a chance to make a lasting customer out of you mail your order now, enclosing 20 per cent of total amount and we will make delivery any time you wish up until Jan. 1st, 1926.

Thank you for reading this ad, and we trust you will stick it away for further reference as you will want to do business with us sooner or later. Write for Mating List and poultry equipment catalog.

Yours for better poultry,
Sunset Poultry Farm and Hatchery

Mrs. Bivens Card Hostess

Mrs. E. C. Bivens was hostess to the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club and other friends from 3 to 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon with Miss Margaret Ashby bride, guest of honor.
Christmas greens and lighted red candles made effective decorations and at the close of the game the visitors' high score was held by Mrs. John Sobotta and the club high score by Mrs. E. H. Dixon and they were suitably rewarded. Mrs. C. W. Andrew was consoled, for low score, with a miniature Santa Claus and two dainty green glass perfume bottles were presented to Miss Ashby, the guest of honor.
Refreshments in two courses, a salad course followed by boiled custard, cake, and stuffed dates was served by Misses Love Banner, Grace Foy, Tyson, Madames Alfred Bedgett and J. D. Jenkins.

Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. McKinney Entertain
The Mission Study class of Central Methodist Church was delightfully entertained by Mrs. R. H. Leonard and Mrs. E. F. McKinney at Mrs. Leonard's home last Thursday.
The home was beautifully decorated with holly, poinsettias and brass candlesticks with red candles.
Mrs. McKinney gave an interesting Christmas Bible lesson using famous pictures, "The Night" by Correggio, "Announcement to the Shepherds" by Ploekhorst, and "The Assumption of the Virgin" by Murillo.
The study of the lesson was taken up with Mrs. McKinney leader.
Each member was presented with a beautiful hand painted book and pencil and in this book were nineteen frightful questions about Latin America to be answered. Mrs. Leonard called it an intelligence test.
Refreshments consisting of salad, sandwiches, coffee and assorted candies were served by Laura Niel Leonard and Louise McKinney.
Then Santa Claus entered with his sleigh laden with Christmas boxes filled with good things for everyone.
One of the most enjoyable features of the program was Christmas music—selections from Handel's Messiah rendered by the Orthophonic Vetro-la through the courtesy of Carter-Walker Furniture Co.

Geo. L. Carter is Injured By Fall

Last week while inspecting the repair work being done on his house Mr. Carter fell and has been in bed since.
Mr. Carter was examining the work on the front porch roof and his feet slipped on the smooth surface. He rolled from the roof and it seemed that he was in danger of falling on the concrete walk below. Fortunately he was able to grab one of the grape vines growing around the porch and broke the force of his fall. The family physician was called from Bristol and he reported that one rib was broken and that the patient should remain in bed. Mr. Carter is improving rapidly, however and it is hoped will be out in a few days.—Hillsville News.
