POLITICS AT WHITE HEAT

The folks who know say that this osts that this need. Two try has ever of it and then it will be all over but the shouting. Most of us will agree that we will get, along some way no matter how the scales turn. You can find knowing ones who will tell you that it is sure to be a majority for the dominant party. What confuses is that so many oters especially the women, are not up with the party. Descriing enemy, their friends say. Leaving us at a time when they are most needed. If they had lived thirty years ago they would have been found in the ranks of the prohibition party that never did anything but make promises. Prohibition came by way ot the regular political parties and not by the newly formed prohibition party that never did anything but confuse a few ardent folks who were in a hurry for results. The mills of the Gods grind slowly, but these ardent ones could never believe it. They went to the prohibition party. Some one had the impudence to remark just the other day that no liv-ing man ever attended a banquet given for the return of a political ligal son. No fatted calf ever lost his life to do honor to the man or woman who sorrowfully returned home to the fold after grazing for a time in the pasture of the political enemy. No dance was ever staged for these political prodigals who left home when the old folks were the busiest with the political harvest and pined for the help of these lusty ones the most. No finger of one of these political prodigals ever displayed a ring placed there by the aged political leader who saw the wandering one return to the fold. Oh well, we will forget it all in a short time after the election and get busy with the affairs of life and another campaign in which we will find something to make speeches about. It has ever been thus. But we never had our wives and daughters deserting us before. You have to admit we are up against something new under the sun. But we will find some way to even matters up we suppose.

It would be interesting to 'know by what mental process of reasoning the conclusion is reached that all the folks who have carried the political banner for years are now false leaders and can no longer be followed. It is harsh to say it and it is not true in every case, but it is freely charged people is not much removed from a that most of the folks who are not plain fool, for in time he will get it voting it straight this year have not been voting it straight in other years. This is not their first excursion into the pasture of our political neighbor. we will soon f rget it av sent in some way, and the only way or can think by which he can over-some his inferiority complex, (he will be know what we are saying but you [L.) and so he shows off by buing and and dashing along in a way to nake every other person shudder at dis recklegeness. The fear of the law apon that you can use a backward creature. in this kind of a back He too often is in the even if he has been in at one d a college and out at another. He is most likely some unfortunate crea-ture who got spoiled in raising, got will tell you that it is sure to be a Hoover victory and that North Caro-lina will give a Republican majority. You can also find knowing ones who predict that Smith is going to be elected by a safe majority and that North Carolina will pile up her usual majority for the dominant party. What canceler the statement of the store has been able to get since his mother had to shove him away to make room for another babe. A man of this type can be made to stay in his place by law. be made to stay in his place by law, for he is fearful of the law as nor-mal people are not. Let him get it into his head that the law is after him and he will get in his place in-

> The sooner all thinking awake to all this the better it will be for the general public. The general public made the roads and uses them. To endanger travel for the masses by the silly ways of a few is the heighth of folly. Now don't you think so, too?

A TEACHER, A THIEF AND A CONVICT

Some combination we are writing about-a teacher a thief and a convict. But such is the story. Prof. Pendergraph, of this city is the owner of a nice car that he uses in his school work and one Geo. White is a citizen the story. One night a short time ago Prof. Pendergraph had his car stolea. In a few days it was located in Leaks-ville and returned to the owner. Geo. Next Tuesday Oct. 30th, at 2 p. m. White was charged with taking the where his people live. Along with him at the time he took the car was Lex Newman who proved to be an escaped convict having yet five months to serve of his term. Now Newman is committees will meet at the

THE DISREGARD FOR LAW

The liquor people say that the present effort to enforce prohibition is responsible for the break down of respect for all law. It may be that they are right. If they are not right then how are you to account for the good people to violate so many laws? | us that it will be his policy to have As we see it, there is no connection in his office, if he is the choice of the between the disposition to violate all lawlessness to a moral awakening in this way he will himself not be such as prohibition. Of course there will always be those who are not advanced enough to line up with any forward move such as prohibition is. But we started out to write about the fearful loss of life and property and happiness due to the violation of the well as the importance of a sheriff as rules of the road. One can never go out on the highway for an outing this line and we believe that his without coming in contact with some one now known as a road hog. It is a very good name, but an even strong-er name would be justifiable. The iner name would be justifiante. The in-teresting thing about it is that there are a few citizens in every communi-ty who are already locally known as
