Concerning the question raised is to whether the Jefferson Davis Monument Association has "lived up " the terms of its charter, and has now any legal existence, ex-Judge George L. Christian a leading lawyer of Richmond, Va., and for a long time president of the Richmond chamber of nmerce, writes to one of the evening papers as follows: "I am one of the corporators and diectors maned in the charter and feel he deepest interest in the necomplish-ment of the purpose for which the as-occution was organized. There is no such provision in it about an annual meeting, and the election of officers, as stated in your paper. The association has held frequent meetings every year, mashed frequent metrics civity year, since it was organized, and I believe that all of its proceedings have been as legal and as regularly conducted as those of any corporation of a similar character ever chartered under the "Respectfully, "Gro, L.
