
MARION, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1897.

CONFEDERACY'S DAUGHTERS.

Fourth Annual Convention of Tactr

Sorlety to Meet in Baltimore. The Baltimore Sun says the fourth monal Convention of the United laughters of the Confederacy will be aeld in Baltimore, beginning on No-convention. It is also expected that Mrs. William H. Felton, of Cartersville, delegates, and there will be a reception during the Convention at the Conteder-ate Soldiers' Home, at Pikeville. Miss Kate M. Rowland is the corresponding given destitute families of Confeder-

BANKERS ARRESTED.

Charge-$30,000 Bond Each.

The Southern Railway Co, has ex-

Madrid, Spain. (By Cable.) -At a cabinet council the government decided to grant autonomy to Cuba under the suzerainty of Spain and to continue the Senor couling, minister of foreign affairs, explained to the cabinet the po-sition of the diplomatic negotiations with the United States, Senor ougusta,

A Bank Robbed of $3,000.

Morganfield, Ky., Says: Thieves entered the office of the Union County been rifled. The vanit was closed and locked, so the threves had no chance to get the money within it without detec-tion. The robbers made good their es-

A special to the Louisville Post from the premier, has received a cable sage from Captain General Weyler, who offers his services to the government and says: "I shall not reagn."

campaign as long as may be necessary secretary of the Order.

Good Advertising Medium-Rates furnished on application. Address, Trie Messenger, Darion, S. O.

 SUMMER'S FAREWELL

would follow, the life

Il. E. Stantin.

V 1 ZZIO S DAUGHTER. $

> urren and the dearest meld, had gripped streets a week before. cine but if he mu't of Battern Americants but they'd was Nima. to a log he had mover lit of the Estas certain the deathy thing begun? I.

a the most it would be part of it was that for the er further. He invited me to I had been thinking of to division as a comme-of to a sever-forgotten out by a nexes forgotten strike if he can't the end of it I was hope.

To my dying day I could never for the most that night in a section of the section of Least me like a third. bear it no longer; I threw out both -Chicago Record.

VOL. II. NO. 25.

I turned my head doggedly.

"Good heavens!" He stood staring, it back come what might. Such, con-me dead, every one of you, but don't ask not questions, for I can't answer outside, and I society —I admit to you, and not an hour ago I asked him to initiate me as a member—to put me to any fest. There no, I'm not mad; but—but I for a letter. No questions now; go, hope to marry his daughter, the dear- and all will be well" est and most innocent girl on God's his sight had failed him - Masters, my got there, I was in a train whirling lifelong chund Myself, I could not south "Killed him! Killed him!" move for a time. Call him back?—no, sang in and out of my brain. I had I could not! It was too late. If he killed a man! That was all; of Nina meant Nina of the one hand and salva- I never once thought. But, no-it tion on the other I must shows

. For your life do not some near. The house is watched by police. Λ take move now, and the work of months goes pour! We want friends immediately-friends with money and You -- you may have a double incentive! Say nothing of it, but go quietly to I Empert street, Soho, at reven this evening. is an emergency meeting, and there may be an ordeal from which you need not shrink. Knock twice and say,

That was it in a double envelope, drapped into my letter box early two days later. "For your life do not assure near!" I read it increditionally a most into cowardice by the proarmony of the message. Wy Nina in a house watched by the police! An order! Inpent that day is a perfect fewer of missiving. Onto a dezen-tive I started no with the determination of sceing Velaxare and learning at any cost what had happened since ye terday, but each true something held me back. When 6 o'clock came I was in no condition to reflect. Each set mechanically 1, 0n2 t Mapet

- a dull-gray house in an obscure the couplings. Barely a second of re-dition, and then I know hed I were and almost instantly the slow was opened by a busily-eved foreigner. The Cause," I wirepered Next moment I was groung along the groundest, stilled passage imaginable. The man -where was he? Where was horning heat breaking out over me,

"Quick, this way, triend?"
If came, a mulled sound, from the I was switter found, and beard a door husby voice was close at my ear. "Why we should trust an Englishand hern sitting at the unit, I know not, but Velazzio insists, come head work. When So listen! We have one test only, and it is wenally enough. In the darkened come behind you, twenty feet by eighteen, waits a man, chosen by lot, and armed with a knife precisely like this. I was just faintly conscious that my tingers had closed of the cause, and you yours. Courage! It need not be a duel to the death, nor even to a wound: should you cry out, 'Enough?' you may go as you came, on a condition which Vehazuo says you fully understand. In each case, the But remember your opponent will

To my dying day I get my sensat on while that astonishing proposal burning itself into my brain. But before I could properly realize, much less resust, a push—and I staggered into the borrible room, and I heard a lock citck behind close by me. I could have screenize but the sound would not congruetead I gave a convulsive twist uside, touched a wall, and stood parties and trembling against it, both bonds way mg madly. Not a sound: not a glim-mer in the blackness. In that first while enough," he to be an erect, red-hot wire. Let any the others they are man conceive a more painful positi

A minute, and the tremble had perrial in the eyes; think-may, rechars, although hordering upon insanity, my eyes the methen. "Yes, mat-straining through the darkness, I waited for the other to move again. he winspered, love does Only to know his whereshouts! Stir band-in-hand with myself I dozed not, could not, there was the door close by, and there was the chance of emitting it all by one shout, but I must have forgotten both true character of grip, to close with him, to feel the associates. There probe of his blade, it in my sitting room. Five minutes surely that number only, I tiptoed upstairs, and passed! and that idoe had not was bull open; my heart come. Involuntarily I took two strides ight of a num sitting out into the room, and there stood on Masters, re-ting his chin, too tips, furning as an a pixet to clutch

I had avoid- at something warm.
I seemed to Nothing! But to stand still now, world altogether. And having once moved, was impossible to bulging out of my The canning of sheer desperation took every by and hale them one. The floor seemed to be thickly Holding my breath, carpeted, and gave back no sound. residence in the door own the standard of the control of the contr one to this, has it? and then make two respectively and then make two respectively. A strained partie angles clutch tim with arms and legs, as that the first power of the first power o

Not a word! Come in here, you shall speak! Now, you mad fool, what are you mixed up 10? I'll know before I leave this house—before I put the police on the fellow."

He held the doorway, and he meant something. The nore sight of his face, working with mingled incredulity and indignation—the more recollection of all the dear old times together—was of all the dear old times together—was simultaneously two arms closed about enough to break down the miserable iny waist. Ah! In an abandonment barrier; but there was Nina-Nina's of fear, then, I gripped at his throat, glorious face between us that night, bent him back and struck-twice, three times at his chest, I think and "Well?" he asked.

"It's too late," was my answer. I knew Masters; only the much would stlence him, "Anything that bappens to him now, happens to me. Is that a stair and lay there, while the ground a stair and lay there, while the ground a stair and lay there, while the ground as the large of the control o seemed to be rocking under me. 1

"Melf, Jeff do you km s what you have shifted him.
"Yes, too well" I pun round I think but you cried 'Enough'" that does masky voice was whospering "You must go straight away, in case Listen! a cab waits outside, and I have put me

He had gone—picked up his last like a man dward, and gone if heard him feeling his way down the stairs as if hour later without her withou The rest seems like a part of a

"DEAR OLD JEFF-I am only praying that this reaches you all right. Heaven knows I have longed to put you out of your misery, but it was not safe. But now, however, Velazzio and his daughter should be well out of the country, and probably I have sue ecoded in preventing you making the mistake of your life. "Jeff, it was all a clever trick of precipies, and I took one of the fellows into my confidence. We hired the into my confidence. We hired the house in Soho, got the Italian to write that letter, and concocted an ordeal. When you stabled so nurderously at your opponent in the dark room you were stabbling at your old chum, Masters. Thank heaven, we had provided you with that 'property' knife, with the vanishing blade, that we bought for

"Disguised, I saw you safe off to Brighton, and then I just a real de-tective on Velazzio's track, and gave him his chance to clear out. Results thou that he was only too glad to take And so it is all over, and you will live to thank me for it.

Stage Coaches by Trolley.

Stage coaches can by electric trolley power represent the latest idea of inventive genius in regard to the application of electricity to purpose is now to be seen in operation a motor entriese running upon a highway, pro pelled by force taken from shield are supported by poles along metallic cable attached to the carriage. such a way that two troffey vehicles may pass each other, and each may turn round or pass from one side of the street to the other at the pleasure of the street to the other at the pleasure of the street to the other at the pleasure of the street and the switch tender, the chectre stage coach may stop and start when it likes, calling for passen at their doors on either side of the road, and rolling me rily along the highway, regardless of wind, show or is, its only limitation heing the or he, its only limitation being the poles and wires which give it motion, Over the quarter of a mile stretch alnearly carriage can easily run in forty rials are said to have been so success althat a permanent line of consider been completed at Handburg, Germany, in connection with the shippard and machine stops of Messrs. Blohm a Vosa. The American consult Robertson, who reports the fact, says that it with largest of its kind in exist.

Excursion Train World One needs to the saction of the same tendence 17,500 tons. Its length, with the pontoons, is 621 feet 4 inches, and its heartest men-of-war. Owing to its pseudiar construction, the dock, in into of war, on in case of other emerhe a boot. The dock will take vesinches. No vessel with a greater draught than 27 1-2 feet has ever succeeded in reaching Hamburg.

Rose Bonheur, the famous artist, leads the life of a passant, rising early and mong to bed late. Every morning on getting up, who takes a walk past 11 she works in her studio. Then she has breakfast. At 1 o'clock work is resumed until 5, when Mile, Benheur goes for an excursion in the for-

WHICH RENDERS CIVIL SERVICE

Null and Void, So Far as Protecting the Men Now in Giller Are Con-

The Washington Star prints the lowing: Assistant Attorney-General Boyd is writing an opinion, which wal probably receive the sanction of at torney General McKenna, sustaining the collectors of internal revenue of the United State marshal charged a large number of donuties The opinion is really in the case of Collector Brady, of Virginia, but will over the cases of a number of Southern collectors of internal revenue, who have followed the precedent set by Collector

Brady.

It is said these dismissals and the attitude of the attorney have been talked over at cabinet meetings, with an agreement that the optnion of My. Boyd shall represent the views of the President and administration. It will be carefully wer led, so that the spirit and letter of the civil service law will be upheld. The position to be taken by the decision is, that the tenure of office of a deputy reflector or deputy mershal runs with south. "Killed him!" Killed him!" sang in and out of my brain. I had killed a man! That was all; of Nina I never once thought. But, ho—it was all some nightmare. I would credit nothing until I received that letter.

And one mornin:, when f put the usual hoarse inquiry, an envelope was handed to me. One nervous glance, then an incredulous gasp. The handwiding upon it was—Masters! Ten minutes later, I was trying hard to take in a singefying revelation, sob after sub of relief shaking me. A revelation—yes, indred!

'Dran Old Jerr—Lam only praymake temperary appointments if they have no edigible list, and if they have ar edigible list, they must select their deputies from that.

> WHEAT, CORN AND OATS Good General Vield of Wheat; Corn

The Orange Juid Farmer in its final mine. That night, after what you told stimate of the year's wheat crop, says John me, I saw you were on the edge of a that figures based on actual threshing [returns indicate a total yield of 389,000, 300 bushels, of which 373,530,000 bush els is winter and 215,470,000 bushels spring wheat.

With the exception of Illinois and With the exception of illinois and Missouri, the winter wheat yield repre-sents the full capacity of the soil. The spring wheat yield in Minnesota and the lighour has proven a disappoint, ment, the aggregate being only [2], ment, the aggregate being only 125, 100,000 bushels. The shortage there is in a measure counterbalanced by the good yield in Nebraska, Oregon and Washington. The report says the commorps is exceedingly disappointing, at an outside estimate of 1,790,000,033 bushels. Drought during the past two months reduced the average condition from 82.3 a month ago to 78.9 on October.

An average out yield of 29.7 per York.

An average out yield of 29.7 per cre suggests a crop of 814,000,000

Mrs. dishels, 100,000,000 bushels more than ton. It

NEGROGIEL DENIED ADMISSION.

The Poughkeepsie, (N. Y.) Dispatch change the conductor had and essays: Ex-Congressman T. F. Miller, of caped. the vide of the road. By an ingenious | Eastman College for admission for his daughter, but, on account of the large number of young men from the South in the institution it was thought by President Clement C. Gaines madvis-

SIX KILLED AT A CROSSING.

A Passenger Train Strikes a Wagor A special to the St. Louis (Mo.) Disemiciently nepid pass, for a stage patch, from Willow Springs, Mo. Pt. S. & M. R. R., ran into a wagon containing seven persons, at Dead

a wreck on the Denver and Bio Grande narrow gauge at Cotoraxs, Col., seven-ty-two miles west of Pueblo, caused by breaking of a journal on one of the Miners Demand Retter Wages The National Congress of miners which has been in session at Liere, begun, decided to make a demand for an advance of 15 per cent in wages. If this demand is not granted by the middle of November the executive committee will call a general strike.

Champions of 1898, The Boston baseball club defeated the Baltimore team for the penant in the National lengue, thereby winning the Temple cup and making them the champions for 1888.

Washington, D. C., has been selected as the place of meeting for the American Society of Municipal Improvement in 1898.

Winston's Tobacco Trade, The Winston, N. C., Tobacco Association held its annual meeting last week when President Edmunds read his annual report, which showed that 14,001,012 pounds of leaf tobacco were sold on that market for 8888,17. Also that U. 34,002 pounds of tobacco were manufactured there during the past year.

"The stamp on revenue collections ag-ful, Mrs. Poshers"

TOLD IN A PARAGRAPH.

The South.

Geo, W. Reed has been appointed postmaster at Biltmore, N. C. National Pythian Press Association will meet in Nashville, Tenn., Oct.

Fire has caused a loss of $75,000 to rember 10, and lasting probably three the Central Railroad system, at Macon.

the Central Railroad system, af Macon, Gia.

At Opelika, Ala., the calaboose was burned and two negroes perished in the flames.

Many men have been thrown out of work at Nashville, Tenn., by the burning of a large planing mill.

At Newport News, Va., W. H. Gallupe was shot down on the street and killed by Morris Foreman.

President McKinley was invited to the Norfolk (Va.) fair, but had to decline on account of the press of business.

A. P. Grace, of Statesville, the court has alignmented, and all was a disappeared, and all the contral Rail has been secured for the meetings.

About one hundred delegates are exceeded to be present, representing all he Southern States, indian Territory, and New York city. Mrs. I effects on Davis is the honorary president of a large chapter of the Order and Mrs. D. Girand Wright, wife of Indge Wright, will delive the address for the order and president of the order and A. P. Grace, of Statesville, the court stenographer, has disappeared, and all efforts to find him have been vain.

In a political fight at Knuckle, Ky., Jacob Howard, Republican, was killed by John Milton, a Democratic candi-date. Nashville some months ago. Reports will also be made to the convention by the various chapters of the work of the year and officers will be elected.

The will of the late Lewis Gintee has

On account of the quarantine regulations the Fall Festival at Charleston, S. C., has been postponed until the week commencing December 13.

S. C., has been postponed until the week commencing December 13.

The stockholders of the Seaboard and Ronnoke Railroad met in Portsmouth. Va. President R. C. Hoffman and the old heard of directors were re-elected.

At Warsaw, Va., Alexander Carpenter, aged 12 years, a citizen of Port Royal, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a recorr At Warsaw, Va., Alexauder Carpenter, aged 72 years, a citizen of Port Royal, committed suicide by cutting vision; Mrs. John P. Hickman, of Nash-ville, Tenn., national recording secre-tary, and Mrs. I. Jefferson Thomas, of Atlanta, national treasurer. The Anna Stonewall Jackson Chapter of Washington, headed by their presi-dent, Mrs. Walter R. Bullock, will at-tend the convention in a body. The local members will entertain the his throat with a razor.

The contract for dredging the chan-nel to the dry dock at Port Royal, S. C., has been awarded to the New York Dredging Company, at a cost of $140,

At Hernando, Miss., a mob took Henry Crowder, col., out of the justice of peace's office and lynched him for seducing Dovie Ferguson, a daughter of a prominent farmer.

W. H. Bone's meat market, at Dal-The objects of the Order are me orial, monumental and beneficial. A las, Ga., was blown up by dynamite. There was also a notice placed upon a shade tree notifying the town council to change the town marshal. ate soldiers and help is extended in the Polly Brannum, the eldest woman in erection of monuments to commemorate the valor of Confederates. The Order is also assisting in the work of having introduced in the schools histories in Folly Branium, the eldest woman in Tennessee, died the other day age at the age of 100. She was the daughter of a lievolutionary patriot and in her day was acquainted with Sevier, Blount, Ioan, Carroll, Sam Houston, Andrew Johnson, Andrew Jackson, Polk and other men of national reputation. which the South will be properly Embezzlement and Conspiracy the burned, except five.

The North.

The business portion of the town of Alton, III., has been burned.

Ex-Congressman Miller's Daughter two men stopped a cable car and at the

The Dexter park pavillion in Chicago, n which were 500 horses, and a large number of other buildings has been land Cotton Manufacturers Association, urned; one man and many of the iorses were burned to death. to visit the cotton mill centers of the

At Cleveland, Ohio, J. J. Shipherd as been arrested on a charge of em-exching nearly $200,000 from F. D. South, located along that system of railway, and it is expected a large num ber of the members of the association will accept the invitation. About 2.0 cotton mills are located on the line of the Southern Railway, and the number Robinson and a receiver has bee for his firm, which is alleged to be in-solvent and owing $2,000,000.

Fire, supposed to have been started by tramps, destroyed the stock barn of Eurgess Brothers, at Winona, III. Thirty horses, many of which had taken premiums at State fairs, at Springfield, were destroyed. The is Miscellaneous.

Capt. Frederick Cnatard, the oblest surviving officer of the Confederate navy, has just died. William Rollins was crushed to death between two cars on the Richmond and Fredericksburg railroad. Great Britain refuses to enter into sealing conference with Russia and Japan, on account of Canada's ob-

John W. Mackay and I. E. Han-chette have gone to Nevada to close a trade for the Silver Peak mines for about $1,000,000. Bank and secured over Silico in our rency, which had been left in the cash drawer. When the bank officials re-turned they found that the drawer had

The North Atlantic squadron participate on the 21st of October, in Fosten harbor in the celebration of the centenary of the launching of the United States ship Constitution

Washington.

provement'in 1898.

John Wedderburn & Co. have been disbarred from practice before the in-terior Department as patent attorneys

At Washington, D. C., the police have secured Guiteau's pistol, with which, it is claimed. President Garfield was shot.

A Big Cotton | ire. A special to The Macon. (in) Tele graph from Montezuma, Ga. says McKenzie's large iron warehouse, co taining 1,000 bales of cotton, caugh fire and was entirely consumed. The flames spread so rapidly that the fire department could not save the building. he cotton destroyed was valued at $30,000, the warehouse at $4,000, and other contents of the building at $1,000. Insurance amounts to $25,000. have Ethel-Do you believe in palmistry?

"a., Mahel-Oh, it's all right for a starter,

A special to the Macon Telegraph from Moultrie, Ga., saye: W. H. Har ris and his son, Robert Harris, met J. H. Neismith in the public rout and shot him to death.

increasing.

Infant Beat to Death. In Opelika, Ky., a negro woman cape, leaving no cine behind to went to the field, leaving her infant in charge of her older cuildren. The crying of the baby disturbed the other children and they heat the infant to death with switches and sticks.

The cheering information comes from Chattanooga, Tenn., that, on account good to advance. of the improvement of the iron conditions in this section, Capt. H. S. Chamberlain, president of the Roane Iron Company, operating the Rockwood Furnace, and of the Citico Furnace. Company, has announced an advance of 10 per cent, in the wages of all employes of the two furnaces. This privance was unsolicited so far as the unce earners

FLORIDA'S FISH CONGRESS. Pens of Thousands Are Homeless in

tations to Other Countries. A BIG OCCASION AT TAMPA

To Talk About How to Grow Flsh, Oysters, Turtles, Sponges and Bult

the National Fishery Congress which convenes at Tampa, Pla, in January, 1888. The congress will, it is believed, ordered that all possible relief be ordered that all possible relief by prove to be one of the most noteworthy gatherings of the kind ever held in this country. A large attendance of roppe sentatives of the various State lish countries and the various State lish countries and the National Fish countries and fish culture will be welcomed. The United States government he extended in distinct the contribution of the governments of Great Bottam, Germany, Gassia, France, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Sweden and Norway, Benmark, Helgium, Austria, Bungary, Greece, The Netherlands, Jacan, China, Mevice, Braid, Venezule and other countries. It is proposed to organize an international Fish Association at the countries.

The call for the Congress was issued prove to be one of the most noteworthy given, sife of Gen. Lee, will preside at the convention. It is also expected that cia., will repeat during the convention her address on the education of the laughters of Confederate soldiers de-livered at the Confederate reunion in Association at the congress.

The call for the Congress was issued by Governor Boxham, of Florida. One of the main objects as to score harbony among the States in providing mony among the States in providing for the preservation, propagation and Protection of their water products. Fish culture, oyster culture, turtle culture and frog culture are down on the programme for discussion. The application of modern methods to the culturation of oysters as a subject in which all the coast States will be interested. Furtle culture is an innovation, but is first becoming a necessity in the algorithm. becoming a necessity in the absence of protection to the young and ears of the green turtle. The utilization of waste marsh land and points for the rearing of bull frogs for market is a subject of great interest to many thousands of people. The opportunity for those of small means to engage in this business

The North.

Every house at Austin, Pa., has been burned, except five.

The business portion of the town of Miton, III., has been burned.

George Ii. Lewis, the millionair coal operator, died suddenly in Buffalo, S. 1.

At Greenfield, Ind., Albert Scott tilled his brother, Benton, with a home with embezziement and conspir-

At Greenfield, Ind., Albert Scott in session at Greensboro, charging them with embezzlement and conspired the like brother, Benton, with a pump handle.

At East Longmeadow, Mass., a mother and two children perished in the forming of a dwelfung house.

Chas A. Dana, the veteran editor of the New York Sun, is slowly dying at his home in Gleen Gove, L. I., New York.

Mrs. Mary Devine and others, of Alicina and the School of the life of Mrs. Devine Son, who was hanged for murder twelveyears ago.

Two miles south of Kansas City, Mo., two men stopped a cable car and at the bonk songer the moit of patiols secured what small change the conductor had and escaped to patiols secured what small attacked the Conductor had and escaped to patiols secured what small attaces frield to the entercrise. The United States Fish Commission is small to be econdering the transportation of one of the finer grades of Wediter-rahean sponges to Florida waters. The best Purkush and Alrican sponges to Florida waters are some of the finer grades of Wediter-rahean sponges to Florida waters. The best Purkush and Alrican sponges to Florida waters are some of the finer grades of Wediter-rahean sponges to Florida waters. The best Purkush and Alrican sponges to Florida waters are some of the finer grades of Wediter-rahean sponges to Florida waters. The best Purkush and Alrican sponges to Florida waters are some of the finer grades of Wediter-rahean sponges to Florida waters. The best Purkush and Alrican sponges to Florida waters from the Universal waters and the manuscular waters are some of the finer grades of Wediter-rahean sponges to Florida waters. The best Purkush and Alrican sponges to Florida waters from the tundered of the finer grades of Wediter-rahean sponges to Florida waters from the Universal waters from the tundered of the finer grades of the finer grades of the finer grades of the finer and with all waters from the tundered of the finer grades of the finer grades of the finer and with the decision of shelters of the province of the f and competitive tests in fly casting the threatening flames, with appropriate prizes have been protended an invitation to the New Eng-

SEVEN YOUNG GIRLS PERISH.

Burned to Death in a Fire at a State Industrial School.

trial School at Plankinton, S. D., balter astronomer at the Casboy obhas been burned and Tille Hooper, it servatory, will go with a complete out-to; arge of the sewing department; Nellis observatory, will go with a complete out-fit, and Prof. W. W. Campbell, of Liek observatory, will represent the State Institution. The Pierson expedition Makel Fobert, aged 9, of Sioux Falls
Bessie Kerby, aged 14, of Hot Springs; Eva Warner, aged 10, of Watertown; Christian Fernman, aged 11, and it is probable that the two expeditertown: Christian Permanu, aged 11, and Lillian West, aged 11, of Sicous Falls, persished in the funding. Twen by five escaped in their night clothes.

all, his flock work till they actually fa from exhaustion. Their women ge any work they can do. Their meetings are held in the court bouse and some Methodists are meeting with them to

Refused to Recognize Our Consul. The German government refused to recognize Ferdinand Neuminn, of His Populist Contraction at Lincoln was non-instead by President lightly attended. McKinley on May 28th to be United States consul to Cologne.

Tar Heels Call on the President. A party of 500 excursionists from Winston-Salem, N. C., and vicinity Winston-Salem, N. C., and vicinity risited President McKinley at the White House last week.

The architects of the world have been invited to enter a competition for the new buildings of the University of Cal White House last week

Harris Nickel Plate Shows retined to give their performance in Bennetty-ville because the county tax had to be Senator McLaurin pledges himself to enjoyet the repeal of the prohibitive Federal tax on State banks and the creation of a State bank currency.

Mr. V. T. Martin, of Occuse, is mentioned for Comptroller General,

The Government Has Extended Invimost disastrous floods that have visited Uhina for many years. Sixty villages near Sung Chou, containing over 80,000 inhabitants, have been do troyed by floods and the people drowned or forced to dec. There are no means of finding out how many thousands have been drawned, but the number is estimated Uniness authorities at 15,000 to 20, Washington. — Special.) — The Fish Commission is very much interested in VIRGINIA REPUBLICANS.

Patrick Henry Mctaull Named as The Candidate for Governor. The State Beymblican convention of Virginia, in session at Lynchburg, is excellent.

One of the timely topics that will be prominently presented to the congress of the sponge industry. White Florida is the only state actively participating in the sponge fishery, every state is indirectly interested. Already some of the best stronge grounds have been deflected and the necessity for artificial measures to maintain the supply is being generally appreciated. Sponge culture is one of the most promising fields now opening in connection with the fisheries. With unimited water but tral committee is made embers from each congressional dis-

A complete plan of organization was form, the Meximoy administration honest election, etc., and deals with

ECLIPSE OF THE SUN.

To be Witnessed in India by Ameri-

Two expeditions will leave California this month for India to witness the The girls cottage at the State Indus total eclipse of the sun. Prof. Burcktions will meet in the thru the loss is about $20,000 with no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown but was probably caused by a lamp exploding.

Living Huddled Tegether Like Sheep.

A special from Baleigh, N. C., says.
Another ark load, forty-nine of Lynchites or sanctified band, arrived at Southport. There are now over 30 here, and they say more arks are coming. They are fiving huddled together like sheep, without regard to not losseph Lynch, their leader, work daily for farmers. So do all, or nearly all, his flock work till they actually fall.

Explosion in a Mine, At Plymonth, Pa., in No. 2 slope of the Parrieb Coal Company, three men-were killed, one barned by gas and others were obscome by fire-damp by an explosion.

Pencil Pointers. The Nebraska Middle of the Boad

The body of Charles F. Wing, a Greenville, ky., lawyer, was found in the river at St. Louis, Mo. Owing to a drought at Osceolo, Ark, wells are dry and people have to pay cents a quart for water.

Minister to Guntamaia.

President McKinly has signed extriale because the county tax had to be used in advance.

For S. M. Daveza's sanitarium, at this uniterstood that the Precident has practically decaded on W. B. Soraby, of Mississippi, for example general and city, in the event by Hunter finally concludes to accept the position of minister. munister.

Fair's Estate.

than $15,000,000.

The appraisers of the estate of the late Senator James G. Fair, of Cali-fornia, estimate its value at not more